The shadows flee away,

-10. The Missionary Meeting this month was one of the best we have had. May Keirstead gave a most instructive paper, on "Our Bloomfield Mission." The special music was much enjoyed. Rev. P. Whytecock, of "Regions Beyond Missions," whose visit we all enjoyed very much, gave interesting address on the "Congo." The Missionary Committee of our Y. P. U. know how to give us a good meeting. Look out for the next one.

Do you read the "Messenger and Visitor," our denominational paper? If not, you ought to become a subscriber. The Rev. J. W. Manning gives some pertinent suggestions in the issue March 28th, regarding the work of young people to world-wide evangelization. It applies to young and old. Read carefully: "There is on the field embraced in our mission a total population of 2,000,000 in nearly 5,000 villages and towns, and covering an area of nearly 5,500 square miles. The forces at work on this field are eight male missionaries with their wives, and six single ladies. Of these eight mission families, two of them and the wife of another are at present on furlough; or will be in a few weeks. Besides these, there are about five native helpers; these include colporteurs and Bible-women as well as preachers and teachers. It surely is not pertinent to ask the question—What are these among so many? Will the Master rebuke us for asking it? There is no lack of faith in Him. We know that He can save with many or with few. He is able to save to the uttermost. God be praised in the display.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas McPherson. The seats are given, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.
