42ND YEAR.

NO. 17613

THE ADVERTISER, LONDON, ONTARIO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1905.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

TOKIO A SCENE OF RIOTING: A MOB PELTED MARQUIS ITO

Police Sub-Stations Destroyed --- House of the Home Minister Fired --- Peace Terms Unsatisfactory.

Tokio, Sept. 6 .- (Delayed in Transmission).-E. H. Harriman, president of toward the celebration of the conclusion the Southern Pacific Railroad, has of peace. The Radicals continue their been threatened, and the Marquis Ito, president of the Privy Council, has been stoned by mobs. Neither of them was injured.

Tokio, Tuesday, Sept. 5. - Serious rioting followed the attack today on Ten Churches Burned. the office of the Kokumin Shimbun, the Government organ, A mob attacked and burned the official residence of the Minister of Home Affairs, which stood between the Nobles' Club, and the Imwhich was the storm center throughout

The threatening demonstrations oc curred in the neighborhood of the offi- crushes. cial homes of Premier Katasura and Baron Komura (the Foreign Minister, now in the United States), but the police succeeded in preventing injury to the occupants or damage to the houses The situation tonight is threatening Turbulent crowds fill the streets, and it is feared much damage to property possible, under cover of darkness All the police are performing urgent duty, and heavily-guarding danger The streets in the neighborhood of the Kokumin Shimbun are closed. and two hundred police form a cordon

Hom: Minister's House Burned.

The destruction of the home minis ter's residence was intensely dramatic. Throughout the day, a series of demonstrations occurred in the neighborhood noon, the mob attacked the house, ment on account of the recent treaty. swept the police away, and battered down the gates. The police and servants resisted stoutly, but the mob Police Stations Destroyed.

Tokio, Sept. 6, 7 a.m.-The destruc tion of small police sub-stations con-tinued until midnight. It is impossible to ascertain the exact number stroyed, but it is estimated that fifteen stroyed, but it is estimated that inteen were wrecked. Two of the larger Five Bodies Washed Ashore at at the time thought there must have police stations were also destroyed. The mobs generally prevented damage to the adjoining or dragging the police kiosks into the middle of the streets before applying the torch. Shortly after midnight another at-

Detachments of national troops mobilized on account of the war were four men and one woman have been association called out during the night. The washed ashore at Pine River, with life. crowd received the soldiers good na- preservers attached to them, bearing turedly and cheered them. The principal duty of the troops was the prolieved to have been the wife of the tection of the police.

Cause of the Outbreak. The anger of the crowds was chiefly on account of the closing of Hibaya in the Lake Superior storm is now Park and the denial of the right to placed at forty. meet publicly in the park. After the park was closed yesterday the mayor and council protested to the Government, and insisted that the park be reopened. It is now claimed that all the turbulence resulted from the indis- Probability of Having Union Station creet closing of the park. Students and young street rowdies seemed to be the largest participants in the dis-The firemen succeeded in saving the main structure of the home minister's residence. Only the outbuildings were destroyed. It is impossible to secure accurate figures of the casualties. The Jiji estimates them at two dead and 500 wounded in all, including those

Tokio, Sept. 6, 3 p.m.-It continues | made by stones. The city is exceedingquiet here, but trouble is feared to- ly quiet this morning, and it is hoped that the trouble is over. Tckio, Sept. 6.-Nowhere throughout the empire has there been a step taken campaign against the Government, demanding the punishment of those responsible for the compromises.

The forthcoming diet is certain to b turbulent, and it is predicted that the Katsura Government will be forced from office.

Tokio, Sept. 7. - A mob destroyed ten Christian churches and one mission school last night (Wednesday). The people were not injured. Accurate figures of the casualties are not obtainable. It is known, however, perial Hotel, and faced Hybia Park, that one man was killed, that fourteen were mortally wounded by sword thrust, and that many persons were bruised with stones, and injured in the > New York, Sept. 7. - Baron Komura, chief of the Japanese envoys, who is here, said he did not consider the rioting in Tokio more than a local disturbince. When shown the dispatches telling of the burning of the official resilence of the Minister of Home Affairs, and of the threatening demonstration beforeh is own official residence, h said: "In the absence of fuller details, I am not in a position to form any definite opinion as to the occurrences in Tokio, but I believe it was merely a local disturbance growing out of collision between the police and the

Mr. Sato, official spokesman of the Japanese party, said he believed the tion on the part of the people, because the Hibaya Park was closed to them of the building, and late in the after- than from the anger at the Govern-

Pine River From the Wrecked losco.

