

BUILDING PROGRESS AT THE SOO.

A population of 2000 estimated at the end of this year. The building progress at the Soo is making rapid strides. Mr. J. J. Kahan of South St. Marie, arrived in town yesterday. He was interviewed by a World reporter in reference to the progress of the Soo.

In answer to questions as to the present building progress, Mr. Kahan said there was a big building boom on at the present moment. Indications point to even a greater number of buildings being put up this spring than last year. He said that the Soo will be a big city in a few years. He said that the Soo will be a big city in a few years. He said that the Soo will be a big city in a few years.

When I left a couple of days ago the contract for the new International Hotel had been signed and the contractors were beginning work. It will cost about $250,000. There is another hotel being put up by the Plummer Syndicate, the work to be begun soon. This building will be 70 feet high and 100 feet wide. It will be a big hotel. It will be a big hotel. It will be a big hotel.

A great number of private residences and business blocks are going up. A large number of houses are being built. A large number of houses are being built. A large number of houses are being built. A large number of houses are being built.

People with a taste for the new style of architecture are flocking to the Soo. People with a taste for the new style of architecture are flocking to the Soo. People with a taste for the new style of architecture are flocking to the Soo.
