Roform, reform is the cry of the day, Winte od fashioned holits are passing away While extoric mas triumphed, so plainty 'twoid O or too old tashioned math stof puthing by st

Let us giance at Toronto, which a few years ago, Was dark Muddy York, as you very well know And soon it today, miles our citizes the best, And deservedly styled, the Queen of the West.

Just look, If you please, at its elegant homes,— its basimitel characters, their pers and their domes. Winto its has public bunding, erected with taste, Adoratto size of some old in rally waste

Its marshes have tied by the sid of our drains, its forests are open'd by the speed of our trains; The past we have veen, the present we see, Well, well, we may ask, what the future will be.

But reforms as import on us these have been usede, Which greatly have alreed the aspect of trade, Old styles and aid habit, ald prices have pass, And customs much better are practised at last.

The Bossets for instance, which a few years ago Would contyou a dollar and a-quarter, or so; A much finer style you now may procure, For less than one-lourth of that sum, I am suro.

Nor did you then think that the terms were hard, if you tought a good print for a shiring per yard, lutinow you may purchase for half of this price, Δ cioth quite as good, and a style just as nice.

Will you call at McD NALDS I if it is but to try From his well sorted Stock how cheap you can bu And we cature to say, when you book through his S You will wonder you never hisse found it before

Then three story house, with the front printed white, Which makes its appearance both graceful and light, With very large figures, a linch you plainly may see, Describing its number as ONE HUNDRED AND TRAKE
