

viz:—at the expiration of the first year, $6.00; of the second year $8.00; of the third year, $10.00; of the fourth year, $12.00; of fifth year, $14.00; to be by the said party of the first part placed at interest, for the benefit of the said child and his use when this Indenture shall expire. And also, said party of the second part, with said money, shall transmit a statement in writing to the Secretary of the Corporation, of the condition and welfare of the said child. And lastly, at the expiration of the period of apprenticeship or service, shall provide the said child with a good and new suit of clothes, suitable to the condition of the said child. Provided always, and it is hereby expressly understood, that in the event of the death of the said party of the second part, under whose care the said child is hereby placed, or of treatment inconsistent with the obligations of this Indenture, the party of the first part reserve to themselves the right of resuming their control over the said minor, or taking such other measures for securing his rights as they may be advised.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the said parties to these presents have respectively set their hands and seals, and the seal of the said Corporation, in duplicate, the day and year first above written.
