Love Finds the Way

might carry off the prize.

But Lord Harcourt, though perfectly willing to receive all the adoration, flattery and open sieging she was capable of giving him, would not be drawn beyond the limits of a gentle flirta-

dear," she said to her boson friend, Miss Amot, "he really has no heart, he's the handsomest man of his day and the fiintiest. Venus would have had to take to salt water again, nothing would ever move him. And yet I am sure he looked volumes on the lawn the other evening, and his voice—well, there I am not the first who has failed."

there I am not the first who has failed."

"He and Claude Ainsley are a pair," sighed Miss Amot, brushing the chestmut hair which had been done up in a thousand marvelous ways, each one a smare for the traveller's feet, or, rather, heart. "He is stone, as hard and as obstinate. But there is one comfort, he neither looks sweet or flirts in whispers. Of course, everybody knows what has spoiled him; and, take my word for it, dear, he has still got a lingering touch of the fever about him still. If her ladyship played her cards well and whistled the proper tune Mr. Ainsley would be at her feet again."

So much for these disappointed ones. They were not without comfort, however, for in the great city to which they were returning there was no lack of targets on which to try their fatal weapons—"long drawn sighs and melting eyes."

"Give me a time at Devonhill till the birds come in," said his lordship, look-ing up from his carom.
"I thought Devonhill was accessible to everybody but its owner, Harcourt?" said Claude Ainsley, with some little Lord Harcourt looked down rather

Lord Harcourt looked down rather hastily and waited to complete his stroke before replying, carelessly:
"Oh, no, I fell on my feet once more; got a loan for a time, and so escaped the sell-up which, when you left, seemed inevitable."

inevitable."

"Always fortunate. That's your game, there isn't time for another. Got a loan, sh? How did you manage that?"

"Oh, I—never mind, for heaven's sake don't let's go over it, my dear fellow; had enough when it's necessary. Anyhow, Devonhill's mine still and you are welcome to it, Will you come?"

"No." said Claude Ainsley, almost curtily. "I should bore you to death before the first of September. Don't be of-CHAPTER XXVII.

CHAPTER XXVII.

Without a word Miss Lucas glided in-to the room, closed the door, and noise took up her position by a chair, y Melville, who had never re Lady Melville, who had never removed her eyes from her face, sank into the chair before the toilet glass, and regarded her for a few moments in silence, then, in a cold, searching tone, she said:

"You wished to speak to me?"

Miss Lucas dropped her evelids.

Miss Lucas dropped her eyelids.

Lady Melville understood it as an affirmation, and waved her white, gemstudded hand at the chair.

"Sit down."
Miss Lucas sat down and clasped her Miss Lucas san hands in her lap.

There was something so indicative of hands in her lap.

There was something so indicative of the resolute, stealthy, snakelike woman herself in the gesture that the harassed woman of the world shuddered.

The shudder was not lost upon the other, and a cold, shadowy smile flitted over the steely eyes.

"Yes," she commenced, in her low, monotonous voice, "I heard your lady ship walking to and fro, and feared you were ill. I have heard you for several nights."

You heard me walking the room repeated her ladyship, fixing her dark eyes upon her. "Doubtless you also saw me?" and she glanced towards the key-hole.

Lady Melivlle expressed no surprise, though she may have felt any degree of

'Woman," she said, "I thought you

Your ladyship is too keen an observer of human nature to have erred in you conclusions, was the quiet reply. 'am a spy, if a curious mind deserves tharsh a name.'

"You have seen me walking in the coom; pray what else have you seen?" asked Lady Melville, removing her gaze for the first time, ad looking dreafily for the firs in the glass. "More, perhaps, than your ladyship rould imagine," answered Miss Lucas. Lady Melville started the slightest in he world, and turned in her chair to

There was less composure in her face we, and a tinge of alarm.
"You speak boldly, you behave with ol calculation; you know, or you fancy ou know, something that will compel to submit to your impertinence? Is not so?"

