How Mr. Raeside of Wankegan Made Money out of Cheap Clydesdales. CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Joseph Raeside of Wankegan appeared before the United States commissioners yesterday to give bail to appear for examination on a bail to appear for examination on a question of extradition for forgery. The application is made by the Clydesdale association of Scotland, charging Raeside with the purchase of a lot of Clydesdale horses of inferior breeding, and forged pedigrees, and selling them to this country to the detriment of horse interests. The application was presented to the state department through the British minister and government officers were directed to arrest Raeside.

and ladies' dress goods merchant, who has done business here for some years, has been of late unable to meet his debts. He was advertised a great clearing sale at enormous reductions in prices. The sale was undoubt-edly genuine, as goods were being rushed of for a mere trifle, undoubtedly much below for a mere trifle, undoubtedly much below cost. Half of the women in Guelph accordingly besieged his store, and for a day or two he did an immense business, selling for cash only. Bucham's Toronto creditors heard of how the goods were being slaughtered and realized that if the sale, were allowed to go on there would be hothing left in his store when the notes fell due. They asked and were granted an execution and their lawyer arrived here Thursday. Bucham, in the meantime, had got wind of their proceedings and made an assignment, in trust about five minutes before the lawyer's arrival. The latter sent a sheriff's office to seize the stock. The officer and the trustee met in the store, which was much crowded, at the same time. The sheriff's officer ordered the men to stop selling and told the oustomers to leave. He also took all the oash in the till. The trustee claimed that he was in possession, and insisted on his rights. The two still hold the fort, and are awaiting further developments. Bucham's principal Toronto creditors are James Brayley & Co., between $10,000 and $11,000; and McKinnon, Proctor & Co., $2000. The latter are secured to the amount of $800.

The majority present were ladies and they seemed to enjoy the sport fully as much as the contestants themselves. The games were keenly contested, and some very good time for amateurs was made. The entries for the different events were large. Much amusement was created by the obstacle race, in which there were thirty-five entries. One of the competitors named Murphy was so stout that he got stuck when he tried to crawl under the first pole, and had to be pulled through by some bystanders. The band of the Queen's Own were present under the direction of Mr. Bayley, and discoursed fine music. Mayor Boewell was on the grounds, and presented the prizes. The day was fine, the grounds were in good condition, the committee of management did its work well and every one went away pleased with the success of the games. J. R. McCaffry, K. Last evening a gang of gutter snipes and roughs amused themselves by bullying and rolling about in the mud a lar named Walter Davis. They were urged on by two louts who belonged to the burst-up Caiffornia minstrels. They kept the boy from getting away and it was not till he was bruised and bleeding that a policeman appeared, at the sight of whom the cowards made off. Captain Harston.

His many friends are congratulating Capt.
Harston in having associated himself with the Standard life assurance company, standing as it does in the foremest rank among the companies doing business in Canada; and they think also that the company itself has exhibited good judgment in securing the services of a gentleman who has proved himself, by his previous connection with life assurance, peculiarly fitted to augment its business. A gray headed old Frenchman named Ralph Davis was brought before the magistrate yesterday charged with vagrancy. Evidence showed that he was a confirmed pick-pocket, having been caught picking pockets at the Horticultural gardens lately, and raiso in the main building at the exhibition, its was fined $10 and costs or $20 days.

Muss"-Heaps of Troubte. To the Editor of The World.

SIR: I perceive by an article in to-day's World that the Dominion brewers and whole-ale wine and spirit dealers' association has een dissolved. It was organized with a great and enclosed it to the chief. The chief did acounty constable to take up the case, and on information supplied by the reporters of the city papers the scandal was removed. The police would do nothing because the chief was notified by the crown attorney.

The due administration of law and preservation of order rests as much on the crown attorney as on the police and unless the former has detectives and policemen to work up cases there will be a weak vindication of the law.

And this want of understanding in this particular case is one of dozens of others,
