WRITTEN FOR THE "TRUE WITNESS."

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

BY WILLIAM COLLINS.

Ages have rolled away, and Time's rude hand Has crumbled or defaced a thousand fanes, And Baal's altars raised in every land, Where are they now? Not one faint trace remains To tell us where they rose so proud and grand. Their sites the ploughshare turns upon the plains, But thou, unshaken, builded on a rock. The warring storms of time and tempest mock.

Though eighteen centuries of war and storm Have beat against thy bosom, thou art still As fair, as bright, as beauteous of form,
As when first dawned upon Judean hill The first gleam of thy glory; pure and warm
As when first fashioned by God's holy will Thy truth divine, rending the clouds of night. But upon earth and man with Heavenly light.

Rome and her lords in flerce, barbaric pride. Whose eagle swept the earth with tireless wing Warred on the followers of the Crucified With all the strength their savage hate could bring: The Christian name was mocked, accursed, defied, The jest and scoff of Infidel and King And martyrs blood from temple, shrine and cave

Reddened and swelled the yellow Tiber's wave. How changed the power and destiny of Rome! Where once the Christian captive lay, Amidst a host of angry foes-alone, To Roman wrath, and Pagan hate, a prey,

Now gleams the cross on fretted spire and dome, And toward the shrines a thousand pilgrims stray And mid the scenes where ruthless Nero trod. The Christian hymns the praise and power of God.

Nero has passed away; the Carars throne Has crumbled into dust; their very name Upon the earth forgotten and unknown, Save on the dusty scroll of ancient fame While brighter shines the Faith they dared disown. And tried to trample down in blood and shame. It grows and fructifies from day to day, And brighter burns as ages roll away.

The strength of Kings and Potentates has failed To chain or crush thee, or thy power to quell, When in their pride and fury they assailed The Rock of Rome ; Religion's Citadel. O! thou art doubly aimed, and braced, and mailed By God's good love against the powers of Hell, And though against thee Kings and Nations be, Let them rage on, they cannot conquer thee.

Over all lands, in every distant clime. While lives the earth, and time and seasons glide, Higher and higher shalt thou rise sublime, Glorious and grand, God's pure and spotless bride, Justice and Truth, and love and light are thine, By persecution and affication tried.

For there alone is comfort, peace, and rest. ADDRESS TO THE VERY REV. SEARS, PREFECT APOSTOLIC.

O! Mother, clasp me closer to thy breast,

The following address was read in the new Church of the Holy Family, at Bay of Islands, Newfoundland, on Sunday, 7th May.

To the Very Rev. Thomas Sears, P. Ap.

VERY REV. FATHER IN GOD,-It is with feelings of regret, that we, the parishioners of Bay of Islands. approach you on this, the occasion of your departure from among us. Our regret at your leaving us will be modified by the thought that, in this, as in all your other undertakings, you are consulting our spiritual welfare.

We are happy to learn, that your contemplated journey is to strive to procure priests to assist you in the arduous labors of this most extensive Prefecture. We cannot but look with admiration on your zealous and untiring efforts in our behalf attending alone to the wants and requirements of your numerous people, where there is ample room for the labors of many priests.

We cannot be blind to the fact, that should this state of things continue long, it will seriously tell of Commons of the "Registration Bill" for Ireland; on your constitution and health. We pray God the Irish vote on this question was 2 to 1 in favor therefore, the Father of mercies, and the giver of of the measure, but the Home Rulers were overall good things to bless this your undertaking, to powered by the English and Scotch members. He all good things to bless this yo the glory of His Holy Name and the spiritual benefit of us, your loving people.

We beg to tender you our most sincere congratulations on the success your efforts have met with in the erection of the new church now advancing to completion, which for symetry of proportions and elegance of design, stands without a rival on this side of the Island. And while doing credit to your taste as the designer, it will, we sincerely trust remain a lasting monument of your zeal for the salvation of souls.

We avail ourselves of this occasion to express our thanks to you in that while solicitous for and ever watchful over our spiritual welfare, you are not unmindful of our temporal necessities. We know that your highest ambition is to see your people pros-perous and happy, for the accomplishment of which you consider no sacrifice too great on your part, or no labor insurmountable when you feel that our common interests demand your assistance.

