HOCKEY.

LONDON VS. INGERSOLL.

A very hot game of hockey is expected at the Jubilee rink this afternoon between the Jubilee and Ingersoll teams. The Jubilee team will line up as follows: C. Johns, goal; A. Little, point; H. Kerrigan, cover point; H. Peel (captain), F. Hobbs, W. Redd, and W. Carothers, forwards.

BASBALL.

HUNTING UP A LEAGUE.

Hamilton Herald: Owing to the unsatisfactory condition of affairs of the Eastern League, it is very probable that the Hamilton club will have to hunt up a new arrangement for the coming season. It has been suggested that an international league be formed, composed of Hamilton, Ottawa, London and Kingston, on this side, and Rochester, Utica, Oswego and Auburn on the other. Ex-Manager Addie Richard has had some correspondence on the subject and has already received assurance from Manager Sayer, of Oswego, that he is prepared to enter such a league. It is hardly likely, however, that until the Eastern League matter is finally disposed of that any steps will be taken by the local club towards the formation of a new league.

TRIGGER.

DELAWARE VS. MELROSE.

The Delaware rifle shooters' challenge to the Melrose Club to shoot for an oyster supper was held at Delaware on Wednesday, Dec. 21. The result was in favor of the latter by four points. Captain Mahler was disappointed in about half of his men not coming who had promised. The Melrose team was represented by ten men, all of whom did not shoot.

The captains are likely to arrange for a return match in the near future. After the shoot the boys repaired to J. Tiffany's house in Delaware, where the supper was held, and where host had prepared one "out of eight." At all events, a very considerable large portion of it was out of eight soon after the boys had been seated before the elegant spread. The generous-hearted Melrose men, who were not content with serving oysters only, but there was turkey and other good things galore. After the supper, Mr. Wm. Robinson, of Komoka, was chosen chairman, and a very enjoyable time was spent in listening to speeches and songs.

Following are the totals of scores: Captain Mahler's team—109 yards, off-hand, 161 points out of a possible 300; 200 yards, with rest, 150 points out of a possible 300. Total, 311. Captain Chaloner's team—100 yards off-hand, 167 points out of a possible 300; 200 yards, with rest, 148 points out of a possible 300. Total, 315.

WHEEL.

BIKING BUILDS UP WOMEN.

London, Dec. 25.—Dr. William Ewart, a very prominent physician, has revived the question of the effect of bicycling, especially on women. He says the idea of some learned physicians that the exercise dulls the brain. "The bicycle," he says, "is doing more than any other of the physical pursuits to build up splendid women. It is completely revolutionizing the character of the female existence. Although bicycling among young women only dates back a few years, already they are attaining greater stature and weight. Young girls are showing brighter eyes, better complexions and stronger nerves, and much of this is due to bicycling."

CHESS.

PILLSBURY FIRST.

New York, Dec. 25.—News reached this city today that Pillsbury has been appointed to decide the disposition of the prizes for the most brilliant games played in the recent international tournament at Vienna, has awarded the first prize to Pillsbury, for his game against Halpin, Ljapko, for second prize for his game against Janowski, and Marco third prize for his game against Burn. The prizes are to the value of $100, $75 and $50, respectively.

GOLF.

GOLF IS GOOD.

The growing popularity of golf among women, Dr. Ewart has no doubt, has had something to do with their improvement, and it is the doctors' duty, he says, to do all they can to encourage athletics by the young. It is the only way to build up the race, which is beginning to deteriorate this age of unrest and nervous strain.

It is common talk in golfing circles that a team of British golfing women next year will invade the United States on a golfing tour. No names are yet mentioned, but the team will be thoroughly representative. While last year the projected tour of British male golfers in America fell through, owing to the question of traveling expenses, nothing of the kind will hinder the team of women players.

THE RAILWAYS

Grand Trunk Business Booming—Hard
Blow at Scalpers.

Grand Trunk Railway system earnings 15th to 21st December: 1896, $449,728; 1897, $469,000; an increase of $20,272.

The Wabash road has canceled its notice of withdrawal from the Western Passenger Association. It was said to do so by the Alton agent becoming a member.

The Baldwin locomotive works near, within the last few days, received orders for 56 locomotives, of which 16 are for the Imperial Railway of China. The M. C. R. have issued the usual order that no trains but passenger and live stock and perishable freight be run on Monday so that as far as possible employees may spend Christmas Day at home. The Wabash will also follow a similar course.

The new safety paper that many of the railways will use after Jan. 1 for tickets, will, it is said, prove a harder blow to the scalpers than any national or state anti-scalping measure. It cannot be tampered with in the least without a conductor, when taking up a ticket, discovering it. The paper is even proof against acids.

THE "DAY" AT THE INSTITUTIONS

Christmas and "Santa Claus" Among the Sick and Sad—The Orphans and the Aged Poor Remembered.

In the general festivities yesterday, the city's sick, afflicted and unfortunate were not forgotten. At nearly all the public institutions, the day was pleasantly celebrated. Christmas cheer was liberally provided, and the authorities exerted themselves to make the anniversary one to be long remembered.

ORPHANS MADE HAPPY.

The little colony of motherless and fatherless children from the Orphans' Home attended St. John's Church, a body yesterday morning, and held special Sunday school services at the home in the afternoon, in which the inmates took part. Today will be a red letter one for the orphans, who will be treated to an entertainment in the afternoon, by the Hush Bee, and in the evening a Christmas tree is in order. This has been the all-absorbing talk of the little unfortunates for some weeks past, and is looked forward to with pleasant anticipation by them, well knowing that there is always an abundance of toys, clothing and good things to be presented. Some recitations and songs will be given during the intervals, to make the evening's pleasure more complete. Invitations have been extended to a number of the children's friends and former inmates to be present, and a very jolly and happy time is in store for the little ones.

