Commissioner Sowton

Commissioner Charles Sowton, who arrived to-day to preside at the S. A.
Annual Congress, is a Londoner by birth, and was converted in the Salvation Army at Brighton. For fifteen months he was a Soldier of the West Brighton Corps, and then entered the International Training College in September, 1888, and received his first appointment as Lieutenant at Bath in April, 1884. Appointments at Bristol and Rochdale followed, and then he was transferred to Scotland, and had charge of some important Corps in that country. Promotion to the staff followed with appointment in various Divisions in England.

The Commissioner's first foreign appointment was Norway, to the command of which territory the General appointed him when the country had only been opened nine months. There he was united in marriage to Capt.
Shimmin, whom he had learned to know in Scotland. Three weeks after their marriage the unexpected breakdown of an officer made it necessary for Mrs. Sowton to take charge of the Women's Training College, together with one of the Christiania Corps.
This she did with fine spirit, and in spite of the language difficulty, discharged her dual responsibility with much success, until several months afterwards other Officers were available.

A term of splendid service in Norway followed, during which opposition was particularly fierce, Salva-tionists being denounced as wolves in sheep's clothing, and the people warned against them.

From Norway Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were appointed by the General to the command of the Army in Denmark. Here a fine work was in progress, but the difficulties were many and much opposition had to be overcome.

Commissioner Sowton was next appointed to Sweden as Chief Secretary, first under Commissioner Ridsdal, and then under Commissioner Oil-hant. In Sweden Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton made themselves much loved by the people, and when the rapidly developed work among the Scandinavians in the United States made it necessary to appoint Officers to take charge of the same, Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton were chosen by the General for that position, their knowledge of all three Scandinavian countries and peoples making them especially suitable for the appointment.

The first three years were spent in New York, with, of course, a great deal of travelling to all parts of the country where there were Scandinavian settlements. Another four years were spent in Chicago, where in addition to retaining the oversight of the Scandinavian work, the Commissioner was also Provincial Officer for that Province.

The next change of appointment found Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton returning to Denmark by the General's wish to take up once more the leadership of the work in that country.
They were given a most hearty welcome and had a very happy and successful term. This was cut short in a most unexpected fashion by the Commissioner's appointment as Chief Secretary of Canada, and thus at the call of their General the Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton once more crossed the Atlantic, determined to push the Salvation War to the best of their ability.

Fine tribute to the International spirit of Commissioner and Mrs. Sow-ton, and to their capacity for widely varying service was shown in the General then appointing the former as Chief Secretary for India and Ceylon, where for seven years these two devoted Officers labored in the strength of God for the salvation of the heathen, with just the same blessing and success that had attended their toil among other nations.

From India and Ceylon the General selected Commissioner and Mrs. Sow-ton for a return to their former battleground, Canada; this time as Territorial Leaders for the Western Territory.

During their command in the West, 24 new Corps were opened within the Territory, and 66 properties secured, and good foundation laid for spiritual and material advances to be made.
When once more the call for International service came in the appointment to the Territorial Command of Sweden.

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton on their arrival in their old battleground, Sweden, were received with open arms, and such has been the blessing that has attended their labors there that when after only two years' stay the General called on them to farewell, and take up the command of Canada East, unfeigned regret was expressed in every quarter.

Commissioner Sowton is preeminently in spirit a Salvationist, and his whole Army career, which extends beyond thirty-eight years, is stamped by that fact. While a keen administrator, he is in principle and practice a man of heart and deep religious purposes. Other things the Commissioner is besides, and it is these probably as much as his sterling, unaffected Salvationism, which led the General to select him for the exacting enterprise of pushing forward the Army's work in Canada East.

Mrs. Sowton is one with the Commissioner in believing that salvation is the cure for every ill. She delights in bringing home to all with whom she comes in contact the application of the power of personal religion. In her meetings Mrs. Sowton makes good use of illustrative matters, and her addresses are usually replete with stories of great human interest and apt application.

Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton have three children, namely, Adjutant Anna at Toronto, Ensign Charles, in China, and George, who is a Captain in England.

Wedding Bells

CAMPBELL-WINTER.

Over 200 guests attended the wedding of Miss Jean Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Campbell, to Marmaduke Winter, at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, this afternoon.
Rev. R. J. Power was the officiating minister.

The bride looked charming in a dress of oyster white crepe, satin and lace, trimmed with pearls and crystal beads, and with a train of white satin.
Lined with shell pink. She wore a veil of white tulle with coronet of "Point Venice" lace and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Duff and Miss Helen Rogerson, who wore dresses of "Rose Orchid" and "Jade" Georgette, respectively, with leghorn hats and shower bouquets of shaded sweet peas.

Mrs. J. R. N. Frye, who was Matron of Honour, wore a dress of salmon pink, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses.

The bride's mother was dressed in pearl grey Georgette crepe, embroidered with crystal beads, and a black hat.

The train bearer was little Miss Betty Ford, niece of the groom. Mr.
T. Winter, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Messrs.
Neil Campbell, J. J. Strang, W. J.
Clouston, M. D. Shears, P. E. Outerbridge and Frank Bennett.

The groom's present to the bride was a white gold wrist watch; to the Matron of Honour, a gold bar pin with sapphire; to the bridesmaids, white gold bracelets, set with sapphires; to the train bearer, a grain gold mesh bag, with sapphire clasp; and to the best man, a silver match box.

