Grand Falls St. Andrew's Society

BURNS NIGHT. The Grand Falls St. Andrew's Society celebrated the Burns Anniversary on Jan. 27th in the Town Hall, which was gaily decorated for the

To Mrs. McPherson, and the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society, great credit is due for the excellent catering arrangements and the tasteful table decorations.

The supper was followed by the usual toasts, interspersed with musical items, suited to the occasion. The songs proved to be happily selected, and were thoroughly enjoyed by an appreciative audience.

"The Immortal Memory" was proposed by Rev. W. C. Morrison in a scholarly address. He gave a brief but interesting sketch of the Poet's career, incidently comparing the reward received by Burns during his lifetime with the sums now realized for his manuscripts and the early editions of his works. The kind of reward that is too often the lot of

On the completion of the musical programme, dancing was carried on until a late hour, a feature being the reels and Scottish dances. The Society has as one of its aims the revival and cultivation of the old dances, an aim which appears to be well on the road to attainment to judge from present examples.

The success of the whole evening is of good augury for the future of the Society, which is now entering upon its third year of existence.

Health and Vitality for Women

Health and Vitality can be yours without narcotics or drugs. Keeping well is largely a matter of keeping at bay those dread ailments peculiar to women as evidenced by headaches, nervousness, dragging-down pains, backache and irritability. For fifty fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such conditions and restoring sick and ailing women to health. It surely pays every suffering woman to try

Anita Stewart at Star Movie To-Day

The man who loved her called her faithless. Gossipers said she trifled with life. Yet it was life-her lifethat she risked to win back the love of the man who condemned her.

"A Question of Honor" is a baffling problem that even Edison overlooked It's a chapter of the new West. Punctuated with action and romance.

"A Question of Honor" brings up the question of whether Anita Stewart will ever again surpass it for daring and dramatic talent.

A society "deb" finds a strange love and a rapid succession of thrills on the scene of a gigantic engineering work.

You'll find the answer to "A Question of Honor" in the heart of loving womankind.

Since "Old Kentucky," Anita Stewart has never appeared in more daring seenes or thrilling situations than in "A Question of Honor."

There is only one answer to "A Question of Honor"-it is stunning-surpassing anything Anita Stewart has