AT THE ASYLUM.

At the Asylum, Christmas, as it fell on the Sabbath, passed off quietly—much the same as other Sundays. The service yesterday was marked by excellent rendition of Christmas hymns and an impressive sermon, appropriate to the day.

Today, however, the usual celebration will take place. A bountiful supply of turkey, plum pudding and Christmas cake has been prepared for the patients, which will be served at dinner and supper. In the evening, the patients and attendants will assemble in the commodious ball room, where a large Christmas tree, heavily laden with presents for the patients, stands in all its glittering glory. The rooms are beautifully decorated and are splendidly picture-galeries in appearance. No efforts have been spared by Dr. Buckle, the superintendent, and his energetic staff to make the day the most pleasant in the history of the institution.

CITY HOSPITAL.

The inmates of the city hospital are as happy today as circumstances will permit. The staff have gone to considerable trouble to decorate the wards and corridors with evergreens, bunting, flags, etc. A very pretty Christmas tree, heavily laden with the contents of Santa Claus' pack, stands in the scarlet fever ward, and the children are delighted. Appropriate mottoes hang on the walls everywhere, and the hospital is a holiday scene. The patients are permitted to do so—will be treated to a roast turkey and plum pudding dinner. The citizens who have contributed to the comfort and happiness of the inmates of the hospital are: Mrs. (Dr.) Waugh, toys for the children; Colborne street school children, picture books and toys; Mrs. W. T. Strong, two boxes of oranges; Dr. and Mrs. Eccles, two boxes of oranges, holly, and a splendid large cake for the nurses; the Flower Mission, flowers and a Christmas card for each inmate; Mrs. Buttray, food for the children; Mrs. Taylor, toys for the children; Thomas McCormick, 74 boxes candy for patients and help, 16 boxes Paris bonbons for house surgeon and nurses, boxes assorted cakes and candies for matron and superintendent. Religious services will be held this afternoon.

ST. JOSEPH'S HOSPITAL.

Christmas was pleasantly observed at St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday. Many charitable people remembered the sick by sending presents of fruit, flowers, candles, turkeys and all the substantial good things that go to the heart and cheering of a festive board. Two masses were celebrated by Rev. Father Beuter, of Washington University. As many of the patients as were able went to their homes to spend Christmas. This left most of the nurses to spend the day with their friends. Mrs. (Dr.) Ewart sent a magnificent bouquet for the altar. Mr. Rowat a present of bon-bons and cake for each of the nurses, and Dr. Meek a present of fruit for each of the patients.

NO CHRISTMAS DINNER FOR PRISONERS.

This year lawbreakers and offenders confined in the jail will have no Christmas dinner. In years gone by a liberal allowance of roast beef and plum pudding has been served up on Christmas Day, but this will not be the case this year, as no preparation has been made for this festive fare. The band of Christian workers, under Mr. Matthews, yesterday morning provided a supply of good things for the prisoners' breakfast, which was most accepted. Arrangements will be made, it is said, for a dinner to be given the prisoners on New Year's Day.

A Topsy-Turvy Land.

[From the New York Herald.]
The land of the Japanese is that of inversion—least it seems so to us. Viewing things from an Oriental standpoint, we would probably think that the present way of life the topsy-turvy way and pity ourselves for short-sightedness and foolishness, as they do now.

In Japan white is mourning, both for men and women, while women indicate their age by their costume. The Japanese has no foundation to his house, but instead the roof is ballasted that being considered a better safeguard against the violent storms. After dinner speeches are made before dinner, and probably no custom shows the innate good breeding of the Japanese more than this last. Think of the belated guests if such a custom were ours? Think of the speeches thrown to the air?

Some of the Japanese symbols are interesting and deserve recognition, as popular are their works of art in our homes. Look closely at Japanese screen, panel, kimono, fan, and you will find the inevitable cherry blossom, the national flower; the plum, which signifies sweetness of heart; the pine, the strength of vigorous old age; a woman under a roof, charming symbol of content.

The obliqueness of the Japanese eyelid, which comes before one always in speaking of anything Japanese, is caused, it is said, by their living in high latitude, a protection of nature, accorded, too, to many animals.

It is said that the soldiers who had taken Hondo's Saragatilla and the long marches in Cuba much better than the others.

A bearer's section has been formed in the barracks, under Surgeon-Major C. W. Dunlop, ably assisted by Hospital Sergeant Copeman. The object is to instruct the section in the first aid to the wounded. A course of lectures is being given by Surgeon-Major Belton and Hospital Sergeant Copeman, in which the men are much interested. Drill is also being performed, in order that the greatest proficiency may be attained by the section.

His physicians ordered that hot bottles be placed around him, but bottles not being obtainable, hot irons were used, and Mr. Ferguson being careless, forgot to wrap flannel around one, and consequently burned himself very badly, from which it is doubtful if he will ever recover.

Mrs. Pearl Howard, white, the quondam wife of Joseph Howard, colored, wanted Magistrate Bartlett at Windsor, to punish her sister-in-law, Alice Howard. Pearl said she had refused Alice and her dusky lover admission to her house on Cataract street, whereupon the couple had armed herself with a broad-axe, and climbing upon the lean-to, gained entrance to the attic. Without more ado, she leaped through the ceiling, landing in the midst of the family group in a shower of plaster and broken lath, brandishing the axe and yelling like a Comanche Indian. The magistrate is considering the case.
