CAMP GROUND, COEOURG.

The following speaks for itself:—

Y. M. C. A. Tent,
Sept. 5, 1881.

The Cobourg Young Men's Christian Association are pleased to announce that they have procured a large tent in which it is proposed to furnish the officers and men of the camp with a good supply of reading matter, including the leading dailies, and as far as possible the local papers from those places from which Volunteers have come; also magazines and illustrated papers.

LETTERS.—A portion of the tent will be reserved for those who wish to write letters. Writing material, including paper and envelopes, furnished free. Letters for camp, addressed in care of Y. M. C. A., will be promptly delivered; and letters left at Y. M. C. A. Tent forwarded to Post office.

MEETINGS.—Gospel and Temperance Meetings, or Song Services held each evening. The Cobourg Y. M. C. A. Choir will be in attendance to lead the singing.

Mr. W. C. Jex, formerly of the 40th Battalion, will superintend the Y. M. C. A. Tent and work on the camp ground. He will be glad to make the acquaintance of the officers and men, and render them such kind offices as he may be enabled.

The Association are anxious that the advantages thus offered may be enjoyed by all, and to this end a general and most cordial invitation is extended.

JOHN W. BICKLE,
President Cobourg Y. M. C. A.

We have also received a letter in which the writer says:—We held our first meeting last night. There was quite a number present, and the Commandant thanked us and said he had witnessed the good done in the past by the Y.M.C.A. at the camp, and he was pleased with the effort made here. The dear Lord is with us, and I have no doubt that many will receive a blessing.

THE work in the camp at Brockville is progressing favorably. We have not as yet received any particulars beyond the fact that the brethren feel encouraged. Pray for these special efforts.

HOME AGAIN.

OUR beloved President (Hon. S. H. Blake,) has returned to our midst, after several months' absence in England. During his visit to the Old Land his voice was often heard on behalf of the Master and the Master's work.

We hope that, at an early date, he may be induced to give us the benefit of his experience while abroad: and we know that our desire to hear him is shared in by all our readers.
