We Will Give Another $500.00 Tomorrow
---This Time to The Public

I told you yesterday of the $500 that we were compelled to lay down in cash because of a by-law to prevent outside dealers coming into St. John to sell goods below the regular high prices of the local dealers.

We paid the $500 demanded, and tomorrow we will give absolutely free to each of the first 500 customers who purchase goods amounting to $5 or more, One Dollar's worth of merchandise for each $5 spent.

No strings to this offer. Just come and buy Boots to the amount of $5 at my Slaughter Prices and you will receive One Dollar's Worth of merchandise absolutely free.

This offer is good for one day only. Come early. You will find big variety at little prices.

LOCAL NEWS

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
Mr. and Mrs. H. McFadden, 42 Mill street, celebrated a surprising and interesting when about fifty friends assembled at their home in honor of their thirty-fourth wedding anniversary. During the evening W. H. Lowney, on behalf of those present, presented to Mr. McFadden a silver ring, and to Mrs. McFadden, a gold nugget in the shape of a pin. The evening was spent in music and dancing.

FAIRVILLE BOYS MEET.
The boys' classes of the Brotherhood of David of the Fairville Baptist church had an interesting and enjoyable session in the social hall of the church last evening. In connection with the Standard Efficiency Tests course of instruction, a valuable address on the lives of two great Canadians, Sir Charles Phipps and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, was given by S. H. Davis. Following this there was an hour in the gymnasium and refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

FUNERALS
The funeral of F. S. Bonnell took place this afternoon from his late residence, 200 St. James street. Services were conducted by Rev. Robert Crisp, Rev. W. G. Lane and Rev. T. J. Deinde, and interment was made in Fernhill. The esteem in which Mr. Bonnell was held was marked by the large number of floral offerings received.

The funeral of James O'Dell took place this afternoon from Messrs. Chamberlain's undertaking parlors, and was conducted by Rev. B. H. Nobles, and interment was made in Cedar Hill.

BIBLE CLASS BANQUET.
The annual banquet of the men's Bible class of St. Mary's church was held in the church hall last evening. The pastor, Rev. R. Taylor McKim, presided. After the tables had been cleared an interesting programme was heard. J. N. Rogers gave some old-fashioned songs and was followed by Rev. A. L. Fleming in an address on his work among the Sepoians in British India. This was followed by a programme of vocal and instrumental music by some of the world's greatest artists, presented through the medium of the Edison diamond disc phonograph, which had been provided by the courtesy of W. H. Thorne & Co., Ltd.

FINE OF $40
Matter of Junk Dealer's Books Gets into Police Court

Harry Garson, a junk dealer in Water street, was fined $40 in the police court this morning by Magistrate Ritchie for not showing the police his books, wherein are tabulated his business transactions, when asked to do so. The excuse that he offered was that his bookkeeper was home sick, the books were in the wife and the bookkeeper had the key. Detective Barrett said that he had received an urgent reason to investigate buying from outside the city of a considerable amount of brass trimmings. He visited the dealer's shop on February 8. His son was in the office. He asked to see the books. The son said the books were locked in the safe and the bookkeeper, who had the key, was home sick and his father was out of town. On Feb. 6 he again visited the shop. The father was there. He told the same story about the books. The detective asked him to get the key, but she had refused to give it over.

The magistrate struck the full penalty and ordered that the defendant $40 more for registering any goods he had bought since Feb. 8.

SATISFIED THAT DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL
Permission Given for Removal of Body of Joseph P. Mills to His Home Here

The body of Joseph P. Mills of this city, who was struck by a train and killed at Westfield last night, was brought to the city on the Boston train at noon today.

Mr. Mills left the city on the Boston train last evening, accompanied by Edward Corbett, to seek work on the Valley railway. They left the train at Westfield and Corbett decided to remain at the station until morning, while Mills set out to walk to the railway construction camp. Nothing further is known of his movements but, at eleven o'clock, his body was found beside the tracks; apparently he had been killed instantly by being struck by a passing train.

Permission was secured and the body was removed to the railway station. An inquest was to have been held this morning by Coroner W. L. Belyea, but he was ill and was unable to attend. Freeway Murray and Mr. Jones, M.L.A., who were at Westfield, were asked for advice and arranged with the Attorney-General Baxter for permission to have the body removed to the city. The coroner, after a brief investigation of the case, satisfied himself that death was caused by his being struck by a train, that the circumstances were accidental and that no blame could attach to anyone. The attorney-general gave permission for the removal of the body and it was placed in charge of Philip Strick who had come from the city for the purpose.

Mr. Mills, who was about forty years of age, resided at 105 Britain street, John and James Mills of this city are brothers.

W.M. J. LOVE DEAD
Three Months Battle for Life Following Accident

William J. Love, of Milford, passed away this morning in the General Public Hospital after a three months' battle for life. Mr. Love was injured just that long ago by falling from a load of shingles. He was in the employ of Stratton, Cutler & Company, and had just loaded his team. He was proceeding from the mill on the load, and as there was not enough room between the top casing of the door and the team, he was thrown to the ground. His back was broken in two places, also several ribs. He was removed to the hospital, where he became known that he could not recover. But what has astounded the doctors is the fact that he has lingered so long for one in condition in which he leaves his mother, who resides in Milford, and three sisters, May at home and Mrs. John Long and Mrs. Richard Selly, both of West St. John. He was forty-eight years of age and was unmarried. He was looked upon as a very charitable, industrious and hard-working man, and the news of his death, although it was known he could not recover, will be received with sincere regret, and the sympathy of many will go out to his mother and family. He will be buried on Sunday afternoon.

LOCAL HOCKEY.
The St. John Army and City Hockey League standing is as follows:

St. John	Won	Lost
169th	2	0
Siege Battery	1	1
Field Ambulance	0	2

It is possible that one of the military teams may not be able to complete the second round of the schedule, owing to their having received an intimation that they will be transferred to other training quarters. One of the features of this season's games is the harmony existing among the teams and the referee, W. K. Haley. It is no easy job to satisfy all the players, but Mr. Haley appears to be capable of doing so.

The St. John team appears to be in demand in other towns. Both Sussex and Amherst have asked for games. Sussex will be accommodated soon and it is possible that the St. John team will also go to Amherst later.

WILLIAM H. S. GAMBLIN
There occurred at Pearsonville, N.B., on Sunday morning, Feb. 4, the death of one of its most beloved residents in the person of William H. S. Gambelin, in the sixty-second year of his age. Although he had been a very patient sufferer for eighteen years, his death, although not unexpected, came suddenly and quietly. He was the eldest son of the late Samuel M. and Esther Ann Gambelin, and was born on Sept. 30, 1854, spending his life on the old homestead where he died. Surviving him are his mother; his wife, formerly Bessie A. Lawson; one son, John S., at home; and one daughter, E. Blanche, wife of Hiram Webb of Fair Vale; also several brothers and sisters, Mrs. Harry Keyes of W. K. Haley, Mrs. James Soper of Coverdale; John W., at home; George W., now in Montreal; Samuel M., and Rev. forth, both of Vermont, who came home to attend the last sad rites; as well as numerous other relatives. The funeral took place at Woodlawn cemetery on Wednesday afternoon and was attended by many. The pall was borne by near relatives. The floral tributes were very pretty. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hainsbury of Belleisle, pastor of the circuit.

HAD AN OUTING
The Sunday school teachers of St. Peter's church enjoyed a sleigh drive to Torryburn and back last evening. Upon their return they assembled in the Chapel of the Holy Childhood, where refreshments were served. A musical programme was also enjoyed.
