

RECENT WEDDINGS

Waycott-Farris.
The marriage of Havelock Gordon Waycott and Miss Gladys May Farris was solemnized at 7 o'clock yesterday morning at 187 Waterloo street, by Rev. A. L. Tedford. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Waycott left by train to visit the bride's home at Young's Cove, Kings county, after which they plan to return to this city where they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Waycott's many friends extended hearty congratulations to them.

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Thomas Bradley.
The death of Mrs. Josephine Bradley, wife of Thomas Bradley, occurred on Saturday at her home in New York. She was formerly of St. John and is survived by her father, Thomas Ritchie, of St. John, one sister, Miss Nora Ritchie, of St. John, and one brother, Robert Ritchie, of New York.

Mrs. James F. Osborne.
Mrs. James F. Osborne died yesterday at her home, Park Avenue, East St. John. She was a native of Sheffield Eng., but was of Loyalist descent. She leaves to mourn her husband, three sons, Frederick F., A. Lawrie and Kenneth R., of St. John; one daughter, Mrs. W. M. Jenkins, of Gagetown; two sisters, Mrs. B. G. Carter, of Annapolis N. S., and Mrs. Burton M. Holmes, of Amherst, and four grand-children.

Mrs. George F. Matthews.
The death of Mrs. George F. Matthews occurred on Sunday morning at the home of her son, Dr. W. D. Matthews, Hastings-on-Hudson. The remains of her husband, Dr. Matthews, the famous geologist, has just reached the city, having been brought here for interment at Clifton.

The late Mrs. Matthews was a woman of high intellectual attainments and a tower of strength to her husband in his scientific pursuits. Of a gracious and ever kindly disposition she was always thoughtful for others and won the warm regard of all who knew her. She was exceptionally fond of poetry and, being possessed of a remarkably retentive memory, she could at all times delight her friends with her apt quotations. Mrs. Matthews was before her marriage, Miss Katherine Mary Diller, daughter of Dr. William Diller, a prominent Brooklyn pastor. She married Dr. Matthews, then in the employ of the public service in St. John, on April 1, 1868. She was a faithful and devoted member of Trinity church and for many years a teacher in Trinity Sunday school. She was one of the original members of the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society, of which she was president for a lengthy period. The arrangement of the course of lectures which the Ladies' Association held yearly was a special delight with Mrs. Matthews and her ability in this regard brought great success to the programmes of lectures. When she left St. John to make her home with her son her loss was keenly felt by the association as well as by her very many friends. She had been looking forward to visiting St. John again this summer and her death was very sudden, caused by hemorrhage of the brain.

She is survived by five sons, Dr. William D., of the Natural History Museum, New York, who is also an eminent scientist; George, of Brownville; Harrison T., Charles and John, all of the
