* * * The bearer of these Reports having been robbed between La Rochelle and Paris, only these two letters were recovered and published.

This Relation, and that for 1660 (H. No. 113) are the rarest of all. Of 108 only 2 copies are known.
That in the Bibliothèque St. Geneviève: H. 425, a copies, 1 in M. S. almost facsimile from the very rare copy in the Library of the Parliament in Québec, destroyed by fire in 1854—the ad a reprint at Albany from the foregoing M.S. These two copies are bound in morocco to match the set.

* * * This relation with that of 1656 are the rarest of all. Mr. Harrisse discovered two copies in the reserve of the National Library in Paris, (LK¹²741.) He also points out variations between these and the Albany reprint—but these are probably the mistakes of the copyist of the manuscript. It is not probable that there were two issues of the Relation.

Another Copy, Red morocco—L. P. with 3 title pages and 3 last leaves with variations.

Another Copy, in small 8vo. Purple morocco to match, containing the 3 Albany reprints of 1656, 1660 and 1676, of which last see that year.