The governess inclined her head. "It is, my lady."

"You are candid," said Lady Melville, frowning darkly. "A word of warning— do not presume too much. I may discov-er ere long that you have founded your pretentions to my consideration on inpretentions to my consideration on in sufficient grounds. If I do, think no that I shall spare you'l I say, beware! "And I say, also, beware! my lady," retorted Miss Lucas, if reply so quiet! and monotonously spoken could be called retort.

"Good! Having warned each other,"
Good! Having warned each other," id Lady Melville, coldly, "and bearing mind that warning, let us proceed, ell me in a few words what you want me—but, first, I caution you, I am ot rich. The money I have is abserb-

"I know it," was the quiet inter-uption. "I do not come to ask money. I am not so unwise. Surely it would be waste of time, for your ladyship has

Lord Harcourt was worth winning, already an outlet which drains your poc-and she had flattered herself that she might carry off the prize.

Lady Melville turned upon her quick-

"Is that all you know?" she said, with bitter scorn. "Woman, go to your rest; you can make no market of such a poor commodity. The shame, if there be any, lies with the man who robs me, not with me who am robbed."

Miss Lucas shook her head slowly. "Your ladyship is hasty. I know more

Miss Lucas snook her nead story,
"Your ladyship is heasty. I know more than that. Lord Harcourt's white hands are always outstretched for hush money. I know what it is you pay him to hide."

hide."
"It is false!" breathed the beautiful woman, thrown off her guard, her white hands clinching at her side, and her lips tightly compressed as if with some inward agony.
"No, it is true," said Miss Lucas, smoothing her gray dress with calm fingers.

gers.

Her ladyship could almost imagine that they were smoothing out the whole secret of her life

She turned away for a moment and covered her eyes with her hands. When she removed them it was to see, with a start, that the noiseless woman was standing over her.

standing over her.

She shrank with a gesture of fear.

Once more came the quiet smile

"Your ladyship's maid has done your

"Your ladyship's maid has done your hair badly to-night. Allow me to brush it properly. I am deft and quick and will not hurt you."

Lady Melville leaned back in her chair and threw back her hair, and Miss Lucas commenced her task.

Lady Melville could see the expressionless face above her reflected in the glass. She kept her eyes from it.

"You have not told me what you wanted of me." she said, after a few moments spent in regaining her composure, and striving to think of some escape from the cold, grey, merciless woman: "what is it?"

"As yet nothing," was the reply, "Or the contrary, I came to offer my ser-vices to your ladyship." Lady Melville's lips curled with inex-

Lady Melville's lips curled with inex-pressible scorn.
"You speak falsely now, at least," she said. "Tell me how dearly I must pay for those services."
"Your ladyship is quite right to dis-trust me," was the reply. "I did not profess disinterestedness, I said not yet. In time I may. At present I want nothing. I am ready to work without wage."

"How can you help me, supposing I have need of help?"
"Your ladyship shall determine for yourself. I am a spy! You see, I have no false delicacy. In your ladyship's service I use it without malice. I may have learned something that might serve you, may I have learned it."

you—nay. I have learned it."
Her ladyship thought for a moment.
"To whom does it relate!" she aske
in the same cold tone.
"To three persons," was the reply.
"And first!"

"To Lilian Melville."

"To Lilian Melville."
Her ladyship's eyes dropped.
"What other?" she asked, huskily;
then, euddenly, raising her eyes to the glass again, she started.
"Do you bear her ill will? You look as if you could—"
"Kill her!" ground out the gleaming teeth, while the light in the usually lack-lustre eyes shone out sharp and fierce.

fierce.

Lady Melville shuddered and turned tremblingly.

Miss Lucas, calm and stolid again handed the salts and returned to he Miss Lucas. "You because she stands between you and Rivershall, and because —you are looking at me. Will you you are looking at me. Will your adviship tell me how old you think Lady Melville looked long.

