Tariff, The—

Motion—

"That the House go into Committee of Supply."—Hon. Mr. Cartwright, 472.

Motion in amendment—

"That all the words after 'that' in the original motion be struck out and the following inserted thereof:—'This House deeply regrets that the Government has not proposed to Parliament a policy of increased protection to our various and important manufactures, the large amount of capital now invested therein, and the present depressed condition of the country rendering such a policy necessary to restore them to a condition of prosperity.'—Mr. Workman, 472.

After debate, the House divided, when the amendment was negatived—119 nays to 64 yeas, 504.

Motion—

"That the House go into Committee of Supply."—Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, 568.

Motion in amendment—

"That the Speaker do not now leave the Chair, but that it be resolved that this House regrets His Excellency the Governor General has not been advised to recommend to Parliament a measure for the readjustment of the tariff, which would not only aid in alleviating the stagnation of business deplored in the gracious speech from the throne, but would also afford fitting encouragement and protection to the struggling manufactures and industries, as well as to the agricultural products of the country."—Sir John A. Macdonald, 573.

After discussion, the debate on the motion and amendment was adjourned, 601.

Resumption of the debate on the motion of the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, that the House go into Committee of Supply, and the motion of Sir John A. Macdonald in amendment thereto, 626.

The debate again adjourned, 651.

Resumption of the debate on the motion of the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, that the House go into Committee of Supply, and the motion of Sir John A. Macdonald in amendment thereto, 654.

After long debate, the House divided, and the amendment was negatived—116 nays to 70 yeas, 684.
