

Ontario. The Association is undertaking a review of the effect of the recent Canadian budget and the proposed changes in the United States tax system to determine the effect on the industry doing business in both countries. The Association tends to view these disparities as potential impediments to investment in Canada.