Shortly after midnight another at tempt was made against the Kokumin Shimbun offices, but the police dispersed the attackers, killing one of the steam of the attackers, killing one of the steam of the today received a telegram from Marquette, Mich., saying that the bodies of cook, who shipped from Fairport. The losco carried a crew of nineteen per-sons, all of whom undoubtedly perished. The total number of lives lost

G. T. P. TERMINALS

at Winnipeg.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Sept. 7.—A report has been sent out from Winnipeg that the G. T. P. has purchased land for terminals there for their own exclusive use.

Mr. Parent, chairman of the railway ommission, seen on the subject, said tha seriously and slightly injured, among panies interested shortly, and he was in whom are 200 policemen. The wounds hopes of their being able to arrange for are mostly sword thrusts and bruises, a union station. Pretty Wedding at St. Andrew's Church Today Wharncliffe road

Miss Maude M. Mc Nahen Be- Chester McGuffin and Mr. Archie T. comes the Bride of Rev. H. B. Ketchem.

One of the prettiest and most inter esting nuptial events of the season took place at St. Andrew's Church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Maude McAlpine McMahen, daughter of Mr. Adam T. McMahen, 609 Colborne street, became the bride of Rev Hugh Beverly Ketchem, pastor of the McNabb Street Presbyterian Church. Hamilton. Both the bride and groom are graduates of Toronto University, which today's happy ceremony is the outcome had its beginning. The interior of the church was beautified for the occasion with white asters, white gladioli, and palms in profusion. About 70 guests were present. and Rev. Dr. Ross conducted the

The bride was lovely in ivory white duchess satin over white taffeta, with bertha of rose-point lace, bridal veil white roses, and Scotch heather, a large bunch of which was sent out from Scotland for the occasion.

The maid of honor was Miss Eva M. bell. of this city, a classmate of the bride, was bridesmaid, and wore white point d'esprit over pale green satin. When the service with trimmings and hat similar to those of the maid of honor. Both carried pink roses and maldenhair fern. The groom was supported by Rev. David Ritchie, of Toronto, and the following were ushers: Rev. Gillies Eadie, and Rev. William Amos, of Toronto, both classmates of the groom; Dr. Millan. Mr. and Mrs. Howden, Mr. and Mrs. Rownt, way Company, who had promised to have the line continued south from Tecumseh avenue, providing the street was widened.

Mr. and Mrs. Warr, Mr. and Mrs. Cumseh avenue, providing the street was widened.

Mr. and Miss Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Another High street resident declared that there is a resolution on the minute book of the council of a few years ago which declares that High street shall have the first street rail-way extension in South London.

McMahen, brother of the bride. Mr. Charles Wheeler presided ably Ridout street at the organ. The ushers wore Scotch heather with their white buttonhole bouquets, which gave a very distinctive touch to the The gifts to the bride were very andsome and extremely numerous.

After the ceremony all repaired to the residence of the bride's parents, where a reception was held in a large the marquee was beautifully decorated with white asters and bunting. The groom's gift to the bride was best man gold monogram cuff links. Mr.and Mrs. Ketchem left on the 5:35 line agreement.

If the line were run around Emery in whose classrooms the friendship of M. C. R. train for Windsor and other and High streets, it would mean an western points, and after their honey-moon Mrs. Ketchem will be at home at so that in all the company would be the McNabb Street manse, Hamilton, compelled to build about two miles katchewan has been fir many friends in this city, being the possessor of a very gracious disposition and talent of high order.

ing: Mr. and Mrs. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, and Rev. Dr. Torreace, all of Peterboro; Prof. A. B. been crossed.

