

Collector of Customs—Six-Mile Creek again— Meeting with Mr. Smythe—Return journey to Wolf Creek—New Government road—Lake Pasilqua—Camping ground on Upper Columbia Lake—Arrival at Mr. Armstrong's ranche....	142
XIX. Voyage down the Upper Columbia Lake—Begin- ning of the Columbia River—Dangers of navi- gation—Mud Lake—Columbia River between Mud and the Lower Lake—Lower Columbia Lake—Night camp—Columbia River proper— Lilacs Landing again—No news of Steamer Duchess —Camping ground on Columbia River—Stormy night—Decrease of luxuries— Arrival of visitors—Steamer detained at Spillu- macheen—Departure by boat to meet her— Voyage down the Columbia River—Miss the boat—Adventures by the way—Arrival at Golden City—Donald	151
XX. Leave Donald for the Glacier Hotel—Scenery along this section of the C. P. R.—First crossing of the Columbia River—Beaver River—Bear Creek—Selkirk Mountains—Course of snow- slides—Railway bridges—Snow sheds—Height of mountains in Selkirk Range—Glacier Hotel —Favourite locality for artists—Messrs. O'Brien, Forbes, Fraser, and Aitken	164
XXI. Donald to Port Moody—Loop in the Selkirk Range—Skill of C. P. R. engineers—Ille Celle Waet River—Revelstoke—Second crossing of the Columbia—Fine timber—Gold Ranges— Cascade—Thompson River Canyon—Kam- loops district—Canyon of the Fraser River— Spuzzum—Yale—North Bench—Coast Moun- tains—Port Moody—Burrard Inlet—Van- couver—Gulf of Georgia—Victoria	170
XXII. Population of Victoria—Chinese quarter, their position, importance and emigration—Situation of Victoria—Handsome buildings—Parliament Houses—Union Club—Beacon Hill Park— Esquimalt—Nanaimo—Climate of Victoria— Vegetation—Expenses of living—Hospitality of Victorians—Advantages of the Canadian Pacific Route	179