On the eve of his departure he was presented, in the Legislative Council Chamber, with a complimentary address, which was read by His Lordship Chief Justice Palmer, to which Mr. Kiem replied in feeling terms.

WE hope the report current some weeks ago that the New Dominion Building would be ready for occupancy by the beginning of the new year, will prove correct. It will be too bad if the Post Office and the other departments are to remain all winter in their present unsuitable quarters. We trust the parties intrusted with the preparation of the new building will boom things during next month.

WE very much regret that owing to ill health, the Very Reverend Mother Provincial of the Congregation de Notre Dame has been obliged to return home to the Mother House at Montreal. The Very Rev. Mother accompanied by Sister St. Pelagius, left here this morning by the Pictou boat. His Lordship Bishop McIntyre goes with them as far as Point Levis, Quebec. Since the unfortunate accident which overtook her on arriving here last fall, Mother St. Luce has been in failing health.

AT the regular meeting of the City Council, held on the 9th inst., Councillor A. A. McLean moved, seconded by John Kelly, the following resolutions:

Whereas, the contractors (the Charlottetown Waterworks Co.) with this city, for the construction of a system of waterworks, have not commenced the work, and it is impossible to construct the same within the time agreed,

Therefore Resolved, that the tender committee be authorized to call for tenders for the construction of a system of waterworks for the city of Charlottetown; said tender to be in the form annexed to said contract.

The Recorder suggested that this matter be left for a few days, as the Charlottetown Waterworks Co. had been actively engaged lately in organizing. Several Montreal capitalists had lately paid in the money they had been waiting for