McCallum and Mrs. McCallum, and "It will take a two-thirds vote of the bertha of rose-point lace, bridal veil Mrs. and Miss Martin, of Toronto; Mr. council to rescind the Wortley road and orange blossoms. She carried Lloyd Hodgins and Mr. and Mrs. agreement," a resident of High street Kerr, of Chatham: Mr. and Mrs. Mc- said to The Advertiser today, Namara, of Houghton, Mich.: Mr. and such a vote cannot be secured with all Mrs. Evely, of Strathroy; Miss Mary portions of the city dissatisfied and Lock, of Clinton; Rev. Dr. and Mrs. crying for more street railway."

Johnston, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. The same resident declared that the The maid of honor was Miss Eva M. Johnston, of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs.

McMahen, who wore white point Ketchem, parents of the groom, of city of London had not paid a dollar desprit over pale pink taffeta, trimburded with white satin ribbon, and picture hat to match. Miss Adah Camband Mrs. Ross. Mr. and Mrs. John Mcbell, of this city, a classmate of the Millan Mr. and Mrs. Howden, Mr. and the London Street and Mrs. Ross Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mr.

ANOTHER LAWSUIT

Behalf of Edward Watson.

side of Colborne street, between Horton and Bathurst streets. to $50, were missing.

has now on its hands. TARTARS MAKE TROUBLE

Burning the Naphtha Works and Oil Wells in Caucasia.

Tiflis, Caucasia, Sept. 7. - All the aphtha works at Baku have been de authorities are hastening measures to cope with the desperate situation a Baku. Artillery has been dispatched dues have risen enormously. The pres

The Tartar movement in Northern Caucasia is said to be directed principally against the Government. the fire continues at Bibiebatl.

Toronto Fair Managers Refused to Pay Officers' Hotel Bills.

"The facts of the case are these, said Dr. Orr, manager of the exhibi-"We arranged for rooms at the King Edward Hotel for each of the offi-When the bills were presented, they included one for $30 for extras supplied to the officers. We refused to pay this.

WILL FIGHT TO THE LAST DITCH

High Street Residents Determined to Get Desired

The South London street railway ex- is to be held tomorrow morning at 8:30 tension continues to be the chief topic in municipal circles just now. This af- terment at St. Peter's Cemetery. ternoon the mayor and aldermen, with go over the proposed routes, and the the site would probably be for general offices. He added that there would be a meeting of the different railway comtees, which will be held in the city. tees, which will be held in the city

At the request of Mayor Campbell City Engineer Graydon has prepared a statement showing the amount of track the company would be compelled to build on all the proposed routes. It is Garfield avenue 950 assistants, $100 each; Henry Heinze, .2,350 frequenter, $5 and costs; Wm. White Total 9,360 were employed turning the wheel were HIGH STREET.

WORTLEY ROAD.

Wortley road stub2,610 It is seen from these figures that the company, in agreeing to build the Edward street line, binds itself to conpearl pendant and necklace; to the struct nearly two miles of track, or maids of honor monogram gold lockets nearly 7,000 feet more than it is obliged and necklaces, and to the ushers and to build under the Wortley road stub clares itself willing to build the Wortley road stub of about 2,600 feet, or about half a mile.

The people of High street are very determined, however, and they will

Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Victoria, 48-60; Edmonton, 46-56; Calgary, 42-56; Qu'Appelle, 56-72; Winnipeg, 40-62; Toronto, 55-74; Ottawa, 54-72; Montreal, 54-66; St. John, 56-62; Halifax, 58-64. Among the guests were the follow- about half a mile and Mrs. agreement," a resident of High street

THEFT OF JEWELRY

Notice of One Served on City on American Crooks Get Away With a Jack Hubbard Meets With Painful Lot Worth $4 000.

been received by Mr. Watson through "Diamond Hall" was just opened an alleged defective walk on the east this week, and is flooded with vis-stroyed and all the factories and other works are closed. The military from here by special trains. The prices of benzine, kerosene and their resient supplies will be exhausted in a few

