THE NEW CABINET

Ottawa, Dec. 29.—The new Cabinet for the Dominion sworn in this afternoon is as follows:

Premier and Minister of External Affairs—Honorable W. L. Mackenzie King.

Finance—Honorable W. S. Fielding.

Justice—Sir Lomer Gouin. Customs, Excise—Honorable Jacques Bureau.

Railways, Canals—Honorable W. C. Kennedy.

Interior—Honorable Chas. Stewart.

Agriculture—Honorable W. R. Motherwell.

Public Works—Senator Bostock. Labor—Honorable James Murdoch.

Secretary of State—Honorable A. B. Copp.

Marine, Fisheries—Honorable Ernest Lapointe.

Militia, Navy—Honorable George P. Graham.

D. S. C. R., Health—Honorable Dr. Beland.

Trade, Commerce—Honorable J. A. Robb.

Postmaster-General—Honorable Charles Murphy.

With Portfolio—Honorable D. W. McKenzie, Honorable Thomas A. Low, Senator Dandurand, Hon. J. E. Sinclair.

Despite all the criticism of lawyers in the old Cabinet, they are again the largest group in the new ministry sworn in Thursday at Ottawa.

There are eight lawyers. Hon. Mackenzie King had this name placed on the ballot paper as a journalist, although his experience was confined to a year on The Globe.

Counting him as a journalist there are three journalists, three farmers, one doctor, a manufacturer, miller, capitalist and labor agent.

Senator Bostock, while a lawyer by profession, has been a rancher and fruit grower in British Columbia. He has never been regarded as a practical farmer.

The line-up by occupations:

Lawyers—(8)—Sir Lomer Gouin, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Ernest Lapointe, Hon. Charles Murphy, D. D. Mackenzie, A. B. Copp, Senator Bostock, Senator Dandurand.

Journalists—(3)—Hon. Mackenzie King, Hon. W. S. Fielding and Hon. G. P. Graham.

Farmers—(3)—Hon. Chas. Stewart, Hon. W. R. Motherwell, and Hon. J. E. Sinclair.

Manufacturers—(1)—T. A. Low. Miller—(1)—James Robb.

Capitalist—(1)—W. C. Kennedy. Labor agent—(1)—James Murdoch.

Doctor—(1)—Hon. Dr. Beland.

The new Cabinet contains seven Roman Catholics, six Presbyterians, two Anglicans, two Methodists and one Baptist.

Hon. James Murdoch is not included in this list. They are: Roman Catholics—Sir Lomer Gouin, Hon. Dr. Beland, Hon. Jacques Bureau, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Hon. Chas. Murphy, Hon. W. C. Kennedy and Senator Dandurand.

Presbyterians—Hon. Mackenzie King, Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Hon. D. D. Mackenzie, Hon. A. B. Copp, Hon. John E. Sinclair and Hon. James Robb.

Anglicans—Senator Bostock and Hon. Chas. Stewart.

Methodists—Hon. G. P. Graham and T. A. Low.

Baptist—Hon. W. S. Fielding.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The ten by-elections necessitated by the appointment of members of the Cabinet, will be held Feb. 2nd, with nominations Jan. 19th.

A modern good provider is one who brings home a new dance record for the phonograph every night.—Hartford.

According to the cable Scotland is at present experiencing one of its periodic religious revivals in exaggerated form.

The campaign, which is headed by Pastor Clark, has led to extraordinary scenes of religious enthusiasm in Aberdeenshire, and has now spread southward to Edinburgh and Glasgow, where scenes of unparalleled religious fervor have been witnessed.

Deputy Provincial Fire Marshal Cowan, who recently conducted investigations into summer fires in barns in the Brantford district, has completed an investigation of the fire which swept through the splendid barn of George Daniels, Burford township in November. His investigation showed that the fire broke out in the hay mow, with no suspicion of incendiarism. The hay was lucerne clover and timothy mixed, which had been wet in the field, none of it having been sweated or salted when put in the mow. Gas generation had set in, and when a favorable moment occurred spontaneous combustion followed. He urges that to avoid this, all hay should be cocked up and sweated for a week or longer, hauled into the barn, and salted at the rate of one paulful of salt sprinkled for every load.

London Advertiser.—Watford voted this year as to whether it would raise a necessary $14,000 for the completion of its waterworks by a cash payment or 20 year debentures. The debenture plan is quite right in this case, because the benefit of a waterworks system is something that is going to be spread over a term of years, and the citizens of the future will have just as much benefit as those of 1922. There is a danger of the debenture idea getting too much of a start on the pay-as-you-go plan in some cases, but the building of a waterworks system can hardly be put in that class.

Watford 10—Alvinston 3

Watford intermediates played their first game in the O.H.A. series last Friday evening, Dec. 30, in Alvinston, where they easily outclassed the south town by 10-3. Although the boys have no practice on account of the new rink not being completed in time, they are relying on their stiff physical training of the past month. The line-up:

Watford: Alvinson goal... McDougall. Defense... Leitch, Trenouth, Bruce. Center... Wallis. Wing... K. McEachern, Greer. Forward... A. McEachern, Doods, Harper. Sub... McTaggart, Harper. Referee—Sid Rankin, London.

Sarnia 2—Watford 1

Sarnia managed to come out of the water with the better end of a 2-1 score Tuesday evening, when Watford intermediates met them on their own arena. The Sarnia Observer sums the game up as follows: "The score about indicates the play. The teams were evenly matched on the uncertain ice, but the fact that the locals were playing on their own arena, when they shot wide or missed altogether after stickhandling through the whole Watford team. Sarnia's forward line needs one player who can shoot goals. The present combination outgeneralized, and in many cases, outskated the Watford forwards, but when it came to hoisting the disc into the promised land they were A.W.O.L."

Glencoe 8—Strathroy 2

Strathroy 6—Alvinston 5
