The Russian war office reported today that the enemy, then hurriedly withdrew to his trenches. An attempt of the Germans to approach the Russian positions north of Lake Narocz also resulted in their repulse.

Russian aircraft have also made successful flights over the Dvina River where German airplanes also dropped bombs. A Russian machine gun position near the Dvina front. The German aircraft were subjected to a concentrated fire from the Russian batteries. Violent fighting was reported in different parts of the regions facing Pustova and Lakes Mieladzi and Narocz, where the Germans sometimes used shells containing poisonous matter.
