

The International Corps of Inspectors shall carry out the functions assigned to it by the Commission, with the ways and means that the Commission determines or establishes in its rules of procedure.

The International Corps of Inspectors shall have at its disposal all the resources in personnel and finances, as decided by the Commission, necessary to ensure the strict observance of the commitments on security matters. Its proceedings shall be prompt and thorough.

The Parties obligate themselves to give the Commission all necessary co-operation in facilitating and discharging its responsibilities.

For the purpose of collaborating in the performance of the functions of the Commission, the latter shall have an Advisory Body consisting of one representative of each Central American State and having the following duties:

1. To serve as a liaison between the Verification and Control Commission and the Parties.
2. To help in the fulfillment of the duties assigned to the Verification and Control Commission.
3. To co-operate, at the request of the Commission, in the swift resolution of incidents or controversies.

The Commission may invite a representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and a representative of the Secretary-General of the Organization of American States to participate in its meetings as observers.

The Commission may establish auxiliary bodies and seek the assistance and collaboration of any Mixed Commissions that may exist.

(c) Functions of the Commission

The function of the Commission shall be to ensure compliance with the commitments assumed concerning security matters. To that end it shall:

- Verify that the commitments concerning military manoeuvres provided for in this Act are complied with.
- Ascertain that no more military materiel is acquired and that military forces are not increased, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 19 (a) of chapter III of this Act.