"You are younger than I thought." he said. "You are young, and yet.—" teeled my face and heart, have stamped a mask where my face should be, not so deceive your ladyship. I am little older than Lilian Melville—I was nee as beautiful. Now can your ladyhip guess why I hate her?"

Lady Melville shook her head.
"I will tell you. For three years I

Lady Melville shook her head.
"I will tell you. For three years I have endured the sight of her happiness, have witnessed the love shed round her path, have seen her pampered and petted, worshipped and slaved for, have borne that worst of agonies to such a nature as mine, a half-concealed pity, a pampered, spoiled girl's commiseration for one who might have been as well a pampered, some a seven core as well cared for as herself. If your ladyship would not be shocked keep your eyes from the glass, for my face is beyond my control now. For three years I have had my own hard lot made sharper and haveled by control to the part of the part my control now. For three years I have had my own hard lot made sharper and harder by contrast with hers. I have felt what it is to be young without youth—a woman without love. Feeling this, enduring all this, do you wonder that I hate her and hers?"

Lady Melville shuddered.

"You have a bad heart." she said, in a low voice, "a bad heart." "I know it," was the calm reply, "But I shall have it till I die. You know now why I hate her. You can guess what reward I shall ask for my services. I ask that I may serve you to the end that before long I can pay back with interest her sickly pity and hateful sympathy; to give back poor Lily for poor Kate. To remind her that youth has gone and that love has fled. I would see her, the pampered, spoiled Lilian Melville, in the same condition as the hroker-spirited. smilleless governess, Kate Lucas; and for that joy, for that revenge, I will do all that woman may do, more than woman has yet dared to do."

"Leave me!" 'she said, huskily, "I will have nothing to say to you. I—I—"
She broke off, silenced by the quiet

"I have not finished your hair yet, my lady," said the lifeless voice, and Lady Melville, as if powerless to with-stand, sank into her chair and covered her face with her hands.

"I said I could give you some information: I will do so. Idlian Melville stands between von and Rivershall; soon there may be something more. Mr. Essant proposed for her hand and Sir Relph has given his consent."

Lady Melville gave a sharp cry of relief and rose again.
"Go," she said, with determination.

AT R. MCKAY & CO'S.

MONDAY, JULY 19, 1909

STORE CLOSES 5 P. M. (EXCEPT SATURDAY

SPLENDID BUYING CHANCES AT McKAY'S JULY SALE FOR MONDAY

Here is a list of Monday bargains that for real worth cannot sed. Come early and share in the great bargains.

Great Reduction Sale of Silk Muslin and Lingerie Dresses at $7.98

We have been fortunate in securing 100 Sample Dresses from a leading New York manufacturer. It is by all means the swellest assortment of Iresses we have shown this season. White, pale blue, pink, black, Nile green and a splendid assortment of flowered organdie muslins. All beautifully trimmed with lace and insertion. Make your selections early, as quantity is limited. Regular $16.50, on sale Monday at ......$7.98

White Shirts $1.29

White Coats $2.95

Full gored Skirts, trimmed with fold and buttons, all walking length.

Regular $2.25, sale price on Monday at $1.29

$1.29

St.29

White Coats $2.95

Coats, semi-fitting models, nicely tailored. Regular $4.50, sale price $2.95

Torchon Laces and Insertions

Torchon Laces and Insertions, up to 2 inches wide, regular price 5c yard,

Embroidery Bargain Monday 1,000 yards Embroidery and Insertion, 1 to 4 inches wide, on sale Monday, ands for

Specials in Blouses For Monday--- Third Floor

This is the Season for Bargains

The pulse of business in Housefurnishings is usually weak at this time of year. We have to stimulate it by giving exceptionally low prices. Short, y short, profits prevail. The wise and economical housekeeper knows this, d economical housekeeper knows this Note our Monday offerings; buys while prices are the lowest.

