

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. J. Tait-Hunter, Crescent Heights, will not receive tomorrow.

Deaconess Harriett Lampard will be at home the Tuesday afternoon during May, and the evenings of the 10th and 17th, at 205 Third avenue west, and the Grand National Steeple Chase, moving pictures of which have been taken by Starland Ltd's representative in England, took place on March 1st and 2nd, and will shortly be shown in all Standard theatres.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet today (Tuesday), the last of 3 o'clock p. m., in the ladies' parlor of the Central Methodist church. Mrs. Dr. Yeomans will take the Bible reading, and Mrs. Woodhall the evening reading. The union will give a report of scientific temperance instruction in the schools. In the evening the Y. W. will meet in the reception room of the Young Woman's Christian association building.

The Last Week

It is expected that this week will see the end of the big winding up jewelry auction sale at Doll's diamond palace. On Thursday afternoon the wall cases—jewelry, sale—electric fixtures, office furniture, safe, type-writer, etc., will be offered for sale, subject to removal next week. Merchants ought to examine these fixtures as they are the best west of Toronto. Another thing Messrs. Mitchell and Tilton, the auctioneers, say that they find in most of the best bargains come late in the sale. There's $10,000 worth of stock yet to be sold this week. Somebody will get her. Sales 2:30 and 7:30 daily. 123 Regent street, the weekly dance at the Regent hall tonight. The wind-up of the season. Admission 75c, including refreshments.

At the Supreme Court

The non-jury sittings which began before Supreme Court Justice Stuart today were announced yesterday, and are as follows:

May 3, Freeman vs. Trautwein and Patterson vs. Alliance Investment Company; May 4, Ballantyne vs. Cullen and Bennett vs. Wing; May 5, Lewis & Co. vs. Wells and Hatfield vs. McCrohan; May 6, Riverside Lumber Company vs. Bush and Columbia Flour Mills vs. Bettington; May 7, Musens, Ltd. vs. Arnold et al.; May 17, Reeves & Co. vs. Oshes and Campbell vs. Illingworth et al.

AT THE THEATRES.

The Lyric Theatre.

The Bokhardt company in their "Eagle's Nest" Thursday, Friday and Saturday, is deserving of big audiences. The company is happily cast and greatly augmented in numbers for this production, which promises to be one which will be long remembered in Calgary.

The Orpheum Theatre.

It seemed to be the opinion of every one last night that Harry Bennett's musical "Merry-makers" have started in with a line of musical comedies that please. The costumes, the comedians and last but not least those dainty dancing dolls, bid fair to be opponents of merit to almost any of the attractions now playing for big prices.

"Death of Minnehaha"—"Bear Hunt in the Rockies"

In addition to the great reproduction of Longfellow's Indian poem, the sequel to "Hiawatha," which has caused such a furore and has been the subject of widespread interest through the whole world, Starland's program also includes a great picture of a "Bear Hunt in the Rockies," which will be shown today at 2 and 7 for the last time.

Women Cannot be Strong and Healthy Unless the Kidneys are Well.

Weak, lame or aching backs are the first sign of kidney trouble. Under ordinary conditions they ought to be strong and ready to bear the burden of life. It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backaches come from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered that they get out of order. Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others.

Miss Alberta B. Clarke, Stony Creek, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with kidney trouble for several years; my back was weak, I had much trouble at night and was so restless I could not sleep at night and tried everything without any benefit. Meanwhile a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got a box and they completely cured me. I now feel as well as I ever did and would advise everyone suffering from kidney disease to try them."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

In ordering specify "Doan's."

GRAHAM & BUSCOMBE
Calgary's Progressive
FUNERAL DIRECTORS,
EMBALMERS.
609 Centre Street, Phone 488
Ambulance in connection.
Strict attention courteous service, personal attendance.

Whole Country Amazed

AT "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Wonderful Cure Made by These Remarkable Fruit Juices.

Moorfield Magistrate Says "The Days of Miracles Are Not Passed"

His cure seems a wonderful thing to his family and all his friends.

