"Smiling George" Walsh" in William Fox's comedy drama, "This is the Life," will be seen at the Bijou Theatre today and Thursday.

This is a particularly good picture secause not only is George Walsh the star, but his brother R. A. Walsh the man who put on the screen such plays as "The Honor System," "The Conqueror," "The Innocent Singer" "Betrayed," is the man who directed the making of the picture. R. A. is known for the many human touches he puts into pictures and in "This is the Life" he kept his brother busy with some exciting stunts. The hardst stunts R. A. asked George to do George did with an apparent feeling that that WAS the life !

George in the story sails for South America to guard his father's shipment of munitions. He meets a young lady and a count, He believes ther are part of a motion picture comlady is the daughter of an American revolutions. George joins the count ernment army in the South American Republic catches him and orders him shot, He escapes and also rescues the lady from the count's band and

Hats which are smart, but in an exquisite refined way inexpensive, yet made of the best of fabrics and the most dainty trimmings. Charming effectiveness is characterized in each creation, many being New Tork pattern models. Practically every type of Hat is in our shewing, yet every one is something surpassing those of previous seasons. The most exaggerated creations examined in detail show unusual beauty and intricacy of line, yet the extreme simplicity of the total effect is extremely

We have an exceptional showing of cleverly designed tailored and semi-dress Hats, in corded silks, velvet and fancy colored feits, with pretty braid trimming, pretty patent effects, and smart

AUTUMN USHERS IN THE

Barly Hall Suit Display

The Pall and Winter Sult Styles are wonderfully heat and exceptionally becoming.

Our Suits are made especially for us by our own guaranteed tailors, and they have shown a decided effort, not only to charm and please, but have obtained the best of serges and tweeds on the market—materials the quality of which cannot be bought today.

The Coat Styles this season are very smart, being made to slightly longer lines and also in a style which can be buttoned up to the neck, with the styles have other finishing. All modes are belted and slightly tails.