White Spreads Away Down Rock Bottom in Flannelette Blankets of t finish, ready hemmed and laun-Soft finish, ready hommed and laun. Best velvet quality, beautiful an ered, full size, splendid for constant soft, will launder and wear splendid óc. 1, reg. $1.75, Monday ... $1.05 ca. Single bed size, special at ... $1.23 pr. $0. 2, reg. $2.25, Monday ... $1.38 ca. Double bed size, special at ... $1.23 pr. $0. 3, reg. $2.50, Monday ... $1.48 ca. Extra large size, special at ... $1.45 pr.

A Marseilles Quilt Snap

Snaps in Cushion Forms

dy to cover, soft, won't lump, 18 90 22 and 24-inch, Full size, cream and terra could be solded by the s Ready to cover, soft, won't lump, way down, 18, 20, 22 and 24-inch, 29, 35, 47 and 58c spring roller.

Broken Lines of Lace Curtains

Special Values From Our Staple Section Longcloth 10c Fine Linen Finish English Long Cloth, clean, even weave, a special under-

Sheets 59c Remnants 10 Yd.

Odd lengths of Sheeting, 2½ yards Remnants Prints, Shirtings, Gala-in each, plain and twill, worth 30 to teas, ends 1 to 2 yards, worth up to 35c yard, special . . . . 59c sheet 25c yard, special . . . . 10c yard · Fly Net 3c

Bath Towels 17c Mill ends Crossbar Fly Net, red Anly, worth 10c yard, for ... ... 3c size, firm, absorbent weave, 22c value, for ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 17c

Remnants Nainsook 121/2c Remnants Nainsook ends, 1 to 2 yards, 40 and 42 inches wide. Regular 18

R. McKAY & CO.

What you have told me has given me FROM NEAR DEATH.

"What you have told me has given me strength to resist your awful temptation. Go, or I summon Lady Besant, Sir Ralph, and tell them zli."
"I ask your ladyship to remain quiet for a few moments and hear me out. I am near the bell and will ring it myself, if, after you have heard what I have to say, you still refuse to let me serve you."
Lady Melville hesitated and with nerveless hands commenced pacing the room.

so, no, I will hear nothing," she cried. "Now go at once. Let her marry him and be happy. I have done with hate. Let her marry him and so forever shut me from Rivershall. Let her marry him."

"Because the girl loves another and ill have him."

will have him."
"Another! Who?"
"Claude Ainsley," was the quiet reply.
Lady Melville stopped as though she had been shot and staggered against the ing her deathly while face to the other pule, powerful one. "No, no, that's false-false. She—she—he does not love hr!" "Does he not?" retorted the other. "Ask your own heart; look back upon the last few days; recall his conduct, his manner; remember the night he hung over her at the piano, the night he re-pulsed you in the garden—I m a sny. pulsed you in the garden—I am a spy, remember, so do not start; think of the loving look his face wears when he speaks to her, and, lastly, reflect that he speaks to her, and, lastly, reflect that he has suddenly determined to stop in England and travel no more. You would be blind not to see what all else have seen—Claude Ainsley loves her, she loves him, and Lady Melville will lose Rivershall and the man she loves even more than it."

Every word distinctly, coldly spoken, entered the proud woman's breast like a knife. Her face underwent a dozen different changing expressions; hate, love, rage, jealousy were tearing at her throat. What chance had the better angel? It was drowned in such a storm of emotion.

of emotion.

"Oh, false heart! He never loved me!"
she moaned.

The spy glided across the room and laid her stone-cold hand upon the trembling arm.

"He did." she hissed in her ear, "and Lilian Melville out of the way will do so again. What is such a schoolgir's sickly prettiness to the beauty of a woman, and such a woman as you are? This is a uch a woman as you are? This ancy lightly taken now, but it grow, give it encouragement, and it will grow to a passion that will sweep away the old one for you. Bar

(To be Continued.)

Young Woman Saved on Brink of Niagara River.

liam M. Tomlins, president of the Empire State Security Company, New York, and Samuel Brewster, treasurer of the Aetna Samuel Brewster, treasurer of the Actna Indemnity Company, New York, saved a young woman riding a bicycle from plunoing over the cliff into the Niagara River this morning. The girl was riding her wheel down the ferry hill when the chain broke, depriving the rider of the control of the machine, which rushed headlong toward the precipice, over which she would have been whirled to death but for the promptness of the marry him."