Mr. Henry Speers, the well known J.P. of Moorfield, Ont., suffered for two years with Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which brought on a serious Heart Trouble. He wasted away until he was nothing more than a skeleton. Two physicians gave him up to die.

MR. MINTY STILL REFUSES TO TELL

(Continued from page 1).

Mr. Minty: It is in the agreement you do not want me to give evidence on this.

Mr. Bennett: Oh, no. I do not believe it is the document I have.

Mr. Bennett: The money is not in the general revenue of the province?

Mr. Minty: No.

Mr. Bennett: This money was assigned by the Great Waterways railway to the construction company?

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: The province has no interest in the money? The only parties having interest in the money are the construction company and the railway company, through its trustee, the provincial treasurer?

The Plan of Campaign

Mr. Bennett next discussed the "plan of campaign" letter, and asked why it was taken off the public files of the province by Deputy Attorney General Woods.

Mr. Minty replied that the letter was a personal one and Mr. Woods being a gentleman, naturally, took it off the file. Witness admitted that the plan of campaign was carried out and he met Premier Rutherford when he came east. Mr. Minty admitted that he also went east, travelling on the same train as the premier.

Mr. Bennett urged witness to say that he was not able to carry out the agreement because of the failure to form a construction company. Mr. McArthur and B. B. Clarke having failed to agree.

Witness declined to answer.

Mr. Bennett read from evidence of Mr. Woods that Mr. Minty would be "fired" if he did anything to embarrass the government, and asked what that meant?

Mr. Minty said he had not read the evidence. His whole interest in the business was as solicitor.

Mr. Bennett read from a letter in which it was stated that he was to get $5,000 for his services, and how he had asked for ten syndicate shares. Witness wanted to know what that meant.

Witness replied that he thought he was entitled to this for his services in transferring the Athabasca syndicate.

Mr. Bennett: Did you ever give Mr. Woods anything for his services, or did you ever promise him anything for his services?

Mr. Minty: I certainly did not, sir.

Mr. Woods is a gentleman altogether above that.

Mr. Bennett: I agree with what you say, but Mr. Woods in referring to you while giving evidence at Edmonton said your letters were absurd and ridiculous and as stupid as could be. This may change your idea?

Mr. Minty: You are endeavoring to get me to "round" on Mr. Woods by saying such things, but you cannot.

Mr. Bennett: But you know nothing to "round" on Mr. Woods?

Mr. Minty: I know nothing.

Mr. Bennett asked witness for further details of the meeting of the syndicate at which his (Minty's) resignation as solicitor was accepted, and asked who was appointed in his position?

Witness did not say.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if any member of the Alberta government is interested in the railway company?

Mr. Minty: I do not know of anyone being interested.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know of any other shareholder in the railway company except Mr. W. R. Clarke?

Mr. Minty: I do not.

Mr. Bennett asked about the amounts mentioned by Mr. Clarke as sums he had to pay for political purposes?

Mr. Minty: I do not know, and if I did I would claim privilege, and decline to answer.

Mr. Bennett: Did he ever tell you that he was taking out bills to Edmonton which could not be identified?

Mr. Minty: He never told me.

Mr. Bennett: You told Mr. Walsh that the term friend referred to Mr. Cross.

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: Did you learn that Mr. Cross had made his trip to Hongkong via New York?

Mr. Minty: I had no recollection.

Mr. Bennett: Did you know Senator Roy had any connection with this enterprise?

Mr. Minty: I cannot say.

Mr. Bennett: Have you seen Senator Roy in Winnipeg or Edmonton?

Mr. Minty: I cannot fix actual date, I saw him on several occasions.

Mr. Bennett: Did you see Cornwall in October last when you closed out this matter?

Mr. Minty: I do not think I saw him then.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if Cornwall has any interest in the Alberta and Great Waterways railway, or that he parted with his interests?

Whole Country Amazed

AT "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Wonderful Cure Made by These Remarkable Fruit Juices.

Moorfield Magistrate Says "The Days of Miracles Are Not Passed"

His cure seems a wonderful thing to his family and all his friends.

