NEW YORK AND ERIE RAYLWAY.

NEW YORK AND ERIE RAILWAY.

Wo mot with a paragraph the other day which is very descriptive of this groupt thereof the very descriptive of this groupt the condition public:

"The railways here, that is it England, are not bester than our own. Lither the linglish roads have deterlorated, or else our own have appreciated, is sume that the fastest train on the direct line between Liverpool and London may be taken as a tair sample, and, suppared with similar trains on the New York and Eric Railway at home—with which I am most familiar. From Liverpool to London, two hunds I and twenty miles, through first-class fare is thirty-five shillings—say nine deliars. On the New York and Eric, from Now York to the west and of Suspension Bridge, in Canada, distance unwards of four hundred and fity mites, in drawing room canch, the fare is anno dollars and twenty-five cents. We ride in by far the most elegant coaches on the Eric than here in England, and at only one half the cest. We ride as fast, too, on the Eric as in lingland, about thirty-nine miles in either case. In smoothness there is no comparison. Motion on the New York and Eric is like rolling on oil; but here we rattle in our seats like rolling on oil; but here we rattle in our seats like rolling in our acceptance. Here it is difficult to talk, and impossible to write; on the Eric I do both intelligibly. I am proudly surprised, after any particular that effects a traveller—no, not oven in the matter of dast and ashes."

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

Fifth Year.

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART.

THE ALDINE:

ANILLUSTRATED MONTHLY JOURNAL

claimed to be the

HANDSOMERT PAPER IN THE WORLD.

"Give my love to the artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of administion for beauty, as it has always been for usofulness."—Henry Ward Beecher.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscolinny of pure, light, and graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest spectures, of artistic skill, in black and white, Although ends accelling humber affords in frost pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—idone and unapproached—absolutely without competition or in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of the paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the edition of 1871 is already exhausted and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book.

New Features for 1872.—Art Department.

The outhusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and heartily support any sincere offer to clevate the tone and standing of illustrated pupilications. Thut so many weekly wicked sheets exist and thrive is no ordinece that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINI: from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publisher sould begt to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American Artists.

W. T. Richards, Grany, Perrica,

W. T. RICHARDS, WM. HART, WM. HART, GEORGE SMILEY, AUG. WILL, JAMES SMILEY, FRANK BEARD, J. HOWS, GRANY, PERRINS, F. O. C. DARLEY, VICTOR NEILLIG, WM. H. WILCOX, JAMES H. BEARD, B. E. PIGUET.

The pictures a being reproduced without regard to expense by the very bore engravers in the country and will hear the very soverest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vimilication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration any pot up of the work, to much dependance on ap-pentances may very naturally be feared. To an-leighte such ini-stivings, is only necessary to state that the editorial management of THE ALDINE may been threasted to Mr. Richard Honry Stochart, who has received assurances of assistance from r bost of the most popular writers and poets of the
