London, November 29.—Admiral John Jellicoe, commander of the British fleet, was today appointed first sea lord of the admiralty, being succeeded in command of the grand fleet by Vice-Admiral Sir David Beatty, who commanded the British battle cruiser squadron in the Jutland naval battle.

In being appointed first sea lord, Admiral Jellicoe succeeds Admiral Sir Henry B. Jackson, who held that post at the admiralty since May, 1916, when he took the place vacated by Lord Fisher.

Sir Henry B. Jackson, the present first sea lord, has been appointed president of the Royal Naval College at Greenwich.

The announcement of the change of command of the British grand fleet was made this afternoon in the House of Commons by J. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty.

Mr. Balfour said there would be no change in the command of the grand fleet.

Poultry Thieving On Extensive
Scale Alleged in Westminster.

That large quantities of live poultry are being stolen is the claim of residents of Westminster, particularly in the vicinity of Rural Route No. 8. They say that the depredations have been carried on for several weeks, commencing with the loss of only a few fowls, and increasing each time. One woman they state lost a flock of fifteen turkeys as the result of a raid of the thieves. She was relying on the sale of them to supply money for winter expenses, and the loss is a serious one to her.

BLEED THE FRENCH; RAZE OLD LONDON; ENSLAVE BELGIANS

"Our Ultimate Act Is To Push Through to West and the Ocean, Crushing All Resistance," Says Rhenish Gazette.—Terrible Fate in Store for the Allies, According to One German Newspaper.

(Canadian Press.)
London, Nov. 29.—The Rhenish and Westphalian Gazette, in an article on the principle of German peace, declares that the reconciliation of Germany and her western enemies is impossible, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to Reuters. The paper declared that it believes Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg recognizes this, and adds: "We will take our compensation out to the west and the ocean. Whatever offers resistance must be crushed."

Referring to the Balkans the Gazette says: "What the victor gets he holds." Take it From France. In respect to the lost German colonies, the Gazette is quoted as saying: "If we do not succeed in reconquering them the French provinces are worth twice our colonies, and we must have them. We need not waste words about Belgium. We need access to the channel, and we need Antwerp. Would Destroy London. The Gazette concludes that England is more accessible than Russia, and that London can be destroyed easier than Moscow, because, it says, Moscow costs blood and London only torpedoes. "We have no fantastic dreams," the Gazette's final words "of conquering the world. German barbarism is not yet ripe for mastering and governing a world empire. We neither can nor will destroy the British Empire, but the minimum necessary for German peace is the complete beating down of France in the west and the prestige of the German flag on all the seas."

A Remarkable Article. An Amsterdam dispatch to the Times refers to the Gazette's article as by far the most remarkable thing as yet appeared in regard to peace terms. The dispatch adds that the Gazette represents great industrial magnates who "are making their influence increasingly felt."

Annexation is also advocated by Dr. Jaeger, a member of the Central party in the Reichstag, who, writing in the Rhenish General Anzeiger, insists that the German blood shed in Belgium since 1914 must not have been shed in vain. "Belgium must be our guarantee," writes Dr. Jaeger, "for a good part of the war costs. We must retain permanently the Meuse line with Liege and Namur. Part of our Luxembourg which has become Belgian, can perhaps be ceded to the grand duchy."

After saying that the Walloons could be made into their homes, Dr. Jaeger pronounced in favor of allowing the Belgian dynasty to remain. He declared, however, that the country must be brought politically, militarily and economically in closer relation to Germany.

GERMANS INCREASE FINE

Paris, Nov. 29.—The German authorities have issued a decree imposing a further payment of 10,000 francs a month on Belgium according to a Havas dispatch from Havre. This is additional to the existing levy of 400,000 francs. The dispatch says that the provincial councils have been asked for December 2 in order to approve the new imposition.

DIED SUDDENLY AS HE AWAITED ORDERS TO SAIL FOR FRANCE

The news of the death of Major John R. Meredith will be read with much sorrow.

Major Meredith died suddenly in London, England, word being received here on Sunday. He was thought to be in perfect health on the evening before his death, but he was found dead in his room in the morning. He was attached to the 5th Battalion, which was waiting to be ordered overseas.

He was born in this city 25 years ago. He was the only son of Sir William and Lady Meredith. Sir William was formerly a captain in the 7th Regiment. His widow is a daughter of I. P. Hellmuth, K.C., formerly of London, and now of Toronto. He leaves also one daughter.

Major Meredith's early years were spent in this city. He removed with his father, some years ago to Toronto, and after his call to the bar engaged in the practice of his profession. At the time of his death, he was a member of the firm of Hellmuth, Cattinich & Meredith. Although his life was not given up on the battlefield, it was sacrificed in his country's cause. Like Great Britain it, Canada has many darkened homes. She has given already many of her best sons. Such great sacrifices should not be made in vain, but as the news of each death comes home, the hope becomes stronger that the end of the terrible war is near. His widow and child will have the sympathy of all, as also will his father and mother, in their great sacrifice.

UP GOES MILK.
Montreal, Nov. 29.—The milk dealers in this city have decided to increase the price of pints of milk one cent beginning on Friday next, while quart bottles will continue as at present, ten cents. The high cost of washing and filling the bottles is the excuse the dealers make for trying to get the consumers to buy quarts instead of pints.

Reservists Resisted Removal of Guns and Swore To Fight.

(Canadian Press.)

London, Nov. 29.—The Greek crown council has voted to support the Government in opposing the Allies' demands for the surrender of arms and munitions, according to an Athens dispatch to Reuters of yesterday's date. The dispatch says this decision was reached after a session of an hour and a half, which was presided over by King Constantine.

LOOKS BRIGHTER BY THIS.

(Canadian Press.)
London, Nov. 29.—A dispatch to the Daily Chronicle from Athens November 27 says: "A feeling of optimism prevails today in diplomatic circles, and there is a general rise in prices on the Bourse. That a satisfactory solution of the questions at issue is not excluded is due to the long interview which Admiral Du Poutre had with the king this forenoon, and persons in a position to know express the belief that matters are now moving in a more normal manner. No crown council was held today as was expected yesterday."

Reservists Threaten.

It is said that the admiral discussed with the king the question of public order, which according to the admiral was in danger on account of threatened action by certain disloyal organizations.