"But she will not marry him," said the quiet voice. "I said Mr. Besant had gained Sir Ralph's consent, but he will never gain Lilian Melville's."

"Why not—why—why not!" still walking to and fro, battling with her good and evil angels.

"Because the girl layer another and "Because the girl layer another and the still layer and the still layer another and the still layer another and the still layer another and the still layer and the still layer

CONVICT KNEW.

Charles Kendall Buys a New Suit and Escapes.

Vancouver, B. C., July 16.—Buying a suit of ordinary clothes in a store at Lulu Island, Charles Kendall, a convict working on the farm of the provincial jail on the island, slipped into the bush yesterday, changed his attire and dis resterday, changed his attire and dis-pipeared. His escape was quickly noticed, but search was in vain. He was sentenced to six month for stabbing a fellow-workman on the ireat Northern Railway between Van-couver and New Westminster a few weeks ago. He is twenty-eight years old.

The "Lake of Bays" Country.

A handsome brochure, artistically illustrated, has been issued by the passenger department of the Grand Trunk Railway System, telling of the beauties of the Lake of Bays district, in the 'Highlands of Ontario.' A new feature of this district is the new hotel—the Wawa—at Norway Point. The hotel itself has a page illustration reflecting the summer glories of woodland and water, with a brood of seven wild geese soaring skyward beyond the tower. The concise description embodies the story

A copy can be obtained free on application to J. D. McDonald, D. P. A., Tor

Cooling Medicines For Summer. English fruit salts, 25c bottle, or 40c English fruit saits. 25c bottle, or 40c lb. Persian sherbet, 40c lb. English citrate magnesia, 25c bottle, or 50c lb. Phosphate soda, 25c bottle. Pure West India lime juice. 25c large pint bottle. Junket tablets, 10c bottle. Rennet wine, 25c bottle. At Gerrie's drug store, 32 James street north.

ANCHOR LINE GLASGOW AND LONDONDERRY

STEAMSHIPS

Saming from New York Every Saturday
New Twin-Screw Steamships
"Gilfereis," "Galedonis" sad "Golambis"
(Average passage 7½ days.)
SALOUN, $67.50 10 $125.
SECOND CABIN. $42.50 TO $50.
THIRD CLASS, $27.50 AN1 $28.75
For new illustrated book of tours and information, soply to HENDERSON BROTHERS.
New York or
W. J. Grant, James and King streets.
Chas. E. Morgan, 11. James street north, or

"V. Jones, 6 James wheet south, Hamilton.

White Star-Dominion Royal Mail Steamships

Laurentic, triple screw; Megantic, twin scree argest and most modern steamers on the St Lawrence route. Latest production of t ship-builders' art; pasenger elevator servi-four decks. Every detail of comfort and lu-lary of present day travel will be found of these steamers.

four decks. Every detail of comfort and lux upy of present day travel will be found of these steamers.

CANADA ... July 17, Aug. 21, Sept. 2 LAURENTIC ... July 34, Sept. 4, Oct. MEGANTIC ... Aug. 7, Sept. 11, Oct. OTITAWA ... Aug. 14, Sept. 18, Oct. The popular steamer "CANADA" is als again scheduled to carry three classes of bassengers. While the fast steamer "OTAWA" and the comfortable steamer "DOM INION," as one-class cabin steamers (calies accound class), are very attractive, at moder after rates. Third class carried on all steamers. See plans and rates at local agent's of company's offices.

118 Notre Dame Street, West, Montreal.

41 King Street East. Toronto.

C. P. R. STFAMERS

O. II III OILA	HEILO
rom Montreal and Quebec	From Liverpool
1ly 24Lake Erle	July 16 July 21 July 30 Aug. 4
All steamers equipped with l conveniences for the safety passengers. All steamers carry third class	and comfort

To book or for further information apply the nearest C. P. R. agent or S. J. Sharp Yonge street, Toronto.