While the register was being signed, "Because" was beautifully sung by Miss Elsie Herder, who was accompanied by Mr. Wardell. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Circular Road, where an opportunity was presented to the guests of inspecting the many valuable gifts which formed an eloquent testimony to the popularity of the bride and groom.

During the afternoon the happy couple left by car for Mr. A. Herder's bungalow at Topsail, en route to Pla-cencia, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride's going away costume was a white bengaline ensemble, trimmed with white fur, with a black and white hat. The Telegram joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Winter much future happiness.

SHEARS-MORRIS.

ROBINSON'S, July 9.—The Church of England here was the scene of a pretty wedding, on Tuesday evening, July 7, when Miss Caroline Shears, youngest daughter of Mrs. and the late George Shears, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. W.
H. Morris, son of Mrs. and the late Joseph Morris. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. L.
Shears, looked charming in a gown of white crepe de chene, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and carnations.
The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Butler, of St.
George's, and as the bride entered the church the wedding march was ably rendered by Miss Olive Morris, sister of the groom. The bride was attended by Miss M. Morris and Miss S. Roberts, who were attired in gowns of blue satin and carried bouquets of pink and white carnations. The groom was supported by Messrs. R. Morris and R. Shears. After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded to the home of the bride, and from there to the Town Hall, where they partook of a sumptuous supper, after which the usual toasts were honoured. At midnight the whole party drove to the railway station, the future home of the bride and groom. They left by Wednesday's express for Spruce Brook, where the honeymoon will be spent, after which they will proceed to Robinson's, where the groom holds a responsible position with the N. G.
Railway. The happy couple were the recipients of many and valuable presents. Among the visiting guests were Rev. Mr. Butler, of St. George's, J. J. McCormack, railway agent with the N. G. railway, and Mr. and Mrs.
C. Pawlett. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Morris wish them every success and happiness in the years to follow.

Talk of the Town

IS THE ORPHANS PARTY.

The talk of the town these days is the C. E. Orphanage Garden Party, which takes place on Wednesday atternoon next, and everything points to a banner day. The whole public are invited and it is hoped that as many as possible will attend. The horse show will be well worth a visit, and Dr.
Furneaux informs us that fresh entries are continuing to come in. In this connection the express and private driving horses have been divided into two classes, and handsome prizes will be awarded the winners in each.
The gala dance at night will be held in the Grenfell Hall, the music for which will be supplied by the Prince's Orchestra. This will be a fitting close for the day's enjoyment. An active and energetic Committee is in charge and they hope to give those who attend the time of their lives.

The Mount Cashel Band has again offered their services, and we learn that these juvenile artists are preparing an attractive programme. Rev. Ennis with his customary kindness has offered the Committee through Councillor Dowden anything that may be needed for field arrangements. Needless to say this offer is much appreciated. Last evening a crowd of men were on the grounds busily engaged preparing tables, tents, etc. They will be active again on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and they expect those who were unable to attend last night to be present. Mrs. R. B. Job informs us that the following ladies will have charge of the tables:—

Tea Tables—Mrs. J. Coaker, Mrs.
Outerbridge, Mrs. H. D. Carter, Mrs.
Carnell, Mrs. G. Williams, Mrs. Stevenson, Cathedral Women's Association, Mrs. Green, Miss Taylor, Mrs. L. J.
Green, Mrs. Anthony, Mrs. England, Mrs. Rowe, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Rogers, St. Thomas's Association, Mrs. Alderdice, Mrs. White, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs.
Noseworthy, Mrs. George H. Cook, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. George A. Cook, Candy and Home Cooking—Mrs.
Reg. Dowden.

Ice Cream—Messdames Cole and Laing.
Flower Table—Mrs. J. Rendell.
Grabs—Miss Jean Knowling.
Putting—Mrs. F. Reid, Miss M.
Syme.

Fancy Table—Lady managers.
Afternoon teas will be served by twelve ladies. In addition to the foregoing there will be the side shows in charge of the gentlemen.

Sergt. Ricketts, Newfoundland's V.
C., has offered Mrs. Dowden a donation for her stall with the request that it be auctioned. A few years ago Tommy donated a pipe which was put up at auction. Bidding was brisk, especially between two well known and popular knights of the realm—one a business man and the other a politician; it was knocked down to the latter for $83.00, and that gentleman generously presented it to his oldest constituent who had just celebrated his 83rd birthday. We understand the pipe is still highly prized. No doubt the V.C. present this year will create a lively interest.

U.S. Fleet to go Wet in Australia

Motor Patrols to pick up the Stragglers.

A message from Honolulu reports that several conferences have taken place in the cruiser Seattle, the administrative flagship of the United States Fleet, on the question of drink for American sailors during the forthcoming visit of the fleet to Australia.

The result of the conferences is that the sailors will be permitted to avail themselves of wet privileges ashore on condition that they behave themselves and respect the laws.

Officers of the fleet declare that the conduct of sailors is always better in wet ports because in these they are less likely to obtain poisonous liquor.

Meanwhile arrangements are being made for roving motor patrols to remove sailors requiring attention.
These will be taken to temporary camps for recovery. Only serious cases will be conveyed to their ships.