Mr. Henry Speers, the well known J.P. of Moorfield, Ont., suffered for two years with Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which brought on a serious Heart Trouble. He wasted away until he was nothing more than a skeleton. Two physicians gave him up to die.

MR. MINTY STILL REFUSES TO TELL

(Continued from page 1).

Mr. Minty: It is in the agreement you do not want me to give evidence on this.

Mr. Bennett: Oh, no. I do not believe it is the document I have.

Mr. Bennett: The money is not in the general revenue of the province?

Mr. Minty: No.

Mr. Bennett: This money was assigned by the Great Waterways railway to the construction company?

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: The province has no interest in the money? The only parties having interest in the money are the construction company and the railway company, through its trustee, the provincial treasurer?

The Plan of Campaign

Mr. Bennett next discussed the "plan of campaign" letter, and asked why it was taken off the public files of the province by Deputy Attorney General Woods.

Mr. Minty replied that the letter was a personal one and Mr. Woods being a gentleman, naturally, took it off the file. Witness admitted that the plan of campaign was carried out and he met Premier Rutherford when he came east. Mr. Minty admitted that he also went east, travelling on the same train as the premier.

Mr. Bennett urged witness to say that he was not able to carry out the agreement because of the failure to form a construction company. Mr. McArthur and B. B. Clarke having failed to agree.

Witness declined to answer.

Mr. Bennett read from evidence of Mr. Woods that Mr. Minty would be "fired" if he did anything to embarrass the government, and asked what that meant?

Mr. Minty said he had not read the evidence. His whole interest in the business was as solicitor.

Mr. Bennett read from a letter in which it was stated that he was to get $5,000 for his services, and how he had asked for ten syndicate shares. Witness wanted to know what that meant.

Witness replied that he thought he was entitled to this for his services in transferring the Athabasca syndicate.

Mr. Bennett: Did you ever give Mr. Woods anything for his services, or did you ever promise him anything for his services?

Mr. Minty: I certainly did not, sir.

Mr. Woods is a gentleman altogether above that.

Mr. Bennett: I agree with what you say, but Mr. Woods in referring to you while giving evidence at Edmonton said your letters were absurd and ridiculous and as stupid as could be. This may change your idea?

Mr. Minty: You are endeavoring to get me to "round" on Mr. Woods by saying such things, but you cannot.

Mr. Bennett: But you know nothing to "round" on Mr. Woods?

Mr. Minty: I know nothing.

Mr. Bennett asked witness for further details of the meeting of the syndicate at which his (Minty's) resignation as solicitor was accepted, and asked who was appointed in his position?

Witness did not say.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if any member of the Alberta government is interested in the railway company?

Mr. Minty: I do not know of anyone being interested.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know of any other shareholder in the railway company except Mr. W. R. Clarke?

Mr. Minty: I do not.

Mr. Bennett asked about the amounts mentioned by Mr. Clarke as sums he had to pay for political purposes?

Mr. Minty: I do not know, and if I did I would claim privilege, and decline to answer.

Mr. Bennett: Did he ever tell you that he was taking out bills to Edmonton which could not be identified?

Mr. Minty: He never told me.

Mr. Bennett: You told Mr. Walsh that the term friend referred to Mr. Cross.

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: Did you learn that Mr. Cross had made his trip to Hongkong via New York?

Mr. Minty: I had no recollection.

Mr. Bennett: Did you know Senator Roy had any connection with this enterprise?

Mr. Minty: I cannot say.

Mr. Bennett: Have you seen Senator Roy in Winnipeg or Edmonton?

Mr. Minty: I cannot fix actual date, I saw him on several occasions.

Mr. Bennett: Did you see Cornwall in October last when you closed out this matter?

Mr. Minty: I do not think I saw him then.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if Cornwall has any interest in the Alberta and Great Waterways railway, or that he parted with his interests?

Whole Country Amazed

AT "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Wonderful Cure Made by These Remarkable Fruit Juices.

Moorfield Magistrate Says "The Days of Miracles Are Not Passed"

His cure seems a wonderful thing to his family and all his friends.

