Husband Probably Drowned.

Left His Family Suddenly a Year Ago--Have Heard Nothing of Him

On Sept. 22, 1895, John H. Murray suddenly left his wife and family in this city, and they have received no word from him since. Recently Mrs. Murray published in a Detroit paper a description of her husband's appearance, and yesterday received word that the body of a drowned man answering to it had been found at Sand Beach on Saturday last.

Murray is 33 years old, of fair complexion, blue eyes, a heavy mustache, rather stout, and 5 feet 9 inches in height. On his right arm is tatooed his initials, "J. H. M." It has not yet been learned if the body is that of

Mrs. Murray is now living at 14 Dundas street, where a reporter found her. Murray is her second husband. Her first had a good position in the G. T. R. shops in Stratford, but died some a daughter. About six years ago she married Murray in London, and shortly afterwards they went to Grand Rapids. After remaining there a year they returned to London, Mrs. Murray says she was greatly disappointed in her second husband. He was shiftless and afraid of work. She had been left some means by her first husband, and Murray took advantage of this. He was more a hunder then a support to was more a burden than a support to her. They were living in the East End last year when he left her. A friend in Port Huron informed her that Murray had shipped as a sailor on a lake boat, but his wife has heard nothing from him in all this time. She has written to different points for in-

PRESBYTERY OF LONDON.

Statistical Report - Membership of the Congregations and Sunday Schools Increased-List of the Average Contributions Per Family by the Various Churches.

The annual statistical and financial report of the Presbytery of London for last year shows a considerable increase in membership of the congregations over the preceding year. There are 50 congregations in the Presbytery. The pastoral charges number 33, of which 8 receive assistance from the augmentation fund. There are 75 more families than in the preceding year, the total now being 3,365. The number of single persons not connected with families of the several congregations is 680, an increase of 46.

The number of communicants is 7.028, which is 146 increase. During the year 862 communicants were received, of which 543 were on profession of faith and 319 by certificate. The dismissions by death were 101, by certificate 208, without certificate 164, and by admission 7. The number of infants baptized was 148, and adults 116. There are 34 ministers, 270 elders, and 403 other office-bearers on the Presbytery roll. Nine fewer persons are engaged in Sunday school work than in the year preceding, the total last year being 657, but there were 312 more Sunday school scholars-in
