THE CRIMINALS OF THE FUNDS.

Mr. Flint was the next witness. He was the Secretary Treasurer of the Reform Association and had been connected with the same from 1882 to 1887.

Mr. Flint had considerable difficulty in answering Mr. McCarthy's question as to how many of the members of the general county association. He finally said they were delegates from the divisions. The meeting of November 20th was called by the Executive-Messrs. Campbell, Walker, Christie, Gimmlin and others.

Mr. McCarthy-It is just the same to say you don't know when you do as to tell me any of this. You pledge your oath that you do not know? The Judge-It is just the same in all these trials. A man will sit at a meeting and then say he does not know who was there.

Mr. McCarthy-At whose instance was the subscription list taken up? Mr. Flint-My own.

Q-What did it amount to? A-$500 or $600 about.

Q-Who contributed to that besides Mr. A-B B Smith gave $10.

Q-Who else? No answer.

Q-Ye can't remember anyone else who contributed before the election? A-Messrs. Baines, Rankin, Holmes, Dr Oliver and Walker.

Q-Did Mr. McKough give any? A-No.

Q-He was a distributor, not a contributor? A-I don't know about that.

Q-How did you spend that money? Was it paid to the election agent? A-No.

Q-Was it all paid on account of town expenses, or did any of it go to the country? A-Some of it.

Q-Have you the bills paid? A-None are on file in the Sheriff's office. Some are not paid yet.

Witness heard there was another fund, as a matter of street talk, but knew nothing of it. It was not at meeting where an assessment of $500 was levied. Could not tell the largest subscription received; it might have been $30.

Re direct-The office is downstairs on the ground floor; we moved into them from the old rooms just a few weeks before the election. The store was owned by Mr. Miller. All my books were stolen. He expected they would turn up to-day. The subscription list was gone, but he forget what he had done with it.

Q-Did you mark down to whom you had paid the money? A-After hesitation-Yes; in the memorandum book.

Q-Did this book contain the amount received and who paid it to you? A-There were some subscriptions not entered in the book.

Q-Why not? you had to account for it? A-Yes.

Q-How much did you get from Mr. Campbell? A-$50 before the election and $300 on polling day.

Q-How was it you did not mark them down? Are you out of pocket? A-Yes.

FREE PRESS CORRESPONDENCE.

Ald. Davis' Explanation. To the Editor of the Free Press.

DEAR SIR,-As you have a paragraph in this morning's issue of your paper about the proposed changes in the civic offices in the City Hall it does it my duty to reply to the same, as we have no intention of doing what you assert. Briefly, the scheme, as proposed by me at the City Council Monday night, is as follows:-

1. We would have all the municipal offices and clerical staff and convenient of access to the public. At present they are scattered throughout the Hall.

2. We would have four large stores, which would extend from Richmond street to the Market Square.

3. We would save largely in that we would not have the Hall to give rent free to every one who would add the same.

4. The City Hall property would become a large source of revenue, instead of a heavy expenditure.

5. The City Hall, are a few of the advantages which I think would accrue to the city in the event of the proposed change becoming a fact.

In conclusion, permit me to say that I am decidedly opposed to the City Hall, and this opinion, I have reason to believe, is shared by all the members of the Investigative Committee. I believe that if the City Hall at a comparatively small expense were altered in the manner suggested it would meet all the requirements of the city for twenty years to come; further, I think that it would be a valuable addition to the city's revenue.

Yours respectfully, GEO. C. DAVIS, Chairman of Committee re Civic Offices and the Hall, Nov. 2, 1887.

REFUSED THE SUMMONS.

Mr. Woods to Undergo the Four Months' Imprisonment.

Mr. Love, proprietor of the Pacific Hotel, who was recently convicted of a third offence against the Criminal Code, after being sentenced to four months' imprisonment, made application before His Honor Judge Elliot yesterday for a summons to sit at a hotel on the Governor's Road, near the Asylum, was the accused, and after a short hearing the magistrate found him guilty, and sentenced him to two months' imprisonment, this being the lightest sentence. Barrac has been convicted on four previous occasions, but this was the first time the charge was preferred as a third offence.