Mr. Henry Speers, the well known J.P. of Moorfield, Ont., suffered for two years with Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which brought on a serious Heart Trouble. He wasted away until he was nothing more than a skeleton. Two physicians gave him up to die.

MR. MINTY STILL REFUSES TO TELL

(Continued from page 1).

Mr. Minty: It is in the agreement you do not want me to give evidence on this.

Mr. Bennett: Oh, no. I do not believe it is the document I have.

Mr. Bennett: The money is not in the general revenue of the province?

Mr. Minty: No.

Mr. Bennett: This money was assigned by the Great Waterways railway to the construction company?

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: The province has no interest in the money? The only parties having interest in the money are the construction company and the railway company, through its trustee, the provincial treasurer?

The Plan of Campaign

Mr. Bennett next discussed the "plan of campaign" letter, and asked why it was taken off the public files of the province by Deputy Attorney General Woods.

Mr. Minty replied that the letter was a personal one and Mr. Woods being a gentleman, naturally, took it off the file. Witness admitted that the plan of campaign was carried out and he met Premier Rutherford when he came east. Mr. Minty admitted that he also went east, travelling on the same train as the premier.

Mr. Bennett urged witness to say that he was not able to carry out the agreement because of the failure to form a construction company. Mr. McArthur and B. B. Clarke having failed to agree.

Witness declined to answer.

Mr. Bennett read from evidence of Mr. Woods that Mr. Minty would be "fired" if he did anything to embarrass the government, and asked what that meant?

Mr. Minty said he had not read the evidence. His whole interest in the business was as solicitor.

Mr. Bennett read from a letter in which it was stated that he was to get $5,000 for his services, and how he had asked for ten syndicate shares. Witness wanted to know what that meant.

Witness replied that he thought he was entitled to this for his services in transferring the Athabasca syndicate.

Mr. Bennett: Did you ever give Mr. Woods anything for his services, or did you ever promise him anything for his services?

Mr. Minty: I certainly did not, sir.

Mr. Woods is a gentleman altogether above that.

Mr. Bennett: I agree with what you say, but Mr. Woods in referring to you while giving evidence at Edmonton said your letters were absurd and ridiculous and as stupid as could be. This may change your idea?

Mr. Minty: You are endeavoring to get me to "round" on Mr. Woods by saying such things, but you cannot.

Mr. Bennett: But you know nothing to "round" on Mr. Woods?

Mr. Minty: I know nothing.

Mr. Bennett asked witness for further details of the meeting of the syndicate at which his (Minty's) resignation as solicitor was accepted, and asked who was appointed in his position?

Witness did not say.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if any member of the Alberta government is interested in the railway company?

Mr. Minty: I do not know of anyone being interested.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know of any other shareholder in the railway company except Mr. W. R. Clarke?

Mr. Minty: I do not.

Mr. Bennett asked about the amounts mentioned by Mr. Clarke as sums he had to pay for political purposes?

Mr. Minty: I do not know, and if I did I would claim privilege, and decline to answer.

Mr. Bennett: Did he ever tell you that he was taking out bills to Edmonton which could not be identified?

Mr. Minty: He never told me.

Mr. Bennett: You told Mr. Walsh that the term friend referred to Mr. Cross.

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: Did you learn that Mr. Cross had made his trip to Hongkong via New York?

Mr. Minty: I had no recollection.

Mr. Bennett: Did you know Senator Roy had any connection with this enterprise?

Mr. Minty: I cannot say.

Mr. Bennett: Have you seen Senator Roy in Winnipeg or Edmonton?

Mr. Minty: I cannot fix actual date, I saw him on several occasions.

Mr. Bennett: Did you see Cornwall in October last when you closed out this matter?

Mr. Minty: I do not think I saw him then.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if Cornwall has any interest in the Alberta and Great Waterways railway, or that he parted with his interests?

Whole Country Amazed

AT "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Wonderful Cure Made by These Remarkable Fruit Juices.

Moorfield Magistrate Says "The Days of Miracles Are Not Passed"

His cure seems a wonderful thing to his family and all his friends.