SCRAP BOOK POETRY

THE BAREFOOT BOY Blessing on thee, little man, Barefoot boy with cheeks of tan; With thy turned up pantaloons, And thy merry whistled tunes; With thy red lips, redder etil Kissed by strawberries on the hill; With the sunshine on thy face, Threugh thy torn brim's jaunty grace; From my heart I give thee joy— I was once a barefoot boy!

Mine the sand-rimmed pickerel pond,

Live and laugh as boyhood can, Though the flinty slopes be hard. Stubble-spread the new mown sward. Every morn shall lead thee through Fresh baptism of the dew; Every evening from thy feet. Shall the cool wind kiss the heat.

All too soon our feet must hide
In the prison cells of pride,
Loee the freedom of the sod,
Like a coll's for work be shod,
Made to tread the mills of toil;
Up and down in ceaseless toil;
Happy if their tracks be found
Never on forbidden ground—
Happy if they sink not in
Quick and treacherous sands of sin,
Ab, that thou couldst know thy Joy
Ere it passes, barefoot boy!

JOHN G. WHITTIER.

SUFFRAGETTE ARRESTED. London Ranks Recruited From Buf

St. John, N. B., July 16 .- A uniqu St. John, N. B., July 16.—A unique newspaper situation developed here late to-day, when the four city reporters of the Standard, the morning Conservative paper, left in a body, following a series of events which ended to-day also ig the city editor leaving. Several reasons affecting the relations of the management and the staff operated to bring the matter to this point. Temporary arrangements were made for carrying on the work. The trouble comes on the The trouble comes on the eve of a hotly contested by election in St. John county for a vacant seat in the Provincial Legislature whitby, July 16.—Public opinion here is practically a unit in condemnation of the heartless treatment to which W. B. Willing, charged by her with bigamy, had subjected the pretty English girl, Gertrude Lomax. She appeared at Police Magistrate Harper's hearing this afternoon, but did not have to tell her story. Willing pleaded guilty when County Attorney Colonel Farewell read the indictment. Sentence will not be imposed till Monday afternoon.

WILLING PLEADS GUILTY. Whitby Bigamist Will be Sentenced on Monday.

Kitchens for an Army.

Two thousand movable kitchens have been ordered for the Austrian army. Each kitchen consists of a four-wheeled ration which consists of a four-wheeled vehicle drawn by two horses and weighing about half a ton. The equipment of each includes four coppers, an oven cupboards, tables and various other facilities for cooking in the field.

GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM To All Principal TOURIST RESORTS

Full Summer Service Now in Effect.

ALASKA-YUKON-PACIFIC EXPOSITION, SEATTLE

CANADIAN PACIFIC FAVORITE LINE TO

COOL LAKE TRIP

For train times, tickets and full information apply to City Ticket Office, cor King and James streets.

T., H. & B. Ry. New Train Service

Two new trains between Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo daily, except Sunday, leaving Hamilton at 2.20 p.m., arriving Buffalo 4.30 p.m. Returning, leave Buffalo 10.10 a.m., arriving Hamilton 12.30 p.m., Toronto 1.25 p.m. See time card for new connections to Pittsburg, Cleveland and Boston.

INSURANCE

F. W. CATES & BRO. Royal Insurance Co.

Assots, including Capital
$45,000,000
OFFICE—Room 502, Bank of Hamilton WESTERN ASSURANCE CO. FIRE AND MARINE Phone 2584 W. O. TIDSWELL, Agent

Children's Shoes

This store carries the best assorted stocks of Children's Shoes in Ontario. It will give you some idea of the large business we do in children's shoes when we candidly state that during the past two weeks we children's shoes in black, tan, red and white. Bring your children here for their shoes. FOR MEN AND WOMEN .- On Saturday we received five hundred and forty-three pairs of Hagar shoes. Our stock is always new and up to date