In conclusion, we pray the Almighty to bless and prosper you in all your undertakings, and that meeting the necessity of having the Constitution He may be pleased to leave you long amongst us to break the Bread of Life and to continue the good of members and others; many had spoken to him works you have so nobly begun, is the pious wish of about it, and he had several enquiries from the your devoted people.

Signed on behalf of the parishioners of Bay of Isiands, MICHAEL MALLARD. WILLIAM PETIPAS, THOMAS PETIPAS, NATHANIEL PETIPAS, JOHN BARRY (Jr), JOHN BARRY (St), THOMAS CARTER, MANSPIELD PETIPAS, JOHN MCDONALD.

REPLY. To the foregoing address Very Rev. Father Sears.

replied as follows: My Dear People: I am grateful to you for the beautiful Address you have thought proper to present to me, on this, the eve of my departure from among you. I need not say that I regret having to absent myself from you for a time, as keenly as you will feel the want of a Minister of the Altar, during my absence. But that which would the stronger induce me to stay, is that which impels me to go, viz., the procuring of spiritual guides for you of this Bay, and the other parts of the extensive prefecture committed to my care. The labor and solicitude of so many settlements along this extensive coast, is already telling on my constitution, and I fear that, left alone to fulfil the arduous duties, of the Minlatry, -which is a matter of utter impossibility for one priest, though he had the strength of a Hercules

-I cannot long bear up under so heavy a burden. So, that, hard as it is to see your fine Church without a Pastor for this season, I must nevertheless, yield to the dire necessity, and commend you to God's mercy, while I go to seek one to take permanent charge of you.

The number of the faithful is increasing so rapidly,—and thank God! there is ample room and means for many more—that several priests will be required.

In my absence, I confide much in your fervor to persavere in those practices of temperance and sobriety, which together with other virtues, will preserve you from your spiritual enemies. The inscrutable providence of God, has placed in this new Country.

Until within the last thirteen years, our Bell- well as to describe the correct system of guiding their homes on the lower grounds by the late flood, gion was represented only by one family; since and directing a household —priceless knowledge, The bridge carried away was moored down the then,-but notably for the last seven or eight years -our number has increased to several hundreds, and now you have the consolation of worshiping God in as neat a Church, as one can meet with in any new Mission.

I have to compliment you, and all the inhabitants of West Newfoundland, on the facts disclosed by the Census of 1874, viz: That our population has increased, at the remarkably high rate of 60 per of the United States, which is computed at 14 per cent per annum. If this has been the result in our disorganized state, what may not be expected when our Country is opened out, and its varied natural resources brought within the reach of enterprising ney, which I must continue, long or short, till by the guidance of a kind Providence, I can procure priests, earnest and zealous, to carry out the work of the Ministry among you.

Do not cease to pray the Supreme Pastor of souls to send you good, and faithful pastors. For one of the greatest blessings that God can send a people ERS. in their present state is a good and zealous priesthood. In this isolated prefecture, we can well apply the words of Christ, "Missis quidem multa operarii autem pauci,"—"The harvest is great, but the laborers are few." But be you faithful in following the injunction He has imposed, "Pray ye the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His har-

You refer to my solicitude for your temporal, as well as your spiritual welfare. Undoubtedly, when the temporal is so intimately bound up with the spiritual, that one cannot be wholly attended to without a special reference to the other, like the Divine and human nature in the Person of Christ, or the temporal and spiritual in the Church, which cannot be separated without detriment to the latter. I find it necessary for the people of Newfoundland of the articles of war-coming to the knowledge of especially that their spiritual guides should take a an intended mutiny, and not giving information, lively interest in their temporal concerns.

Newfoundland is one of the oldest colonies settled by British subjects. It is evidently one of the richest in natural resources. Why then should its surplus population—instead of growing into a flourishing and prosperous people, as is almost invariably the case with the British Colonies,—be obliged in a great measure, to migrate to other parts leaving the increase at home only at a very low figure.

The old and organized districts in the East and South have advanced only at the slow rate of 81 per cent in five years. This is owing to their having confined themselves mainly to one branch of industry—the Fishery—This branch,—though very lucrative, especially to the business portion of the people-does not advance like other industries-and notably the Agriculture, in proportion as it is developed—but it on the contrary deteriorates, year by year, as the History of the world shows. Hence it is, that in those Districts which confine themselves entirely to fishing, the ordinary increase must seek for bread elsewhere.

How then, can the Pastor in such a contingency be indifferent, or neglect giving an occasional admonition, where he sees the dire consequence of the system heretofore followed in this " land of

Again requesting the continuation of your prayers on my behalf, which I shall be happy to reciprocate, especially at the holy Alter,

I remain your faithful Pastor. THOMAS SEARS.

HOME RULE MOVEMENT.

The regular monthly meeting of the Montreal Branch of the Irish Home Rule League was held on the 6th inst., in St. Patrick's Hall, the President, Edward Murphy, Esq, in the chair.

After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved, the President briefly reviewed the Home Rule news received since last meeting. He referred to the defeat in the House pointed out the great disadvantages that Ireland labored under in this matter, and made some interesting comments on it. He next referred to the victories achieved by the Home Rule members, they baving succeeded in carrying through the House of Commons the "Irish Municipal Privileges Bill " and the " Sunday Closing Bill" for Ireland; this latter was stoutly opposed by the Government, although Scotland has been for years enjoying the benefits of Sunday closing. He spoke of the great disappointment felt at the heartless manner in which Disraeli declared in the House of Commons that there would be no amnesty, no mercy, extended to the poor political prisoners. He referred to the great loss the National cause had sustained in Cork, through the criminal rivalry of two Home Rule candidates contesting the seat with a Tory, who, of course, carried the day against them. thus giving the seat so ably and patriotically filled by the late lamented J. P. Ronayne into the hands of the enemy. The President brought before the and By-Laws of the Association printed for the use country for their rules. After discussion it was moved by John Hatchette, Esq, and seconded by Secretary be a committee to carry out the same."- passed unanimously.

It was understood that they are to be ready for distribution at next meeting. After the admission of members and the transaction of some routine business the meeting ad-

(Since the above was written we are happy to inform our readers that twelve of the military political prisoners to whom Mr. Murphy alluded in his speech, have made good their escape from Western Australia, they anticipated Disraeli's insulting refusal to set them at liberty, by liberating themselves. In another column will be found particulars, so far as received, of their escape. Disraeli's heartless speech was made a few days too soon, had he had any idea that 12 of the political prisoners (all military men) were then at liberty his tone of sarcasm and insult would have been much softened we think .- ED. VILLA MARIA CONVENT.

The annual examination of the senior pupils of Villa Maria Convent in the important science of house-keeping, including the culinary art, came off on Wednesday afternoon of last week in the presence of a large number of ladies, nearly all excellent judges in the various departments of household science, submitted to their inspection. The culinary course surpassed itself this year in the number of substantial and ornamental dishes prepared by its fair members, and the meats, poultry, jellies, salads, cakes, covering the large table in the centre of the hall were all that could be desired. The young ladies were called on to produce You as the pioneers of this new Colony, to be the caries that displayed, but also for the best modes in the care, to plant the tender germ of Faith of conducting operations in laundry and panky, as found very convenient by those driven from ing a loss of $60,000.

the acquisition of which should be the aim of lovely woman true to herself and the duties of her sex. Valuable counsels were also given regarding the most judicious manner of managing and training domestics; counsels, which if acted upon, will spare many a headache and heartache to the young pupils of Villa Maria, when in days, not, perhaps, very far distant, they shall find themselves estab-lished in the sweet queenship of their own indivicent in five years, i.e., 12 per cent per annum. This dual homes. The display of fancy and plain needle increase is second only to the unprecedented increase work, mending and knitting, called forth warm encomiums from the lady judges present. Some exquisite specimens of lace work, fine and delicate as gossamer, were enthusiastically admired. Music, vocal and instrumental, played with much judg-ment and feeling, pleasantly varied the more prac-tical part of the seance. At the close of the latter, It is therefore natural, that in anticipation of the Rev. Mr. Marechale, Chaplain of the Institution, such a result,—even if present wants did not render addressed some words in French, of kindly counsel it imperative—that I undertake my proposed jour- and encouragement to the pupils, followed by and encouragement to the pupils, followed by Edward Murphy, Esq., who performed a similar duty in English, after which pupils and guests, equally gay and satisfied, separated.