St. Petersburg, Sept. 7.-The oil wells at Balakhan, Sabunto, and Nomani, near Baku, have been burned out, but city council of St. Petersburg are preparing to use coal at the waterworks

SEQUEL TO SAILORS' VISIT

Toronto, Sept. 7. - A peculiar sequel to the visit of the British sailors and marines developed today, when disdisturbances arose more out of irrita- patches were received from Montreal to the effect that the Canadian National Exhibition Association had refused to pay the hotel bills of the officers while in Toronto.

misunderstanding. The naval guests didn't have money enough among them to settle the account, and is learned by the many friends of the this gentleman paid it for them and family. reported to us. We have since forwarded him a check, but not because we considered ourselves under an obligation to do so.' The manager added that he extended the same hospitality to the naval officers as to judges and others who came to Toronto at the expense of the Railway Extension.

a number of interested residents, wil hall tonight.

EDWARD STREET.

Elmwood to Emery, on Ridout ...2,630

Sooner than do this the company dedetermined, however, and they will not give up until the last ditch has Thursday, Sept. 7-8 a.m.

Today and Friday-Light to moderate variable winds; fine; not much character

TEMPERATURES. Stations. 8 a.m. Winnipeg Parry Sound.. Ottawa WEATHER NOTES.

temperature.

Showers have occurred in the Ottawa and St. Lawrence Valleys, and heavy rains over the Maritime Provinces and in British Columbia. In Manitoba and the Northwest Provinces the weather has been fine and comparatively cool.

Peterboro, Sept. 7. — T. H. Crowley, of Sault Ste. Marie, who has made many mineral discoveries in Ontario, has located on the farm of William Crough, of Ennismore Township, a large hill filled with hituminous cool. LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the local observatory for the 24 hours ended at 8 p.m. Wednesday were: Highest, 69°; lowest, 55° above.

It is believed that the hill contains large quantities. Mr. Crough was oftered $25,000 for an option on his property, but refused.

SCALP BADLY TORN

Accident on Market.

Suits for damages against the city continue to pour into the city clerk's who came here to operate during the around the market as "Shorty," met fair are thought to be responsible for with a painful accident this morning Today Messrs. Faulds & Campbell, acting on behalf of Mr. Ed Watson, served notice of action on the city for damages for injuries said to have been received by Mr. Watson through In the bottom of the wagon was an When trays were being returned to head against it, tearing his scalp bad This makes somewhere in the neighborhood of half a dozen suits the city $650 each, and 75 stickpins, worth up Hubbard was removed to his home. He

THREATENING FRANCO-MOROCCAN WAR CLOUDS ALL BLOWN AWAY

Sultan Yields to the Demands | Sept. 4, the day preceeding the expiraof France-Satisfactory Reparation Made.

Paris, Sept. 7. - A dispatch to the foreign office from Steen Tallandier. to the French demands and given complete satisfaction in the matter of the arrest of the Algerian-French citizen, Bouzain. The foreign office was highly gratified this morning to receive the dispatch from the French minister at Fez announcing that the Sultan had yielded all points demanded in the French ultimatum. The dispatch says that ercion.

lowing children, all at home: Raymond, James, Edmund, Alma, Kathbefore the village was incorporated, and held the position of deputy reeve for a term. His opinions on public ar-fairs were always valuable, and his

For many years Mr. Collins conducted an ice business in West London.

and was respected by all who came in contact with him in business dealings for his fairness and honesty.

The following brothers and sisters

Deceased was a member of the Woodmen of the World and of the Catholic Foresters. The latter organization will conduct the funeral, which o'clock to St. Peter's Cathedral. In-

FINED $1,000

Up-Manager Mulcted.

tery establishment at Fort Erie ap-spectator, discharged. Two boys fines imposed were promptly paid.

from 21/2 to 3 per cent today.

discharged on suspended sentence. The Discount Rate Raised.

London, Sept. 7.- The rate of dscount

THE WEATHER.

