Chicago, Aug. 2.—The corn pit was more excited to-day than any grain pit since the panic in June. Corn got away from the shorts yesterday and there was a fright among them to-day. The crop reports were unchanged to-day and that was all the bulls desired, and they came on 'Change determined to send corn up. The September future, which closed strong at 40c yesterday, after an advance of the, opened at 41c, sold up to 41c, then back to 43c, than up again to 42c, back to 41c, and finally up to the highest point for the day, at 42c, and closed at 44c, just 2c over yestorday. October sold steadily along from opening at 41c up to 43c, the closing price. The excitement in corn had a stimulating effect on the oat market, but the usual crowd of traders in wheat left their pit to either look on or take a hand in the corn deal. Wheat, opening, sympathized with the corn revival and 'tailed' on with good results. The close was steady and quiet. Leading futures closed: Wheat—Aug. 69t, Sept. 70c, Oct. 72c. Corn—Aug. 41c.
