A paper by Miss James B. A', of Westmount High School,' The Relation of Parent and Teacher.'

Teachers often grievously fail to satisfy but they try to get the view point of other persons interested in the education of the children and that of the children themselves. Parents also often grieviously fail in their task, and yet they have seldom more than five or six personalities to deal with, while the teachers have large numbers, sometimes forty or fifty. Teachers have to be careful moreover, to mete out the same treatment
