

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

Kirsty hurriedly collected sundry dry heaps of branches and heather at the mouth of the cave. With a burning branch from the fire she had already kindled she lit one outside, and then returned to Howie.

CHAPTER LVI.—THE LAST CAROUSE.

Mute and uncertain and amazed as on a vision Bertram gazed.

On reaching the tower Tushielaw conducted, or rather dragged, Mistress Spens to the chamber which had formerly been occupied by Dame Scott, his mother.

There was a rude irony in his tone which chilled her flesh. A weight seemed to rise from her heart when the door closed behind him.

The girl esteemed the honour of being Mistress of Tushielaw too highly to comprehend the sufferings of the lady. She was therefore puzzled by the dulness of her mistress, who would not take the least interest in her repeated questions as to what dress she would please to don out of the number that were in the chest.

But when the lass had unfastened the unbecoming jerkin and seen the wounds which the dogs had inflicted on the lady's fair shoulders, she uttered many homely ejaculations of sympathy, and attributed to these hurts the grief which before she could not understand at all.

Passively she submitted to the bandaging of the wounds, which the girl performed with all the simple skill she possessed.

When her toilet was completed, the girl asked if she would inform the master that the lady was ready.

Incredible as it may appear that one compound should be adapted to the treatment of such a variety of diseases, it is nevertheless true that Brigg's Allevator has proved of incalculable benefit in affording prompt relief in thousands of cases of painful and distressing attacks.

Its grand mission is to subdue pain and bring glad tidings to the suffering.

It is valuable not only as a counter-irritant to drive pain and inflammation from the internal organs to the surface, thereby relieving deep seated in-juries and organic lesions, but will be especially useful in restoring the skin to a healthy condition in all those annoying affections attended with inflammation and eruptions.

Brigg's Allevator is sold by E. Harvey & Co., Guelph, and by druggists and country merchants everywhere.

The Hamilton Chemical and Vinegar Works, owned by Mr. B. E. Charlton, of that city, have been seized for infraction of the revenue laws. The deficit of duty claimed is $13,000.

GREAT POWERS

Are always neutral in small squabbles.

SO IT IS WITH

PREST & HEPBURN

In the leather war now going on between their opponents on the south side of Wyndham-st.

WE do not believe in bosh and bunkum, but deal with facts, and leave the verdict in the hands of the intelligent people of Wellington. We are prepared to prove, and we positively affirm, notwithstanding all the puffing and blowing which has become the order of the day, that PREST & HEPBURN, Wyndham Street, Guelph, manufacture more

And employ double the number of Workmen of any other establishment in the County of Wellington. We invite the public to call and look through our Factory, and they will be convinced that we are selling the truth, and nothing but the truth.

A great deal has been said for and against machine made Boots and Shoes. Now we believe, and we are confident that very well-balanced mind in Wellington will agree with us, that the less machinery used in manufacturing Boots and Shoes the better. All our staple Boots and Shoes are made by hand, which must be admitted is far superior to any machine made Goods. We have now on hand the largest and best assortment of Boots and Shoes ever offered to the people of Wellington, which we will sell as cheap as the cheapest. Remember that all our work is warranted, and no second price. Repairs done as usual.

A CARD to THE PUBLIC.

THE GOLDEN LION

It is certainly marvellous that any community should be so excited over the great success that has attended the efforts of MR. HOGG to obtain in the first Manufacturing District of the world, the very excellent, novel and substantial fabrics in all of the various classes of

Fancy and Staple Dry Goods & Millinery,

Shawls, Bonnets and Mantles,

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

Buffalo Skins, Grain Bags, &c.

Indeed everything in the Mercantile line usually kept in a first-class establishment. That MR HOGG'S efforts have been crowned with unprecedented success is beyond a doubt. The great Bar gains that he is daily giving causes his immense establishment to be crowded from early morning until night. His stock to select from is so large and varied that parties get suited without loss of time, yet their taste be ever so difficult; and in addition, by being able to import all of his goods direct from the Manufacturers, to offer a saving of 12 1/2 cents on every dollar, over any establishment in Town.

All classes and descriptions of Clothing made to order by a first-class cutter, and sent free of charge to any part of Canada.
