MAY QUEEN RETURNS

SLOW IN COMING IN

The committee of the Red Cross that had in hand the conducting of the May Queen contest in connection with the 24th of May Celebration is unable to strike its balance owing to the fact that a considerable number of tickets and a large amount of cash are still out despite the fact that considerable time has elapsed since the closing of the contest.

As the General Committee is meeting Friday night to wind up the affairs of the celebration it is imperative that all returns, tickets and cash in connection with the May Queen contest be handed in at Mr. McGirr's office not later than Friday morning.

AMERICAN AMENITIES

Washington, June 2.—A group of women carrying banners demanding freedom for Ireland and that the United States recall her loans to England, burned a British flag before the treasury department today. The women disappeared before the police arrived.
