YOU BE THE JUDGE

No One Should Doubt These Statements Backed Up by Chas. R. Wasson

There's no sane reason why you should hesitate to accept my statements and put them to a practical test, if you suffer from kidney or urinary diseases, when I tell you we have a medicine that will eradicate your ailment, and that I will furnish the treatment free if it fails to do as I claim.

MORNING LOCALS

C. W. Titus returned from Campbellton yesterday, where he had been assisting his brother, S. S. Titus, who conducted a grocery and boot and shoe store there, and was a heavy loser by the fire.

The loss of a hangar by a female passenger on the outgoing maritime train last evening created quite a stir in the Ladies' waiting-room and caused I. C. R. Pollock to make a little trouble.

The moonlight excursion which was to have taken place last night under the auspices of the Westfield Onting Association has been postponed indefinitely.

Harold McManus, the young son of Alex. McManus, Lakeside, met with a serious accident, which resulted in the breaking of three of his ribs, while walking on the blocks at Hillard's mill Monday.

The picnic of St. Paul's Valley church was held at Westfield yesterday and was largely attended. Two staves of music were provided for the children, and were very much enjoyed.

Notices of action, arising out of the Goggin hotel case, in connection with the arrests of Gertrude and Albert Hopper, and Chas. T. Goggin, proprietor, were yesterday served on Chief of Police Clark, Sergeant Campbell, and Police Constables Sheehan, and Rankine, who figured in the case.

The quick action of his comrades saved little Frank Lenihan, son of P. E. Lenihan, of 114 Queen street, from drowning in Kennedy slip, Lower Cove, last evening.

The boy was sinking for the last time when John Morris and James Cannon jumped in after him. As it was, he was in a very exhausted condition when pulled on the wharf.

Robert Campbell, who is charged with selling liquor on the west side on May Street, has also been charged with selling Premier beer claimed to be an intoxicating beverage. H. O. McInerney, representing Laidlaw's Co., says that M. V. Padlock made an analysis of the beer, and found that it was only 2.04 per cent. alcohol, while 2.22 per cent. is permissible.

A private patient in the Provincial hospital escaped from that place yesterday, and is being searched for in the vicinity of Westfield, where he is thought to have gone.

How's This? We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by F. J. Cheney & Co.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE "MATCHES AND OVERMATCHES" By Daniel Webster

From the "Reply to Hayne." BUT the gentleman inquires why he was made the object of such a reply. Why he was singled out? If an attack has been made on the east, he assures us, did not begin it; it was made by the gentleman from Missouri. Sir, I answered the gentleman's speech because I happened to hear it; and because, also, I chose to give an answer to that speech which, if unanswered, I thought most likely to produce injurious impressions. I did not stop to inquire who was the original drawer of the bill. I found a responsible endorser before me, and it was my purpose to hold him liable, and to bring him to his just responsibility without delay.

METHODISTS TO MEET IN VICTORIA, B. C.

List of Maritime Province Delegates Who Will Attend

The Methodists of Victoria, B. C., are busy preparing for the forthcoming sessions of the Quadrennial General Conference of the Canadian Methodist Church, which will be held in the Metropolitan Church in August next.

The local committee are endeavoring to find homes for these delegates, as Victoria is expected to billet all.

The Victoria Colonist gives the following list of maritime province delegates expected to attend.

Novo Scotia Conference. Ministers: B. B. D. Hills, Ardenis, N. S.; W. H. Harts, Amherst, N. S.; J. Craig

Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago, and within a radius of twenty miles of those cities. But I have not given up the field. My future labors will be confined to circles outside these cities. I have already taken steps to organize a grand opera company to tour the country the season after next.

Of the future of the Manhattan Opera some a home of comic opera on a scale never attempted before, and he had not disposed of it, but had simply agreed not to devote the house to grand opera for a number of years.

Friends of Miss Manning, former wife of James K. Hackett, are awaiting her for some time to congratulate her personally upon the news to the effect that the ceremony is to become the bride of Frederick W. Wadsworth, millionaire of Detroit.

Unless Miss Manning returns east soon they say, congratulations may have to be extended upon her marriage rather than upon her engagement. That Miss Manning was to be married again had been a great secret, and only a few of her most intimate friends knew it. Mr. Wadsworth, it is said, has known Miss Manning for several years, having met her socially.

Their friends knew that he admired her greatly, and to them the news of the engagement will not come as a surprise.

"A farmer's life is often hard, isn't it?" "Yes; at times, it is harrowing."

James R. Inch, LL. D., of Sackville, N. B.; Henry Smith, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; David Allison, LL. D., Sackville, N. B.; J. N. Harvey, St. John, N. B.; S. W. Palmer, M.A., Sackville, N. B.; J. M. Baskin, M.A., Sackville, N. B.; W. D. Baskin, St. John, N. B.; Frank Curran, Richibucto, N. B.; John J. Weidall, Fredericton, N. B.

Reserve-W. C. Furner, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Hunter J. White, St. John, N. B.

F. M. Schlander, Charles Hallie, and Thomas Dixon returned yesterday after a fishing trip to the streams and lakes in the vicinity of Gasperaux, bringing with them a fine catch of trout.

Give Him a Punch On The Front Porch

When the casual visitor arrives, a glass of "Montserrat" Punch is very refreshing.

If you want to serve something really enticing—that will bring smiles of contentment and words of appreciation from your guest—serve one of the many delightful, cooling drinks given in the "Montserrat" Recipe book.

"Montserrat" Lime Fruit Juice is more economical than lemonade. It gives the thirst—tickles the palate—and is all ready to use.

Regular "Montserrat" Punch is simply made; chicken sugar, water, and soda and "Montserrat", but more elaborate recipes may be used when desired. "Montserrat" combines with everything drinkable except coffee.

The Department of Inland Revenue Bulletin No. 197 shows that "MONTERRAT" is "genuine" Lime Fruit Juice.

Your druggist or grocer has "Montserrat".

CHATTY NEWS OF THE GREEN ROOM

Enough titled folk to stock a fair sized principality attended a special matinee at the Shaftesbury Theatre last week, for the benefit of the Actors' Church Union.

There were also a lot of millionaires present, mainly of the American variety. The rest of the audience consisted of just plain people.

A conspicuous feature of the performance was the acting of Miss Anna Stannard, who in private life is Mrs. John Robbins, the daughter of one-time mayor of St. Louis. Miss Stannard has been on the stage many years and until three years ago made her home in New York.

She had a role in the production by Augustin Daly's company of "The Merry Widow" in which Mrs. James Brown Potter and Kyle Bellew starred, and also appeared in the first production of "Camille" in which Mrs. Stannard had a prominent part.