DOMINION ITEMS.

THE CRANCE PROCESSION .- The Montreal Herald understands that the Rev. Canon Baldwin, who, it was stated, had consented to preach a sermon in the Cathedral on the 12th July, has, in view of the determination of the Orangemen to have a procession on that day with all the insignia of their order, declined to preach. Mr. Baldwin only returned to the city on Thursday, and took the earliest opportunity to inform the leaders in the movement of his determination not to comply with their request.

Numerous parties are constantly arriving at Sault Sto. Maric, with a view to settling.

Plenty of good water is being got at St. Mary's, as the result of the boring operations by the Council. Kingsron, June 8 .- A heavy thunder storm passed over here to-day. A number of telegraph poles outside the city were shattered by lightning.

Nonthront, June 9 .- A man named Jas. H. Foster had two barns struck with lightning and burned at 11 a.m to-day. The animals and grain were taken out. Partly insured.

A. Brogan, Esq., N. P.,

"That the Constitution and Bye-Laws of the Association be printed, and that the President and Secretary he a committee to carry out the same."

The Rev. D. F. Belanger, Professor of English at the Laval University, has been appointed Vicar at the Basilica, and the Rev. Ovide Godin, Vicar at Secretary he a committee to carry out the same." Grondines.

> OTTAWA, June 11 .- Brennan, who was arrested on suspicition of being connected with the firing of the buildings in the city, has been committed for trial.

> OTTAWA, June 13 .- The Caledonia Springs Company have made arrangements so that visitors can go from Ottawa to L'Orignal and return for $2; from Montreal and return $1; tickets in all cases good for 30 days.

The crops in Grafton, Ont., are looking well, fall wheat was but little sown and was badly winter killed. Quite a number of fields were ploughed up and sown with spring rain. The hay crop promises well, a good rain would prove very acceptable.

MONTREAL, June 9 .- This morning about two o'clock, a barn belonging to a man named Crusoe, situated within about a mile of Laprairie was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. The inhabitants of the place turned out, and succeeded in confining the fire to the limits of the barn.

LINDSAY, June 9.—During a heavy thunder storm this afternoon the Separate School building was struck by lightning and set on fire. The flames were extinguished before much damage was done. None of the inmates of the school were injured, but many of the children received a severe shock.

THE CROPS.—Reports from levery part of the county indicate favorable crops. Except in a few localities where the frost touched, the barley crop looks well, and good yield is anticipated. If the weather proves favorable, farmers will have large crops, and should prices rule fair they will have reason to be thankful .- Belleville Ontario.

Numerous empty houses at Portage du Fort testify to the exodus that has followed the decline of the lumber trade there. Some of them were.

stream, and is probably towed back to its place by this time.

St. Patrick's Asylux, Ottawa.—The regular meeting of the council was held last evening. Since the last meeting quite a large number of poor persons, both young and old, were admitted. understand that the annual bazaar will be held in October next. As this is a very popular and praiseworthy institution, no doubt any effort made on its behalf will be liberally responded to on the part of the people at large.—Ollawa Times, June 9th.

"THE DOMINION PRINTER."-We have received the current number of this journal printed at the Dominion Type Foundry, which contains much valuable information relative to the trade. The handsome appearance and excellent quality of the work displayed in this number is especialy commendable to Canadian enterprise, and is certainly far above the average of similar American publications. We understand the Company intend opening a branch office at Toronto.

There has been no reprieve as yet granted to Ward, the wife murderer, in jail at Brampton. He has been visited by several clergymen, but they make no impression on him, nor does he yet appear to realize his position. His friends still hold out hope that his sentence will be commuted to imprisonment. The Sheriff has put on extra turnkeys and guards to prevent a second Cayuga case occurring. The execution is fixed for the 20th instant,-Hamilton Times.

William Fairweather was born in King's county N. B., and in the year 1845 left St. John N.B., in the ship Native with his two uncles, who were owners of the vessel, bound for the port of London. There is no evidence that the vessel ever arrived at its place of destination, but was supposed to be lost with all on board at sea. Nothing was heard of William Fairweather by his family connections until this year, when comes the startling news that he has died in Virginia City worth ten millions of dollars, and had been for some years engaged in the occupation of a miner.