Tomorrow-Fine

a few light scattered showers in Sas-katchewan and Manitoba, the weather

Minimum and maximum temperatures

FORECASTS.

winds; fine; not much change in Toronto, Sept. 6-8 p.m.

city: John, of Colorado; Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Riley, of Detroit.

judgments sound and temperate.

leen, Justin, Rose and Norah.

the French legation, where he was received by the minister, and his staff, and the leading European officials. The grand vizier then publicly pre sented a formal apology for the arrest of the French-Algerian citizen, Bouzain, and handed the minister th amount of the indemnity demanded minister to Morocco, announces that for the imprisoned man, and also prothe Moroccan Government has yielded sented letters from the Moroccan min istry of foreign affairs announcing that the cadi responsible for Bouzain's ar rest had been removed.

The French minister answered, cepting the excuses and reparation bride, radiant in her quiet wedding held by her brother, Augustus Eddy, given, and thereupon the preparations for the enforcement of France's de mands were suspended. The foreign office here says the re

DENNIS COLLINS DOMINION DEFENSE: PASSES AWAY MILITIA PLANS

Respected Ex-Deputy Reeve of No Series of Forts, But Chain of Depots in Which to West London Died Last Night-Long Illness.

One of the most respected residents Borden, with Major Lake, chief of of West London, Mr. Dennis Collins, passed away last evening at his resi- staff, will leave for the west tomorpassed away last evening at his residence on Blackfriars street. He had been alling for a year past and his been alling for a year past and his been ailing for a year past and his Today General Lake inspected the perbeen ailing for a year past and his death was not unexpected. It is with manent corps in Winnipeg. On his trip looked at each other and said, "Well, Ottawa, Ill., where she has given elabnone the less sorrow that his demise westward the minister and Major that's over," Lake investigated Fort William as a Mr. Field's Wealth. favorable depot for a section of the Mr. Collins was in his 49th year, and is survived by his wife, and the fol-

British Columbia the Esquimalt prince is said to be the richest fortifications will be inspected. for a detachment of the permanent miles of street fronts in Chicago, and force would also be established in one some of the choicest realty holdings The late Mr. Collins took an active of the new provinces, as the mounted interest in the welfare of the community. For some years he was a member of the council of West London, ber of the council of West London, said Sir Frederick, "for a chain of devices of this vast fortune, the only pots from Halifax to Vancouver. When claimants upon which are a son and I spoke not long ago of this line of daughter, has been the longing depots across the continent, I was at every ambitious matron and soc once quoted by the newspapers as ad- debutante in America and half vocating the building of a chain of continent of Europe, ever since Mar fortresses. What we propose to have shall Field became an eligible widowe is a series of military depots, where officers of the active militia could receive training, and which would be of Less than a year ago Arthur J. Caton. service in maintaining order in the one of Chicago's foremost corporation

survive: Steven and Jeremiah, of this WORKMEN SLAUGHTERED

Fast Passenger Train Kills Three-Two Others Seriously Hurt.

Pittsburg, Sept. 7. — A fast passenger train, westbound, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, ran into a party of five workingmen at Homewood station, near here, early today. Three men were killed outright, and the two oth-Fort Erie Lottery Business Broken ers were seriously injured. About forty employes of the Westinghouse Company were waiting at Homewood station for the train to con-Niagara Falls, Ont., Sept. 7. - The vev them to the works. men arrested in the raid on the lotare said to have been standing on the westbound track, adjoining the platpeared before Magistrate Col. Cruickform, when the passenger train dashed shank this morning, charged with runpast the station. Before all reached ning a lottery concern contrary to the places of safety the train was upon

TRUMPED-UP STORY WENT AGAINST HIM

Had Arthur Lewis Told the Truth, Court Would Have Been More Lenient.

