

TO THE ELECTORS OF EAST LAMBTON:

Your Vote and Influence Respectfully Solicited for

DR. J. B. MARTYN

Liberal-Conservative Candidate.

Election Day, December 11, 1911

ARKONA

Mr. P. Hopkins, Toronto, spent Sunday at R. Wilson's.

Dr. Copeland made a professional trip to Sarnia last Saturday.

After an illness lingering over a period of 12 years Mr. Edward Cliff passed away on Sunday last. Remains were interred in Arkona cemetery on Tuesday.

A number of loyal liberals heard McKenney King speak in Theford on Saturday night.

A three-cornered fight is looked for this year in campaign of Reeveship.

For the Christmas trade our range of China will be more extensive than ever.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williamson, of Watford, spent Sunday at Mr. Showler Waterman's.

Dr. J. B. Martyn, the Liberal-Conservative candidate, will address the electors at Arkona this (Friday) night. Turn out and hear the political topics of the day discussed.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist Church will give a fowl supper Friday evening, Dec. 1st, from 5 to 8 o'clock. The supper will be served in Dr. Thompson's house after which a splendid program will be rendered in the church.

Mr. Langstrath is visiting his son in Hamilton.

A quiet wedding was solemnized last week when Miss Lydia May Murray became the wife of Mr. James Evans. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Hare, of this place. Both are popular residents of Arkona.

Miss Stella Rook is attending the wedding of her friend, Miss Edna Showler, in London this week.

Men's and boys' lumberman rubbers—new styles, better values.—Brown Bros.

BROOKE.

Some of the sidelines are in bad condition.

It is reported that the oil wells on the 3rd concession of Brooke are petering out.

Sutorville will hold their annual entertainment on Thursday, Dec. 21st. Full particulars later.

The Guide-Advocate wants a correspondent at Sutorville. If you would like to act, drop us a line.

Mrs. Robert Bryce and niece, Miss

Myrtle Williamson, Sutorville, paid a flying visit to Strathroy on Saturday.

Joseph Hiderman, of Brooke Township, aged 55, was gored to death by a bull in his stable not far from Inwood.—Mail and Empire.

Mrs. A. Headlip and Mrs. N. Campbell, Port Huron, Mich., attended the funeral of their aunt, the late Mrs. James Kelly, last week.

Service in St. James' Church, Brooke, on Sunday afternoon at 2.30. The new church paper "Our Empire" will be placed in the pews on Sunday.

Dressed turkeys wanted. Highest price paid. Birds must be bled in the mouth and well picked. Also all kinds of fowl either alive or dressed.—P. DODDS & SON, Watford.

Dr. J. B. Martyn held a meeting in Sutorville Friday evening and one in Walnut Saturday evening. Both were well attended. John Farrell and W. R. Dawson assisted Dr. Martyn.

Mr. Alvin Shirley, B.A., of Huron College, London, will conduct services in Christ Church, Sutorville, at 3 p.m. in the afternoon and 7.30 in the evening on Sunday.

The regular Christmas entertainment of Chalmers' Presbyterian Church Sunday School will be held on Wednesday evening, Dec. 20th. A splendid program is in preparation.

Fall wheat has had a fine start this year, the weather having been most favorable for its growth. Old residents say that the crop prospects are better than they have appeared for years.

Mrs. Chas. S. Robb, of Lestock, Sask., writes:—"Enclosed please find $1.00 for the Guide-Advocate. I can not do without it, as I always read it when I lived in Brooke." Mrs. Robb reports very fine and pleasant weather at Lestock.

The Hon. W. J. Hanna will address the electors at Inwood, on Wednesday, December 6th in the interests of Dr. J. B. Martyn, the Conservative candidate. All should embrace this opportunity to hear the Provincial Secretary discuss provincial matters.

At the regular service next Sabbath morning, the pastor, Rev. J. Ure Stewart, will speak with special reference to the work of the past year, this being the first anniversary of his induction into the present charge. A similar service will be held in St. Andrew's, Napier. At the regular mid-week service on Wednesday evening the pastor has been taking up a teacher's training course in connection with the prayer meeting. For the next three weeks will review John R. Mott's famous book "Decisive Hour of Christian Mission."

The North Brooke Literary Society was organized last Monday evening at Chalmers' Presbyterian church when the following officers were elected:—Hon. Pres. Rev. J. Ure Stewart; Pres., Archie Fisher; Vice Pres., Miss Minnie Willoughby; Sec., C. G. Lewis; Mr. Sadie Logan; Edith, Miss Ada McGaugan. At the first meeting on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th, a debate will be held on "Resolved that the horse is more beneficial to man than the automobile," the leader of the affirmative being Miss Sadie Logan, and of the negative, Archie Fisher, each with their assistants. The organization is undenominational and all are welcome to be present and take part in the society. The meeting will be held in Chalmers' Presbyterian church.

OBITUARY.—Richard Ansley of the 10th line of Brooke was born in the county of York on Dec. 25th in the year 1850. He settled in the County of Lambton in the year 1858. In the year 1874 he was happily united in marriage with Miss Jane Curry of Watford. There lives to mourn his loss a wife, one son, Mark, and three daughters, Bella, at home, Mrs. Peter Crowder, Mrs. Walter Douglas, both of Enniskillen. One brother, William, of Medicine Hat, Alta., and a sister, Mrs. Samuel Burkholder, of Castor, Alta., survive him. He was an official member of the Methodist church at Walnut and in his death the church sustains a heavy loss. He was much beloved by his family and held in high esteem by all his neighbors. The funeral service, which was held on Sabbath, Nov. 19th and conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. C. Burton, and Rev. H. E. Currie, was largely attended. He was laid to rest in the Alvinston cemetery. The pall-bearers were William Shugg, Benjamin Zavitz, James Coke, Francis Kelly, Jno. Zavitz and Jno. Smith.

A very enjoyable time was spent on Wednesday evening last at the home of Mr. Santord Lucas, where about 100 invited guests assembled to spend the night before Mr. Lucas goes to Alvinston. The evening was spent in songs and speeches each testifying good wishes of Mr. Lucas. We regret very much to lose him as he has been a good worker in St. Andrew's Church, he has been a resident of the 10th line for about twenty years; has gained the good will of both young and old, and it is hard to bid adieu to such a man as Santord. However, our loss will be Alvinston's gain. After the program had been gone through with Mr. Lucas was called forward and presented with a gold ring, a pair of gold cuff links and a fur cap. The address was read by Mr. Silas Cook while Mr. Samuel Johnston made the presentation. Mr. Lucas made a neat reply in a few words. The following is the address:

MR. SANTORD LUCAS. A number of your friends and neighbors from your neighborhood and the St. Andrew's Church, desire to take advantage of this opportunity of expressing our esteem for yourself and for our appreciation of your good work. We have met to express that esteem and appreciation. You are going from among us and we wish to convey to you our good wishes for your continued happiness and prosperity. And just to remind you in the days to come of the warm regard and personal good wishes of your friends on the old 10th line and vicinity. Will you please accept this gift as a token and reminder of the same. We wish you God speed and a useful and happy life, wherever your lot may be cast. Signed in behalf of your friends and neighbors.

SILAS COOK, SAMUEL JOHNSTON.
