

Famous Race of '75.

St. John's Joineers, Defeat English Captain, Spaniards And Crew Of

Editor Evening Telegram

Dear Sir—But few residents of St. John's are with us now who witnessed the races of 1875, when the Joineers, a hardy, sturdy and stalwart crew, were the successful contestants in the Mary, in the Tradesmen's Race, against the following named boats and crews—Volunteer, Ships' Carpenters; Lady Hill, Sailmakers; Native, Coopers; Heather Belle, Blacksmiths. The description of their feat, given by the press following Regatta Day, reads thus:—"Their performance astonished everyone. They redeemed the honor of their boat, the Mary, by winning from the word 'go' and in the all-comers race, after having previously rowed two races, they covered themselves with laurels, by making the quickest time of any crew for the day." I ought to add, Mr. Editor, that their prowess in the above race, won for them the bonus money, of ten dollars, for having made the quickest time. Today for the first time I made the acquaintance of Mr. Albert Osmond, one of the crew of the Mary, and from him I obtained the names of the other rowers. Mr. Osmond is the father-in-law of my friend, Mr. John Long, the well-known printer of St. John's. The names given to me, by Mr. Osmond, are as follows:—George Harder, brother of the late founder and Proprietor of the "Evening Telegram"; Thomas Nicholls, who did not long ago, in this City; William Strathie and Thomas Brown, both of Bonaville district, and William Stowe, of Hr. Grace. The names of the boats which opposed the Mary, and their crews, in the All Comers Race, were as follows: Heather Belle, rowed by a crew of English Captains, whose names, the names of the vessels as well, I give you: Capt. Hatswell, Waff; Capt. Dyer, Isabella; Capt. Dyer, "Pride of the Isles"; Capt. Beal, Goolaze, Capt. Searle, Hilday; Nicholas Ball, Beatrice; Capt. Scoopie, Ethel; the last named was coxswain. A Spanish crew rowed the Lady Hill, with a Spaniard, Coxswain. A crew of St. John's seamen, rowed the Native, with a native coxswain. For many years afterwards the splendid orator, the grit, and endurance of the crew of the Mary was talked about. Now and again I have come across some time-worn citizen who had spoken to me of the Regatta when the Joineers of "Monroe's Mary" performed the splendid feat in rowing, recorded above. With thanks, Mr. Editor, for the latitude you have given me, in permitting me so much space in your valuable and interesting journal.

Yours truly,
ANTHONY QUARANT.

Super Feature at the Nickel To-Day

BUSTER KEATON APPEARS IN CYCLOPUS SUCCESS "THE NAVIGATOR"

The Nickel is pleased to announce that the famous super-comedy feature "The Navigator" will be shown at this theatre to-night. Starring in this picture is the noted comedian Buster Keaton, the man who makes you laugh but never smiles himself. The scene of the laughs is on board of a deserted steamship.

The sight of a colored couple in an affectionate embrace leads the Sap to decide on marriage. Betsy O'Brien declines the honor, so he engages single passage on a steamship for Australia. Circumstances bring both the Sap and the girl on board a deserted steamship that is cast adrift. Both the children of wealthy parents, they have a hard time making both ends meet. They finally drift to a tropical island and are threatened by cannibals. He rescues her by appearing, like a strange ocean monster, in a diving suit. A submarine takes them away. Buster uses salt water to make coffee, turns a boiler in the engine room into a bedroom, boils eggs in a rat-trap, opens condensed milk cans with a brace and bit and after doing hundreds of real comedy bits succeeds in the end to win the heart and hand of Betsy O'Brien, a society girl—one of the O'Briens, you know. This is claimed to be the greatest comedy this famous exponent of fun has ever produced.

Band Concert, M. G. Band, Bannerman Park, to-night at 8 o'clock.

"What must you say, Bobby?" "Charge it," he replied.