Arthur Lewis, the young colored man who confessed to having stolen about London, Thursday, Sept. 7.
Sun rises. 5:47 a.m.
Sun sets. . 6:45 p.m.
Moon rises. . 12:00 a.m.
Who confessed to having stolen about $30 worth of cigars and some change from Martell's store, was this morn-$30 worth of cigars and some change ing sentenced to four months in the Showers have been general today from the Ottawa Valley to the Maritime Provinces. Elsewhere, with the exception of "This is my first offense," said the "This is my first offense," said the prisoner. "Give me a chance, and I will give Mr. Martell security until I pay Goes Into Effect at Once - Tem-But Mr. McKillop pointed out that Lewis had refused to tell where he had put the stolen goods, and that he had trumped up a story about having sold them to a stranger—the usual story that is employed by thieves who want to keep the goods. "If you had told a truthful story at the first about the disposition of the cigars," said the court, "I would have been more lenient with you.' Moral for thieves-repent and tell where the goods are as soon as you are nabbed by the police. Don't hide the goods somewhere, and then try to "bluff," for it will surely add months to your time.

Soft Coal Near Peterboro.

large hill filled with bituminous coal. It is believed that the hill contains property, but refused,

MARRIAGE OF MARSHALL FIELD WAS A VERY SIMPLE AFFAIR

Less Than Fifty Persons Present --- Minister's Fee Said to Have Been $25,000 --- The Bride's Dress.

London, Sept. 6. - Mrs. Arthur J. | man, tall, slender and white-haired, Caton, whose husband died in Novem- made a picture of harmony with the bridegroom. The bride, radiant as a ber last, yesterday became the bride girl, seemed youthful as her niece, of Marshall Field, of Chicago, esteemed Gowned in Gray. by some to be the second richest man The bride's gown was a Paris crea-precincts of the abbey. Without so bouquet of orchids. much as a processional hymn the wed-ding party advanced towards the altar, in front of which the stately bouquet through the ceremonial was gown, and looking twenty years and after the wedding ring had been subscribed to in the marriage license, the concluding part of the service. paration is complete on all points and took her place a second in advance of the bridegroom. In obedience to Claridge's, was a wondrous function.

The table was covered with white that the incident is closed, thus terminating the anticipated resort to co-Mr. Field's widely known distaste of flowers, and, as a token of the bride's extraordinary simplicity. The ceremony consumed less than from the entrance of the wedding party the principals and their guests or different for Children. party the principals and their guests were leaving the chapel. Canon Hens-ley and the Rev. Drs. Kirsbaum and The Wedding Gifts.

The wedding gifts were modest, with Campbell Henson, who had come to London especially to aid in the officiation, having read the ritual and pronounced the distinguished couple crations the florists of Paris and London could devise.

Immediately returning to Claridge's, where Mr. Field had reserved an entire floor for the reception, the wed-afterward will return to the reception. ding party sat down to a breakfast afterward will return to Chicago. Winnipeg, Sept. 6. — Sir Frederick Borden, with Major Lake, chief of motoring in England.

ding party sat down to a breakfast and groom where they will probably make their home until Mr. Field has completed a mansion on a Fifth avenue site in New York, which he has been adding

The marriage of Marshall Field setman in the world in active Sir Frederick announced that a depot Rockefeller. He owns miles and widow went abroad, and there m Marshall Field, who belonged to her set in Chicago and in New York.

Simple though the ceremony was, was one of the prettiest and most impressive ever pronounced in St. Margaret's. The bride's costume was elegant and rich, and could have been worn by a queen. Though there was no processional hymn, the rule of the liturgy was not disregarded as to left the chapel the peals of the splendid organ rang out. Marriage Fee $25,000. As the bride and groom and their mutual friends departed, Canon Henson was observed to have in his hand something that had a crinkling sound. A look is said to have disclosed sound. A look is said to have disclosed in his possession a f5,000 Bank of England note, representing $25,000 in American money—the largest wedding ceremony fee, it is said, ever received side the dock he looked for all the

It was on account of the recent bereavement sustained by both the bride and bridegroom, as much as anything and bridegroom, as much as anything else, that the ceremonials were of the simplest character, and for the same all sorts of abusive language towards reason, all newspaper men, except those representing American papers, were excluded from the chapel. to arrive at the clergy entrance, op- costs or 15 days. posite the House of Commons, were Watson Blair and John Clark, both Governor Carter, who is "short" young millionaires of Chicago, whose laboring men just at present. In fact, fathers were many years ago intimately associated with Marshall Field in grass cutting himself. The moment the voluntary ceased there stood facing the canon, Marshal Field and Mrs. Caton, attended by their supports of honor. The clergy- John. Six of them were named their supports of them were named their supports of honor.

