the East Conservative speakers propose to campaign by attacking the western farmers. It is probable that when parliament resumes on Wednesday the government will put the opposition to the test by placing upon them the responsibility for continuing the reciprocity debate and thereby delaying the vote on the issue. In view of the reports from all parts of the country it is recognized that all sincere and serious oppoistion to the pact has now subsided. The House must prorogue by May 1 to enable Sir Wilfrid to leave for the Imperial conference, otherwise the opposition must assume the responsibility for the failure of Canada to be represented at this important meeting of the conference,