J. D. CLIMIE 30 and 32 Ktng Wesl

THE USE BIG OF THE THE

York

Mrs. Ghent and daughter, of Toront left on Saturday, after spending a feedays with her sister, Mrs. B. Bond.
Mr. Gordon, contractor, is preparing the cement blocks of the new tow day.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodis Church have a fine programme arranged for their garden party, to be held on the church grounds on Wednesday evening, July 21st. The Cayuga Fireman's Band and Miss Pearl Heron, of Brantford, an excellent reader, will assist, and there will be solos, duets and quartettes by other talent. Col. W. T. Thompson will occupy the chair.

occupy the chair.

Mr. George Ellis fell from a load of hay on Monday, but as there was quantity of hay on the barn floor h suffered no serious results, except a bac shaking un.

HIS FLESH

HORRIBLY BURNT. His druggist sold him a cheap acid corn cure; what he should have bought was Putnam's Corn Extractor; it's pure-y vegetable and acts in 24 hours. Insist on only "Putnam's."

John A. E. Anderson, formerly led-ger-keeper in the Portland street branch of the Bank of Montreal, is being sought for in Europe on charges of passing forged or worthless cheques.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

Nisgara Falls, New York—1.06 a.m. daily, 2.27 a. m., 5.37 a. m., 19.06 a.m., 19.06 a.m., 5.35 p.m., 5.37 a. m., 19.06 a.m., 19.06 a.m., 5.35 p.m., 5.20 p.m., 5.20 p.m., 5.20 p.m., 5.20 p.m., 5.20 p.m., 5.20 p.m., 10.06 a.m., 111.30 a.m., 2.20 p.m., 5.50 p.m., 15.45 p.m., 111.30 a.m., 15.45 p.m., 6erinsop. Beamsville, Merritton—19.06 a.m., 111.30 a.m., 16.45 p.m., 6erinsop. Beamsville, Merritton—19.06 a.m., 9.06 a.m., 17.05 a.m., 17.05 a.m., 19.06 a.m., 19.06 a.m., 17.09 p.m., 19.06 a.m., 19.06 a.m., 19.06 p.m., 19.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY. 7.49 a. m. for Toronto, Lindear, Boboargeon, Tweed, Kingston, Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec, Sherbrooke, St. John, N.B., Halifax, N. S., and all points in the Maritime Provinces and New Rogland States.
8.35 a. m. for Toronto, Tottenham, Beston, Alliston, Coldwater, Bala, the Muskots Lakes, Parry Sound, Point au Baril, Byng Inlet and Sudbury.

lates, Perry Bound, Foint an Dari, 1974.

10.00 a.m. (daily) for Teronto.

12.25 p.m. for Toronto, Gualph, Elmira,
Milverton and Goderich. Leronto,
Milverton and Goderich. Leronto,
Lindsay, Bondallyson Peterboro, Tweed, Brampton, Fergus, Elora, Ornagawille, Owes
Sound, Arthur, Mount Forest, Harriston, Wingham, Coldwater and Immediate stations.

tions.
5.05 p. m. for Toronto.
8.15 p. m. for Toronto, Peterboro, Ottawa, Mortreal, Quebec, Sherbrooke, Portland and Boeton, also for Alliston, Coldwater, Bala, Parry Sound, Sudbury, Sault Sts. Maris, Fort William, Winnipeg, Canadism Northwest, Kootenay and British Columbia points.
Trains leave Toronto 7.50 a. m., (daily), 9.30 a. m., (daily), 7.15 p. m., 18.50 p. m., (daily), 7.15 p. m., 11.10 p. m.

TORONTO, HAMILTON & BJFALO RAILWAY.

HAMILTON RADIAL ELECTRIC Hanilton to Burlington—4.18, 45.40, 47.18, 17.40, 8.16, 8.40, 9.10, 8.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40, 18.40, 18.10, 18.40

* Daily. except Sunday.

