MAY IRWIN PLAYS "WIDOW BY PROXY"

Real Comedy Featuring Prominent Actress at Princess-"Ready Money" At Alexandra.

GOOD BILL AT SHEA'S

Victor Moore Returns in Vaudeville-Stair's Review and "Taxi Girls" At Burlesque Houses.

The attraction for the coming week at the Princess Theatre will be May Irwin, the very funny comedienne who is proud to claim Canada as her birth-place, altho for years a shining comedy light on the stages of New York and all over America. Miss Irwin is blessed with a wholesome personality and the keenest sense of humor and is said to hold the record for making people leugh and driving away dull care. The Jolly May has for this season been provided with a brand new comedy called "Widow by Proxy," and in this piece Catherine Chisholm Cushing is said to have found the best vehicle of her long career. Under the direction the Liebler Company, famous for pretentious dramatic offerings, Miss Irwin enjoys the support of a superior company of well-known players and a scenic adornment of an elaborate description. "Widow by Proxy" does not pretend to solve any problem or point any moral. It is designed purely to amuse and is said to succeed in this praiseworthy aim beyond the fondest hopes of author or star prior to its presentation before an audience. Toronto is to enjoy "Widow by Proxy" just prior to its New York premier, which is announced for week after next. Once launched in the metropolis it is confidently believed the piece will run the season out. Miss Irwin is one of Gotham's greatest favorites and her annual engagement on Broadway is

Nazimova in "Bella Donna."

The lengths to which a woman will search for excitement and to gratify her love of the luxuries of life have been visualized to the stage by James Bernard Fagan, who is said to have made an absorbingly interesting play out of "Bella Donna," the widely-read novel by Robert Hichens. The play, like the novel, keeps one in suspense until the final scene and the role of "Mrs. Chepstow" as played by Mme. Nazimova is said to be one of the most wonderful bits of acting and artistry whose aver seen the country towns.

"Ready Money" is described as a comedy in three acts. The scene is laid in the rooms of Sam Welch, the son of a New York millionaire. It is New Year's Eve. Stephen Baird, owner of a skyrocket mine, is penniless, whom he has borrowed money, is go-ing to foreclose on the mine, when Jackson Ives, a man of the world, inhave money, you don't need to spend t; you need only to show it," says Tommy dancing, the dance that has set all Europe dancing after seeing the money brings all of Baird's friends clamoring for shares in the mine, and Robert Mantell.

Toronto citizens who have known Robert B, Mantell for many years can not but lift their hats in admiration for the remarkable artistic advance shown by that sterling actor, as evi-shown by that sterling actor, as evidenced by his interpretation of diffi-cult roles. Years of toil, struggle cult roles. Years of toll, struggle and faint-hearted public support did not embitter or daunt Mantell.

"Big Review" at Star.

There is no gainsaying the popularity of F. W. Stair's own "Big Review" company, which, headed by Frankie Heath, the magnetic come-dienne and star, will be the next attraction at the Star Theatre, with the customary matinees. There is reason, and it is easily explained, when it is taken into consideration that it is a show entirely different from anything presented over the Empire circuit. "Hickey in Politics" is the vehicle presented, and, in point of novel features, continuity of action, and originality, is easily in the van of its com-

There is a new and marvelous method for restoring lost manly strength, for renewing vigor, which every man should know of, a self-restorer which operates without the use of drugs or medicine, a new way to treat yourself for your ills and weaknesses. See description below. Please remember that a man is not one day older than he actually feels, and therefore no matter what your age, if you are young or elderly, married or single, large or small, if I can show you, reader, how you yourself, may actually reader, how you yourself, may actually add to your system, nerves and blood the very nerve force or vigor which may have been drained away, and which is necessary to make you strong, vigorous and capable again, then I have shown you the real secret of perpetual strength, and how you can again be filled with vigor, and again be just as pawerful in your influence and just as the oughly manly in your capacity as the biggest, fullest blooded, most successful fellow of your acquaintance.

your influence and just as the oughly manly in your capacity as the biggest, fullest blooded, most successful fellow of your acquaintance.

The new self-treatment for the restoration of manly strength, to which I refer above, is a little light-weight VITALIZING Appliance of my invention, which is now meeting with a tremendous demand, and being used by men everywhere all over the world. This little VITALIZER, weighing only several ounces, is comfortably buckled on the body and worn all night. It is so small and so compact that even a room-mate would not suspect that you were wearing it a. If, however, this VITALIZER is small in size, it is not small in power, for it generates a great tangible FORCE, which can be measured on scientific instruments. A POWER which I call VIGOR or NERVE ENERGY, and it sends this marvelous FORCE into your blood, organs and nerves while you sleep. All you have to do is to lead a decent, manly man's life, free from excesses and dissipation, then use the VITALIZER, nothing more. If this is followed out and the VITALIZER does for you what these others say it does for them, then all the pain or weakness will disappear from the small of your back—possibly from the first night's use—and you will be restored to a strong, vigorous, manly, capable, man, without a single ache, pain or weakness. Please remember, I am not asking you to buy one of these VITALIZERS, but merely request you to first send-for the free book described below, a section of which is devoted to an explanation of this VITALIZER, and gives you its whole wonderful story, so that you may know what intelligent young and elderly men everywhere are saying about it.