Mr. Henry Speers, the well known J.P. of Moorfield, Ont., suffered for two years with Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which brought on a serious Heart Trouble. He wasted away until he was nothing more than a skeleton. Two physicians gave him up to die.

MR. MINTY STILL REFUSES TO TELL

(Continued from page 1).

Mr. Minty: It is in the agreement you do not want me to give evidence on this.

Mr. Bennett: Oh, no. I do not believe it is the document I have.

Mr. Bennett: The money is not in the general revenue of the province?

Mr. Minty: No.

Mr. Bennett: This money was assigned by the Great Waterways railway to the construction company?

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: The province has no interest in the money? The only parties having interest in the money are the construction company and the railway company, through its trustee, the provincial treasurer?

The Plan of Campaign

Mr. Bennett next discussed the "plan of campaign" letter, and asked why it was taken off the public files of the province by Deputy Attorney General Woods.

Mr. Minty replied that the letter was a personal one and Mr. Woods being a gentleman, naturally, took it off the file. Witness admitted that the plan of campaign was carried out and he met Premier Rutherford when he came east. Mr. Minty admitted that he also went east, travelling on the same train as the premier.

Mr. Bennett urged witness to say that he was not able to carry out the agreement because of the failure to form a construction company. Mr. McArthur and B. B. Clarke having failed to agree.

Witness declined to answer.

Mr. Bennett read from evidence of Mr. Woods that Mr. Minty would be "fired" if he did anything to embarrass the government, and asked what that meant?

Mr. Minty said he had not read the evidence. His whole interest in the business was as solicitor.

Mr. Bennett read from a letter in which it was stated that he was to get $5,000 for his services, and how he had asked for ten syndicate shares. Witness wanted to know what that meant.

Witness replied that he thought he was entitled to this for his services in transferring the Athabasca syndicate.

Mr. Bennett: Did you ever give Mr. Woods anything for his services, or did you ever promise him anything for his services?

Mr. Minty: I certainly did not, sir.

Mr. Woods is a gentleman altogether above that.

Mr. Bennett: I agree with what you say, but Mr. Woods in referring to you while giving evidence at Edmonton said your letters were absurd and ridiculous and as stupid as could be. This may change your idea?

Mr. Minty: You are endeavoring to get me to "round" on Mr. Woods by saying such things, but you cannot.

Mr. Bennett: But you know nothing to "round" on Mr. Woods?

Mr. Minty: I know nothing.

Mr. Bennett asked witness for further details of the meeting of the syndicate at which his (Minty's) resignation as solicitor was accepted, and asked who was appointed in his position?

Witness did not say.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if any member of the Alberta government is interested in the railway company?

Mr. Minty: I do not know of anyone being interested.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know of any other shareholder in the railway company except Mr. W. R. Clarke?

Mr. Minty: I do not.

Mr. Bennett asked about the amounts mentioned by Mr. Clarke as sums he had to pay for political purposes?

Mr. Minty: I do not know, and if I did I would claim privilege, and decline to answer.

Mr. Bennett: Did he ever tell you that he was taking out bills to Edmonton which could not be identified?

Mr. Minty: He never told me.

Mr. Bennett: You told Mr. Walsh that the term friend referred to Mr. Cross.

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: Did you learn that Mr. Cross had made his trip to Hongkong via New York?

Mr. Minty: I had no recollection.

Mr. Bennett: Did you know Senator Roy had any connection with this enterprise?

Mr. Minty: I cannot say.

Mr. Bennett: Have you seen Senator Roy in Winnipeg or Edmonton?

Mr. Minty: I cannot fix actual date, I saw him on several occasions.

Mr. Bennett: Did you see Cornwall in October last when you closed out this matter?

Mr. Minty: I do not think I saw him then.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if Cornwall has any interest in the Alberta and Great Waterways railway, or that he parted with his interests?

Whole Country Amazed

AT "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Wonderful Cure Made by These Remarkable Fruit Juices.

Moorfield Magistrate Says "The Days of Miracles Are Not Passed"

His cure seems a wonderful thing to his family and all his friends.

