

Old Age Security Act

plied the 1,600,000 by ten. It would not take that much money, and if we were paying them too much it would be taxed away. Surely, this is the principle upon which the government was working with respect to the guaranteed income supplement. Otherwise how could it have put some of these pensioners in the income tax bracket.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Mr. Speaker, could it be confirmed to us what the business will be tomorrow afternoon? We know what it will be at night.

Mr. Jerome: The intention is to continue with this measure tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Bell: And supposing we did complete it fairly early tomorrow?

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Six o'clock.

Mr. Jerome: I have had a word with one of the other house leaders and perhaps I am advisedly not prepared for that eventuality.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: It being six o'clock this House stands adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m.

At six o'clock the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