Burlington to Hamilton. **-6.00, **6.30, **7.00, **7.30, **7.

HAMILTON & DUNDAS RAILWAY. Terminal Station—6.15, *7.15, $.15, $.15, 10.15, 11.16 a.m., 12.15, 1.18, 2.15, 2.15, $.15, 5.15, 5.15, 7.15, $.15, 9.16, 10.15, 11.15 p.m. Leave Hatt St. Station, Dundas—6.00, *6.15, *7.15, $.16, 9.15, 10.15, 11.15 a.m., 12.15, 1.11, 11.15 a.m., 12.15, 1.11, 11.15 a.m., 12.15, 1.11, 11.15, a.m., 12.15, 1.11, 11.15, a.m., 12.15, 1.11, 11.15, a.m., 12.15, 1.11, 11.15, a.m., 12.15, 1.15, a.m., 12.15, a.

Leave Hamilton-7.10, *8.10, 9.10, *10.00.
1.10, *12.10, †12.45, *1.10, *2.00, 2.10
10, 4.10, *5.00, 5.10, 6.10, 7.10, 8.10, 9.10, *11.14 p. m. Leave Beamsville—*6.15, 7.15, *8.00, 8.15, 9.15, *10.16, *11.16, *12.00 a. m., 17.15, 1.15, 2.16, *2.15, 4.15, 5.15, 6.15, 7.15, 8.15, *9.40 p. m. *Daily, except Sunday, †Sunday only.

BRANTFORD & HAMILTON ELECTRIC RAILWAY. Leave Hamilton—*6.20, *7.45, 8.20, 8.20, 20.20, 11.20 a. m., 12.20, 1.20, 2.20, 3.20, 4.20, 5.20, 6.20, 7.20, 8.20, 9.20, 10.20, *11.20 g. m.

11.00, a. m., 12.00, 1.00, 2.00, 8.00, 4.00, 6.00, 7.00, 8.00, 9.00, 10.00, *11.00 p. m. *Daily, except Sunday. STRAMER TURBINIA.
Between Hamilton and Toronta.
ve Hamilton, 10.45 a. m., *5.20
ve Toronto, 8.00 a. m., 2.00 p. m.
uurday 6,30 p. m., instead of 5.30. STEAMERS MACASSA AND MODJESKA. Leave Toronto, 9.20, 11.30 a. m., 5.20 p. m. Arrive Hamilton, 12.15, 2.16 and 8.15 p. m. Leave Hamilton, 8.00 a. m., 2.15 and 7.36

P. m. Arrive Toronto, 10.46 a. m., 5.00 and 10.00 p. m. Note—Special time table Wednesday and Saturday. THE HAMILTON FERRY CO. North shore time table for Wednesday and Saturday:
Leave Hamilton—5.20, 7.20, 9.20 a.m.; 12.20,
2.20, 4.20, 6.20, 8.30, 11 p.m.
Arrive Hamilton—6.40, 8.40, 10.40 a.m.; 1.40,
3.40, 5.40, 7.40, 8.40, 12.20 p.m.

3.40, 5.40, 7.40, 8.40, 12.20 p.m.

Leave Hamilton—6.20, 7.20 a.m.; 12.20, 6.20,
11 p.m. SUNDAY SERVICE.

Leave Hamilton-11 a.m., 1.50, 2.30, 4, 5, 8

Walking Canes

Arrive Hamilton-12,20, 2,20, 3,50, 4,30, 6,20, 9,20 p.m.

We have a number of very nice light Canes, just the thing for young men. They are worth $2.00 to $3.00. We are selling them for $1.50 each. They have sterling silver mounts and see upsted sterling silver mounts and F. CLARINGBOWL

22 MacNab St. North

BLACHFORD & SON

FUNERAL DIRECTORS
57 King Street West.
ablished 1842. Private Morte

1.16 p. m. *Daily, except Sunday. HAMILTON, GRIMSBY & BEAMS-VILLE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.