

"Pro Christo et Ecclesia."

The Presbyterian S. S. Teacher's Course of Study.

OPEN TO ALL WILLING TO ENTER.

DIRECTIONS TO STUDENTS:

1. Furnish yourself with a good Reference Bible, a note book and pencil, and any other books bearing on the subject, (see list below).
2. Be punctual, attentive, and persevering in your attendance and study. Twenty minutes per day, faithfully applied, will make the study profitable and pleasant.
3. Carefully and frequently read the portions of Scripture containing the subjects of study. Also review, from week to week, and the work will become easy.
4. Submit to written examinations in your class. Endeavour to answer all questions put in the class. Submit your difficulties to the Teacher, and the final examination will be comparatively easy and the result encouraging.

BOOKS THAT MAY BE CONSULTED WITH ADVANTAGE TO TEACHER AND STUDENT:

"THE PRESBYTERIAN NORMAL CLASS"	$3.00 per dozen.
"THE S. S. TEACHER'S COMPANION"	1.00 "
Published by C. Blackett Robinson, Toronto.
"PREPARING TO TEACH"	$1.00
"PHILOSOPHY OF THE PLAN OF SALVATION"	60
"THE HEBREW LAWGIVER."

Presbyterian Board of Publication, Rev. Andrew Kennedy, London, Ont.