Mr. Henry Speers, the well known J.P. of Moorfield, Ont., suffered for two years with Chronic Indigestion and Dyspepsia, which brought on a serious Heart Trouble. He wasted away until he was nothing more than a skeleton. Two physicians gave him up to die.

MR. MINTY STILL REFUSES TO TELL

(Continued from page 1).

Mr. Minty: It is in the agreement you do not want me to give evidence on this.

Mr. Bennett: Oh, no. I do not believe it is the document I have.

Mr. Bennett: The money is not in the general revenue of the province?

Mr. Minty: No.

Mr. Bennett: This money was assigned by the Great Waterways railway to the construction company?

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: The province has no interest in the money? The only parties having interest in the money are the construction company and the railway company, through its trustee, the provincial treasurer?

The Plan of Campaign

Mr. Bennett next discussed the "plan of campaign" letter, and asked why it was taken off the public files of the province by Deputy Attorney General Woods.

Mr. Minty replied that the letter was a personal one and Mr. Woods being a gentleman, naturally, took it off the file. Witness admitted that the plan of campaign was carried out and he met Premier Rutherford when he came east. Mr. Minty admitted that he also went east, travelling on the same train as the premier.

Mr. Bennett urged witness to say that he was not able to carry out the agreement because of the failure to form a construction company. Mr. McArthur and B. B. Clarke having failed to agree.

Witness declined to answer.

Mr. Bennett read from evidence of Mr. Woods that Mr. Minty would be "fired" if he did anything to embarrass the government, and asked what that meant?

Mr. Minty said he had not read the evidence. His whole interest in the business was as solicitor.

Mr. Bennett read from a letter in which it was stated that he was to get $5,000 for his services, and how he had asked for ten syndicate shares. Witness wanted to know what that meant.

Witness replied that he thought he was entitled to this for his services in transferring the Athabasca syndicate.

Mr. Bennett: Did you ever give Mr. Woods anything for his services, or did you ever promise him anything for his services?

Mr. Minty: I certainly did not, sir.

Mr. Woods is a gentleman altogether above that.

Mr. Bennett: I agree with what you say, but Mr. Woods in referring to you while giving evidence at Edmonton said your letters were absurd and ridiculous and as stupid as could be. This may change your idea?

Mr. Minty: You are endeavoring to get me to "round" on Mr. Woods by saying such things, but you cannot.

Mr. Bennett: But you know nothing to "round" on Mr. Woods?

Mr. Minty: I know nothing.

Mr. Bennett asked witness for further details of the meeting of the syndicate at which his (Minty's) resignation as solicitor was accepted, and asked who was appointed in his position?

Witness did not say.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if any member of the Alberta government is interested in the railway company?

Mr. Minty: I do not know of anyone being interested.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know of any other shareholder in the railway company except Mr. W. R. Clarke?

Mr. Minty: I do not.

Mr. Bennett asked about the amounts mentioned by Mr. Clarke as sums he had to pay for political purposes?

Mr. Minty: I do not know, and if I did I would claim privilege, and decline to answer.

Mr. Bennett: Did he ever tell you that he was taking out bills to Edmonton which could not be identified?

Mr. Minty: He never told me.

Mr. Bennett: You told Mr. Walsh that the term friend referred to Mr. Cross.

Mr. Minty: Yes.

Mr. Bennett: Did you learn that Mr. Cross had made his trip to Hongkong via New York?

Mr. Minty: I had no recollection.

Mr. Bennett: Did you know Senator Roy had any connection with this enterprise?

Mr. Minty: I cannot say.

Mr. Bennett: Have you seen Senator Roy in Winnipeg or Edmonton?

Mr. Minty: I cannot fix actual date, I saw him on several occasions.

Mr. Bennett: Did you see Cornwall in October last when you closed out this matter?

Mr. Minty: I do not think I saw him then.

Mr. Bennett: Do you know if Cornwall has any interest in the Alberta and Great Waterways railway, or that he parted with his interests?

Whole Country Amazed

AT "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Wonderful Cure Made by These Remarkable Fruit Juices.