THE ADDRESS

DEAR SIR,-Having learned with regret that you have been called to sever your connection with us, in order that you may be placed in a better position for the advancement of your interests, we feel that we cannot allow you to depart from amongst us without shewing you some slight token of our esteem and you some slight token of our esteem and respect for you.

Meeting you as we have done nearly every day for many years past, we can assure you that we have always found you obliging and courteous in all your dealings with us, your kind and social disposition towards us in the past we hope may be found in your successor, and we trust that you may long be spared to en-joy the good things of this life.

Accept from us this ring as a lasting tribute of our good feelings towards you. Wishing you every succes in life. Deted this 1st day of March, A. D.

Signed by F. F. LAWRENCE on behalf of agents and employees Am. Ex. Co., Goderich and Buffalo Division.

Mr. Ridley was much affected by the manifestation of good fellowship evidenced by the employees of the Express Co., and by the gentlemen around the festive board. For seven years he had been a resident of Goderich, and in all that time he had met with nothing but uniform kindness and courtesy from the people of Goderich. Never since he left the parental roof had his heart felt so sad at and he could assure all present that come weal br come woe, Goderich would ever have a warm place in his remembrance.

During the evening suitable speeches were made by Mayor Horton, Reeve Johnston, Judge Toms, and Messes. F. F. Lawrence, Gifford Elliott, J. Robinson, M. Nicholson, W. Mitchell, J. Starke, Thos. Hays, D. McGillicuddy, J.
