

Canadians In Comfort After Life on Salisbury Plain

The way in which the Canadian soldiers were received in the Wiltshire villages in which they were billeted at the first of the year is shown in an article in the Wiltshire Gazette, from which the following is taken. It is in this section that many of the St. John men who are with the artillery and ammunition column are located. The article, which is headed "The Canadians in the Wiltshire Gazette," is as follows:—

Devises is lively, distinctly lively. It is entirely aroused from the lethargic disposition of a characteristic Wiltshire market town, and bristles with the added life of a military centre. That life is welcome—as welcome as are the officers and men of the Canadian Divisional Artillery who are responsible for it. Without the presence of the men of the maple leaf in or near our headquarters the town would probably feel the mantle of almost monotonous quietude consequent on the war settling upon it since a three-fold welcome to the thousands men or so who have come for a time at any rate to share such hospitality as the town can offer.

Though surprisingly little is seen of the men as a body, they are ever passing and repassing about, afoot, on horse, in the pig-stick, all hurrying hither and thither to give orders or in the execution of them. They have been with us for about a week now, some for a few days longer, and from all one can see the civilian and military population in the town mix well, friendships are already formed, and there is no doubt that their presence will tend to cement that unbreakable bond of kinship between us of the mother country and our progressive brothers from over the spreading main.

The new condition of things seemed strange at first to the conservative residents in the naturally quiet little town; we are not unfamiliar with military and semi-military movements—we saw a great deal of them during the earlier months of the war, when the Service Battalions of the County Regiment were being organized, since when some 4,000 men have been mobilized at the Wiltshire Regimental Depot. We are not strangers with military men to military matters, but we have rarely been taken possession of in quite the complete manner we are now by a body of artillery men, with horses approaching 800 and the usual accompaniment of guns and ammunition column.

We are not altogether familiar with the steady grind of such trains of heavy transport and the collateral vehicular traffic as were driven through the streets last week end, or to the number of horses one sees at intervals when the faithful trumpeter blows his blast which represents the "stables." But everybody is happy amongst these strange sights and sounds, and the one hope is that all the "lads in the bunch"—to borrow a phrase from the Canadians themselves—are happy, too.

Late Reports From Scene Of Vaneboro Outrage GERMAN HAD MONEY More Than $100 in His Possession—Repairs to Bridge About Completed and C. P. R. Officials Return to City

After having been in Vaneboro and McAdams' vicinity for some time, owing to the attempted blowing up of the bridge, H. C. Groat, superintendent of the Atlantic division of the C. P. R., returned to the city this afternoon. With him were G. L. Wetmore, divisional engineer, and F. R. Taylor, counsel for the company.

Mr. Groat said that information had been laid against Von Horn. Negotiations were being pending on the matter of extradition. Repairs on the bridge were being completed. The story told by Von Horn yesterday, that he was not generally believed as to the matter of the bridge last night.

The damage to the bridge was believed today to have amounted to more than $100,000. About seven o'clock this morning Deputy Sheriff Ross took Von Horn out of his cell to breakfast in the hotel. WHEAT DROPS; THEN GOES HIGHER THAN IT WAS YESTERDAY Chicago, Feb. 3.—Peace rumors dealt a sudden blow today to high prices of wheat. At the outset as much as eight cents a bushel was knocked off the value of May delivery, in which transactions were relatively small. The July option in which business chiefly centred, was given a setback of two cents at the opening. May sold as low as $1.57, whereas the close yesterday was $1.65. The break in prices, however, was only temporary and soon May wheat touched a new high record, $1.65 1/2.
