

THE TORONTO WORLD. SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 3, 1886.

A Clear Case. On the cattle market a very clear case has been made out. First, the whole...

Senator O'Connell proposes to make the name of some one by passing down a bill to prevent members from charging the extortionate rates often exacted from the unfortunate...

There is nothing which leads so much color to the allegations of those who describe Toronto as a wicked city as the change of heart which is truly good...

There would be a great deal of uncertainty about it, anyway, and the Dominion government might have to be consulted. We must say that the restoration of the Board of Trade did not particularly distinguish themselves as business men...

Why Not Hold a Fire League. In view of yesterday's developments, which are given in our local columns, in connection with the Mall building construction, it is clearly the duty of the authorities to hold a fire league.

The suggestion made by the Mall yesterday that the time has come when the government ought to make some arrangement with the C. P. R. for the purpose of eliminating from their agreement, the monopoly clause, looks like a straw...

The frequent and continuous changes in the opinion of experts regarding the comparative value of naval armaments are both curious and instructive. There are indications that the era of combats armor and monster guns has reached its climacteric...

The Globe's intimation that the gunboat sent out to protect the Canadian fisheries is good, is being widely circulated by our United States exchanges for the encouragement of their fishermen. Should the Lansdowne tow one of her smacks into port...

The Ottawa Journal ought to be presented for holding to account. It says that a man who cannot say what he has to say to his hearer and a half should retire to the solitude of the forest and talk himself to death...

Far from treating Riel as a dead issue, though requested to do so by the Globe, the London Advertiser persists in denouncing that he ought not to have been hanged because he was insane. It is to be regretted that our contemporary did not discover this before he was executed. The sympathy with...
