TIP IS OUT THAT FIELDER JONES WILL RETURN TO SOX

FIELDER JONES, FORMER LEADER OF HITLESS WONDERS, WHO MAY

Here is a tip which looks pretty good to those who profess to be hep to current events in American League circles.

The tip is that Fielder Jones, the man who made the Chicago White Sox one of the greatest baseball machines the world has ever known, will return to the Sox next season. Jones resigned from the White Sox a year ago last winter and went into the lumber business in Oregon. He remained out of the game all last season, but this year has signed to play with the Chehalis, Ore., semi-In Chicago they believe that Jones is merely working out with the small team to see if he is still good, and that if the great outfielder and leader finds he can still play the game as he did up to two seasons ago, that he will return to the Sox.

Jones surprised the baseball world when he took the White Sox and beat the Jones surprised the baseball world when he took the White Sox and beat the all-powerful Cubs out of a world's championship. He had no heavy hitters on his team—in fact the Sox were known as the Hitless Wonders—but he had the knack of inspiring his men with the ability of never knowing when they were licked, and he was one of the hardest fighters the national pastime has ever known. It's pretty safe betting that if Fielder wishes to return to the fold, Comiskey will meet him more than half way.

Stahl Made Third Home Run Within the Week-Rain Prevents Double.

Boston, July 13.-Walsh was batted hard by Boston today, and the locals won the first game of the series from Chicago by 5 to 1. Rain prevented a double-header, but two games will be played tomorrow. Stahl made his third home run within a week, and also drove out a three-bagger. The score:
