MARKET REPORTS

(Special Wire to H. C. Becher From Harris, Winthrop & Co.) New York, Oct. 17.—The heaviness in the market during most of the session today was due in a large measure to renewed apprehension concerning the European political situation, the uneasiness broad being reflected in lower prices from London. There is talk that we might get a fresh scare next week and this inclined to hinder prices and activity.

An encouraging feature, however, is the indisposition of most operators to operate on the short side to any ex-