Advices received by the Fisheries Department state that the berring fishing in the Magdalen Islands this spring has been very successful. The fish were more abundant than for many years past; oe vessels had loaded with full cargoes in a short time; 32 cargoes, of 38,000 barrels, were sent to ports in Denmark, and one cargo, of 900 barrels, finds its way to Sweden. Codfish and mackerel replaced herrings, and are being caught in large quantities. Several lobster factories have begun operations at Amherst Harbor, and, having found lobsters plentiful, are doing a good business.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Toole, of Brockville. found hanging to a bed-post dead, returned a ver-dict of suicide through temporary insanity. The theory was advanced that she might have fallen ac-cidentally, and the handkerchief catching on the bed-post, she being too weak to free herself was strangled. The examination of the witness rather tended to show that the unfortunate woman suffered for the necessaries of life which together with her weakness resulting from a long season of illness, so preyed upon her mind that partial derangement en-

A committee appointed at the recent convention of Fire Underwriters has made a report that thirtyfive per cent, of all the fires of last year originated from incendlarism, and that fifty-five per cent, of the whole amount of property destroyed by fire was through incendiarism, or, in other words, that the losses by this crime for the year in the United States and Canada ran up to fifty millions of dollars. This is a statement sufficient to stagger belief, but the Committee declare they have proof for the assertion. They recommended the offering of small rewards for the detection and apprehension of incendiaries.

LARH SUPERIOR BOATS DELAYED .- SARNIA, June 9-The steamer Manitoba arrived yesterday afternoon from Lake Superior with 40 passengers and a general cargo. The captain reports the ice around the north shore very heavy yet. He was for a week blocked in at Duluth along with the City of Fre-mont and other boats. They made several attempts to force the blockade, but were unable to do so until the wind changed, even then they passed through ice piled up above the guards of the steamer. She left again for Lake Superior this evening with 155 passengers and freight. Among the passengers are Sergeant Walker and a number of men, with horses &c., for the mounted police.

The farmers of Manitoulin have again had a hard lesson about attempting to keep an overstock of cattle. Although the past winter was exceedingly mild, a number of cattle and some horses this year perished for want of food. The hay crop, as well as the cereals, was last year very light, but the general scarcity of food in the spring points to the conclusion that we must either be more cautious in increasing stock, or more provident for its prospective needs in the winter season. -Ploughing and seeding have been interrunted by heavy rains, and the croakers are prophesying another unremunerative season and stampede from the Island. The majority, however have not lost their faith, and are gotting in as large a crop as circumstances permit.

PERTH, June 10 .- Very fine to-day-Fine shower yesterday-Crops are begining to look up-Rain had been needed badly-Some very cold nights, however, occasionally. A few warm days though will redeem a great deal. Shade trees put down this year seem to be doing very well so far,-if boys, some big and some small, would but let them alone. No less than four displays in the hymenial line this week; and appearances would indicate as many more shortly; Mosquitoes don't seem to affect them, but "Miss-Kittys" do! Grand singing in Roman Catholic Church last Sunday, under supervision of Father Leonard-a truly "A-1" Mus'aian, and able orator. Times are dull. "High School" matters, however, have a brisk trade, the culminating point in which, now, is expected to arrive in a few days. The building is rapidly going up, and promises to be a credit to the place, -site is very good, and ground commodious .-- Com.

A young man named Samuel Taylor, while at work, in one of Mr. R Netherton's fields in the 1st con. of Reach, about five of the afternoon of Monday, 29th, was accosted by a man about 25 years of age 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, with light brown bair and small side whiskers, and wearing a black coat and pants, without vest and with a light sash around his body, shanty boots, pretty well used up, and a black and red checked flannel shirt. The worthy here described came into the field where Taylor was ploughing and entered into friendly conversation with him, in the course of which he presented a revolver at the head of Taylor, demanding his money or his life. Taylor at once fled for safety and the robber fixed at him; in Taylor's hurry he stumbled and fell. The robber gave chase, and overhauled Taylor ere he could get up, and forcibly took from him all the cash he had—50 cents, and then rifling his pookets he took his watch and a pocket knife and made off. The robber was last seen crossing Mr. McGill's farm in the direction of Port Perry. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the unknown, and placed in the hands of a constable.
