Lacrosse Notes.

St. Sifnon's Lacrosse Club reorganize to-night at Prospect Park Rink at eight of clock. All interested kindly attend.

President Jones of the Vancouver Lacrosse Club proposes to take his team on a trip down east at the close of the 1911 season, providing, of course, that they grab the silverware. Con would have given the boys an outing last season if—but they didn't go. However, prospects are much brighter this season.—Victoria Times.

The New York Lacrosse Club will open its season institute. Games have been arranged with Lehish. Swarthmore, Crescent A.C. and West Point. This club is composed of ex-college players. The officers are: H. W. Steinert, Columbia, '97, president; H. P. Moran, Corneli, '03, vice-president; Alan Coggeshall, Columbia, '02, captain; O. W. Breuer, University of Pennsylvania, '04, hon. president.

St. Thomas' Stakes.

ST. THOMAS, Mar. 29.—The St. Thomas Driving Association have discharged their several liabilities, including the mortgage on their property, and enough has been contributed by the members to pay off the sum of the club's indebtedness, amounting to $600. George S. McColl, secreta y of the St. Thomas Racing Association, has received several entries for the big stake events in connection with the four days' meet here in July next. Some good horses have already been entered and many others are expected before the entry lists close on April 1.

Montreal Jockey Club Stakes.

Montreal Jockey Club is of stake events announced by the Montreal Jockey Club for their spring meeting at Blue Bonnets, commencing on Saturday, June 3, and continuing for a week, does not show any variation from a year ago. The events are the same, the distances unchanged, while there has been no disturbance of the added money in the four fixtures. As regards the latter item, while some of the tracks have made small increases, the Montreal people announce it as their intention of adopting the policy of liberal devenient purses, which will mean the elimination of most of those of the $400 variety. May 1 has been fixed as the closing date for nominations and with the prospects bright for a large following of the Canadian circuit during the season a liberal subscription is looked forward to. The events are as follows:

The Kindergarten Stakes, for 2-year-clus, selling, Jockey Club to add $1000. Five furlongs.

The Hotel Cup, for 3-year-olds and upwards; the Jockey Club to add $1200: 1½ miles.

BUFFALO, March 29 .- To show the Toronto bowlers that their efforts to help along the recent N.B.A. tournament with so big an entry was appreciated by the Buffalo pin knights, a big delegation of the best teams in the city has made arrangements to take part in the Canadian championships which will be started on Saturday, April 1, and continue for some days.

Buffalo day in the tourney will be on Saturday, April 8, and it is hoped that at least 150 bowlers and friends will make the trip. They will go by special train, for which a reduced rate has been secured, and, best of all, the bowlers will be able to shoot all three events on the same day. All local bowlers are invited and information can be had of H. W. Pollack, 420 Mainstreet, or of George J. Floss, 327 Washngton-street.

Round 6—Schreck rushed Morris, landing right and left to the body. They clinched, and Morris again beat Schreck's kidneys. Schreck landed a right to the jaw as they came out of close quarters. Morris rushed his opponent and began peppering in rights and lefts to the head and body as he pleased. After the round had gone one minute and two seconds, Morris hooked a hard right to Schreck's fount.
