

be delivered up to be cancelled; and directing a reference to the Master in Ordinary to take an account upon the footing of the findings and to certify the amount owing to the plaintiff, whereupon judgment is to be entered for the plaintiff for the amount so found with subsequent interest and the costs of the action and reference. Edward Meek, K.C., for the plaintiff. J. J. Gray, for the defendant.