who stood beside her.

n the world. The wedding took place tion of gray silk China crepe with at St. Margaret's, Westminster, the broad bands of chiffon velvet at the hem. and broad waves of silver embridal party consisting of fewer than broidery falling in volume from the tion of the ultimatum, the grand viz- 50 persons. It was not a Fifth avenue warst to the hell of the skirt. See affair. There was no crush, the police thers drooping over her jet black hair, had little to do, and the few curious floral coloring. The bride's ornaments people who happened to be gathered of precious gems, consisted of large, outside did not know whether it was magnificent pearl earrings, a priceless to be a wedding, a christening, or a pearl framed in irregularly cut diabetrothal. It was one of the most sim- from the merchant prince, and a diaple ceremonies ever pronounced in the mond clasp that inclosed a small ding party advanced towards the allin the lapel of his coat. The bride's younger than the 52 she had couple advanced toward the altar for The reception, a breakfast affair, at display, the cermony proceeded with predilection to motoring, the bridegroom had provided a huge floral automobile, which was dismantled at the sixty seconds of time. Three minutes bride had all the flowers sent to the St. close of the breakfast hour, when the

Campbell Henson, who had come to the exception of flowers, and the lat-

As soon as Mr. and Mrs. Field have orate week-end parties and other en-Mr. Field, though 70 years old, has permanent force in a few years, and in the property problem. The merchant his junior. He owns seventeen large the youthful look of a man many years stores in America and Europe, all associated with his business, and besides owns factories in Germany, France, England, Scotland, Ireland, Italy, Russia, Spain, Japan and China. His retail store in Chicago is reputed to be the largest and most complete in the MAGISTRATE HAD GIANT AS GUEST lawyers, died after a brief illness. The Long Man, Indeed, Was Richard Blackwell, a Prisoner at Court.

The tallest man who has been in the police court for many moons was there this morning. Richard Blackwell recessional, and as the bridal party was his name, and he was charged with being drunk. There are some pretty tall poncemen on the force, but Blackwell has them all faded for length. The clothes he wore were the rgest size, but they were too small. His legs would reach as high as an ordinary man's waist When he sat on the bench he had to world like Monte Cristo in the ocean Those who appeared against the long Among the first of the actual guests when the court fined him $2 and $3 interest in the proceedings, not even The long man will be welcomed by

And there was lots of other free

MANAGER CARR, OF THE STREET RAILWAY, TENDERS RESIGNATION

porary Successor Appointed -Board Meeting Called.

Mr. Charles E. A. Carr, who for ten years has been the efficient manager of the London Street Railway Company, has resigned. His resignation in relation to the road will be diswas placed in President Everett's cussed. hands some days ago, but for business reasons it was kept quiet. It has been known for some tim that Mr. Carr has had an offer of a somewhat weightier position in another city, but it was hoped that he would see his way clear to remain in Lon-The resignation goes into effect at once. Mr. Bender, of the Cleveland offices, will take charge until a successor to Mr. Carr is appointed. President Everett and Mr. C. W. Wasson, one of land, will act as manager until such the directors, of Cleveland, are in the times as the vacancy is permanently city today, and are preparing for the filled. appointment of the new manager. "Will there be any of Mr. Carr saw the old horse lines in policy of the company?" this city, converted into the present electric system, which is recognized , as one of the finest in any city of 10,000 on the continent. To the majority of citizens he is well and favorably known, and his departure from London will occasion general regret. His undisputed ability will be sure to win him rapid promotion in the new position he may assume. A board meeting will be held on Thursday, Sept. 14, when it is expected the new manager will be appointed, and matters of the utmost importance

President Everett Talks.

President Everett was seen by an Advertiser reporter this morning. "Is it true that Manager Carr has resigned?" the reporter asked. "Yes," Mr. Everett replied. "Will there be any more changes?" 'None are contemplated.'

"You have appointed a manager temporarily?" "Will there be any change in the

"None whatever." This ended the interview.