Mendelssohn Party Are Assured of Magnificent Audiences.

"We are looking forward to a much livelier time than when we went to New York is the way Dr. A. S. Vogt, condition of the Mendelssohn Choir, expressed thinself previous to his departure with his large and happy family of songsters for Chicago last night.

"We went to New York practically an unknown quantity, but this time our mame has gone before us."

A telegram was received by Dr. Vogt from Frederick Stock, conductor of the Theodore Thomas Orchestra, saying: "Orchestral Hall entirely sold out for tree concerts of Mendelssohn Choir."

The choir left in two trains of Pullman cars, one at 7.30, consisting of about 115 feminine members, and the other half an thour later, carrying 110 of the male voices. Sir Henry M. Pellatt, who happened to be seeing a friend off on the New York train, was heard to express regret at not being able to go with the crowd. Among those who did accompany the party were Byron E. Walker and Mrs. Walker, H. C. Cox and Mrs. Cox, J. W. Flavelle and J. S. Loudon, manager of the Standard Bank.

On their arrival at Chicago tigs morning, the choir will be escorted to the Audictorium Hotel, which will be headquarters during the visit. This afternoon between 4 and 6 o'clock a big reception will be rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Glessner and Frederick and Mrs. Stock, while on Thursday afternoon they will be given an inspection of the art galleries on the livitation of the Art Institute. Later the Clift Dwellers' Club, an organization composed of all branches of arts and letters, will tender another reception.
