

15. Any person or persons listening on the line when others are talking will, upon FIRST offence, have their phones taken out, and on no condition will they be allowed another phone.

16. No subscriber shall allow the free use of his telephone to any person not a subscriber, except it be a member of his family, his partner in business, his employe or guest whose home is not along the lines of this Company or who is a subscriber of another line which has free exchange with this Company.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this rule shall be charged with full amount of the message so permitted; in mind that Central can listen in at any time and will sooner or later detect violation of this rule.

17. A messenger fee of ten cents will be charged when the person called has to be sent out for by Central.

18. No profane, abusive or obscene language shall be permitted to pass over the line. Any person so offending shall be fined one dollar for each offence and shall be deprived
