Some of Our Money-Saving Prices for Hardware.

For the benefit of those who may not know and for those who may not be posted on our prices we submit this price list of Hardware. The selling of Hardware is a comparatively new departure for us, but its success and popularity was insured from the very first, because our way of selling was so vastly different from what had been the custom. Buyers are pleased with the money-saving our prices afford, and are quick to take advantage of them. But, enough said. This list will appeal to thousands of readers:
