

In addition to Dr. Bangemann's long and distinguished career in FRG politics, he has held many senior positions in European policy and planning organizations, and since 1980 has been Vice-President of the European Movement and Chairman of its Institutional Committee.

Canada enjoys a strong trade and investment relationship with the Federal Republic of Germany which is the world's second largest trading nation and a major partner in the European Economic Community.